GET TOGETHER AFFAIR SUCCESS

UNION, Nov. 26.—(Special)—Monday evening the Baker Chamber of Commerce, despite the storm, arrived on time and was entertained by the Union Commercial club at the Union Hotel. The object of the meeting was a get-together meeting between Baker business men and the Union business men. A seven o'clock dinner was served in the Union Hotel grill. Chairman Tony D. Smith, past mayor of Union, presided at the meeting, as president of the Union Commercial club and kept the assemblage full of pep with a running attack of short talks given by both Baker and Union men. A very successful meeting was held, both Union and Baker men responding to the get-together feeling. The Baker band and orchestra accompanied the Baker aggregation, which numbered about fifty, and the musical units dispensed some splendid music between toasts. The meeting broke up at about twelve o'clock after spending about two hours dancing in the hotel parlor and was pronounced a success by all present. The result of this meeting leaves a far more friendly feeling prevalent between the Chambers of Commerce of the two cities and points toward some joint achievements in the near future. With the postponement of the Elgin-Union game, scheduled to be played at Union, the 1921 football season was ushered out at Union. In looking over the past season considerable satisfaction is felt. Although Union was defeated overwhelmingly by Baker and La Grande, she played both Enterprise and Wallowa to a tie and at the last of the season was one of the most formidable teams in Union and Wallowa counties. With a green team Coach Billings, after considerable shifting of men and schemes for better team work found a combination that worked like clock work and made up for the poor work in the beginning of the season. In the last four games Union won one, lost one, and tied two. Next year's team will suffer by the graduation of Dalen, Cook, Johnson, Kuhn, Chadwick and Kjelblock, but much promising material was developed on the second team. With the advent of next week the basket ball season opens in Union high school. Practice will probably begin Monday evening at Smith's hall or at the latest Tuesday or Wednesday. Coach Billings expects a winning quietest this year as only one of last year's team is absent from the line-up and Union won eleven out of twenty association games last year. The likely men to fill berths on the five this year are Cook, center; Dalen, forward; and Johnson as guard. Then Martens, Gilmore, Ham and Kuhn all played last year and expect to be in the running. William Roosevelt moved to the Wiley Blauvelt place in South Union Friday. Mrs. S. M. Haynes is reported in a critical condition at present. Mertles Miles and Zylpha Beach, last year high school graduates teaching at Cove and Joseph, respectively, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home. Mrs. U. S. Blacker left for Durkee, Oregon, Wednesday evening to spend the week-end with her daughter, Nina, who is teaching in the Durkee schools. The senior play, first of a series of class plays given monthly, will be staged in January. The high school promises a full dramatic bill, as four plays, an operetta and a glee club musicale are to be presented. A meeting of the Moose Lodge was held at W. V. Connor's residence about a week ago. The object was to secure new members. Burr Smithers and Mrs. A. M. Rieley were married November 15 at Mrs. Rieley's home by Reverend B. S. Hughes. The happy couple expect to make their home in Union. A Thanksgiving dance was given by Tony D. Smith in his hall Thanksgiving evening, music by the Cove orchestra. About one hundred couples attended, several coming from Cove and North Powder. Mr. Smith should be complimented upon the splendid management of his dances and we wish many more of them. The Hallowell orchestra will be in Union some time about the first of the month to give a concert and dance. This orchestra has appeared here before and will be highly welcomed. Thanksgiving was observed quietly in Union. Owing to the snow storm the train service is even worse than usual. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday's mail came in two days late. At present the mails are coming in only a few hours late and the schedule is expected to become normal in a few days. An epidemic of colds and an inflammation of the eyes commonly called "pink-eye" is prevalent in Union at present. This is attributed to the sudden change of weather in the last week. Reports come in from the outskirts of Union that during the heavy snow fall as many as two or three score of pheasants were found roosting in one tree. It appears as if some of the pheasants were a little too wily for the hunters. The Ellison White Chautauqua is due here November 30 and will run until December 5. All preparations for a successful season are completed. A play was given by the Girls' Athletic association of the U. H. S. at the high school Wednesday as the main feature of the Thanksgiving program. The play was a one-act farce called "A Thanksgiving Lesson." The cast of characters was as follows: Mr. Prescott, Georgianna Jensen; Mrs. Prescott, Bobetta Wright;

Hired Boy, Ruth Wortham, and the Hired Girl was Francis Kent. The play was a success and gives good promise for the coming dramatics.

A play, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," was the feature of an evening's entertainment given at the high school by the Woman's club. The play was a pantomime and was a splendid bit of work. In addition to the work a solo was sung by Ruth Schmitt and Grace Cook and Mrs. Edith Pfy favored the audience with a piano duet. Quite a sum was cleared on the evening's entertainment and much credit must be given to the ladies for their splendid management.

A surprise party was held at the home of Dr. T. M. Gilmore in honor of his son, J. Q.'s, birthday. A fine time was had by everyone and J. Q. is wishing he had a birthday every month at present.

Rev. B. S. Hughes spent most of the week at Hot Lake taking treatments for a slight sickness.

One of George Clark's plate glass show windows was broken late Monday evening. The accident, or crime, occurred after one o'clock as Marshall Slater reported it in good condition at this time.

W. J. Burwell, while going to the house after finishing his chores Monday, stumbled and fell over a stick of wood and severely injured his eye. He was unable to see through it for a day or two but after taking treatment at Hot Lake it is rapidly recovering.

Men's Chorus Formed.

The "pep" committee of the Ad Club, headed by Dr. Ray Murphy, has increased the "vocabulary" of its songs, and last evening instituted a series of rehearsals intended to develop the committee into a state where concert numbers can be rendered on short notice. Heretofore the committee has concerned itself primarily with leading singing at banquets and Ad Club meetings but Dr. Murphy has higher ambitions than that. The personnel of the men's chorus will vary from time to time, with approximately sixteen as the basis. The better standards of music will be sung upon occasions from time to time. David I. Stoddard is leader and rehearsals are held in the Eastern Oregon Music company's store.

When the Ad Club chorus is fully developed and a repertoire of concert numbers mastered, there will be two men's choruses in the city, the Men's Club of the Methodist church having already initiated such an organization. With but little preparation a combined chorus would give La Grande a group of about 30 men able to sing standard concert selections. While there is a national movement towards more singing by communities, no Eastern Oregon city has taken the forward strides in this regard that La Grande has.

In this connection it can be noted that in view of the fact that tomorrow begins a state-wide music week, the club will observe Music Week at its luncheon next Tuesday, with T. K. Bellamy as chairman.

OVER THE HILL HIGHLY PRAISED

Few pictures have been exhibited in La Grande that have commanded the universal praise given to "Over the Hill," which is now running at the Arcade. The picture was started at the Star Theatre for a week's run but the heavy snow damaged the roof of the theatre so it was necessary to move it to the Arcade for the remainder of the engagement.

No heart is so hard, no person has become so worldly that the touching scenes of this melodrama do not affect. To see the family growing up, witness the home in all its blessedness and then follow the picture as the mother, broken with age is forgotten by her own off-spring and is dependent upon public charity makes the heart beat with indignation.

True to life, is the comment generally made by those who have seen the picture. Perhaps not in every case this condition may not be true, but in too many instances the mother and father are forgotten when children grow into manhood.

Manager Meyers of the Arcade says it is one of the strongest heart pictures ever presented to the moving picture public and the large crowds that have seen it all express the same commendation.

When Art Failed.
This is a true story of an adventure of two lady artists in Sunny Spain. They were walking and arrived at a little country inn, hot, dusty and thirsty. They couldn't talk Spanish, but wanted some milk badly, so one of them drew a most beautiful high-arty cow, while the other jingled some coins. The Spaniards looked and a boy was sent off post haste. In half an hour the boy returned, hot and triumphant—with two tickets for a bullfight.—From the London Town Topics.
