A TIMELY SUGGESTION.
This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.—Adv.

LAST DAY OF TESTIMONY IN ARBUCKLE CASE

Jack White, 4225 Prospect avenue, Hollywood.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—At the trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, Harry B. Barker, rancher of the Stockton district, and friend of Miss Rappe, took the stand Saturday and testified that he frequently had seen her all doubled up and that she suffered pain after drinking wine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Philo McCullough, Hollywood movie actor, told at the trial of Fatty Arbuckle for manslaughter that his alleged victim, Miss Virginia Rappe, tore her clothing at a party seven months ago.

RAPID STRIDES EXPECTED TO BE TAKEN

cluded their examination of the ship data involved in Secretary Hughes' proposal. The Japanese group was still toiling Saturday, it was said.

A summary of last week's developments on naval proposals indicates the following status: American officers have seen no reason in arguments advanced by Japan to any change in the keystone of the agreement Mr. Hughes proposed, the "5-5-3" naval strength ratio.
British naval officials have accepted that ratio although it means ultimate equalization of the American-British fleets.
Japanese officers have opposed the ratio, urging 10-10-7 instead.
American naval opinion strongly opposed retention by Japan of the battleship Mutsu unless both other powers in due proportion enlarge their fleets. There are indications that some American delegates see strength in the arguments of Japan that the Mutsu might have been included as a completed ship in the retained fleets. There was nothing to indicate, however, that a compromise was being considered in the American group.

It has been indicated that Great Britain was not desirous of undertaking any further naval construction at present, which seems to forecast agreement with the American view.
Japanese officials have presented tables of tonnage to support their claim that they are entitled to retain the Mutsu without similar retention by the other powers. The Japanese have contended she was a completed ship November 11.
The next step, when the three groups of experts finish, will be their report to the armaments committee. It seems likely that even if the British and American experts are found to be in accord, Japanese naval officers will submit differing conclusions. It will then become the task of the "big five" committee to seek an agreement on a report to a plenary session.
British opposition to the submarine element of Mr. Hughes' plan was certain to be a chief point to be discussed by the committee and the conference.
British delegates are prepared to press their view that not only should Mr. Hughes' replacement allowance of 90,000 tons in submarines for the British fleet and the American fleet and 54,000 for Japan be reduced, but that the size of future submarines should be limited.
