THE charm of the modern corset lies in its simplicity of design and its skilful adaptation to the natural lines of the figure.

We Have Got too Much--and we Haven't Got Enough

You won't see any sense to this unless you keep reading. But you will find it is all true, for me—and for you. Here is the Way. We have too many groceries. Not enough cash. And those who have a tender heart for cash, come to me. It is the only store of its kind in the United States. Well worth seeing. Be as particular about your buying as I am. That's how we can do this. The people I buy from think I am tight—those I sell to do not. If you are looking for luxuries and style, keep away. It is a plain room full of cats. You can step from your auto right in my door—clear sailing. We invite every man, woman and child to see this "Frak of All Nations" Store. The first time you see how we do it, you are too excited to buy. But, believe me, you will be back. Go right through West's store. Front of Penney's. Rear of U. S. Bank. Watch for the chalk.
