"GIRL IN THE TAXI" AS SCREEN COMEDY

What promises to be one of the best farce comedies yet produced will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today and Wednesday. It is the latest Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven production, "The Girl in the Taxi," a First National attraction, which follows in the wake of the stars' precious farce comedy stage success by Stanislaus Strange and is directed by Lloyd Ingraham.

The interest of the story centers around Bertie Stewart and Mignon Smith, played respectively by Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven. Bertie's penchant to embroil people in embarrassing situations serves to convince his stern parent that he is not the molasses he feared he was. First crack out of the box he steals his father's best clothes and pawns them. Then he hires in a taxi cab hired by a beautiful young lady, and finally he embushes a group of his father's friends in a situation bordering on insanity. How he finally saves the day for them all and in the process earns a laurel wreath from his stern parent is said to afford Mr. DeHaven an unusual opportunity to reveal his ability of a farceur of the first magnitude.

In the supporting cast are King Baggett, Grace Curard, Otis Harlan, Tom McGuire, Margaret Campbell, Lincoln Plumer, Freya Sterling and John Gough.

DETECTIVES AS WAITERS GET TIPS ON MANY PLOTS

The fact that people will talk more freely over their dinners than at almost any other time is today recognized and widely utilized in police circles for the detection of crime and criminals. Often the busiest restaurants are picked by underworld citizens for their meeting places, on the theory that there is safety in numbers and in haste. It is the leader of a desperate band of crooks who is thus kept under surveillance in the first episode of "Fighting Fate," the latest Vitagraph chapter play, which will be shown at the Sherry Theatre soon.

FIGHTING SUBMARINE IN NEW PHOTOPLAY

Those who have wondered how submarines operate will have a chance to satisfy their curiosity when "Wet Gold," the under-sea picture of J. Ernest Williamson comes to the Sherry Theatre today and tomorrow. The picture, which is distributed by Goldwyn, discloses a submarine lying on the bottom of the ocean. The boat, which is one of the latest models, 150 feet long, was built specially for this photoplay. Besides this close view of the submarine rising to the surface, "Wet Gold," shows thrillingly the firing of a torpedo. It is loaded into the tube the chamber locked and the torpedo slot out while the boat is on the surface of the water. Ralph Ince directed "Wet Gold" and also played the leading part in it. Also showing a comedy.

President Harding Has Endorsed Sale Of Christmas Seals

The fourteenth annual sale of Christmas Seals by the Oregon Tuberculosis Association opened Thursday, December first, and will continue until Christmas Eve. Never before has the entire state been so thoroughly organized for a large and successful sale as it is this year.

In endorsing the seal sale, President Harding recently said: "I am glad to note the splendid success of the campaign against tuberculosis, as shown by the decline in the death rate in 1920, to the remarkably low level of 114 per 100,000. The enormous saving of life reflected by these figures clearly indicates the success of the work of the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated organizations."

An honorary vice-president of the association, my earnest hope is that the coming fourteenth annual seal sale may be completely successful, but I believe that the splendid work may be further developed. I trust there will be a generous response to the appeal."

German War Bride Sent To Iowa But Can't Be Located

CHARINDA, Ia., Dec. 6.—Where is the German bride of Floyd Powers, Page county, Iowa, overseas soldier, whom he wed in Germany and sent to his relatives in this country ahead of himself?

About a year ago Powers was married to a pretty German girl in the Rhineland. He sent his bride to his mother, Mrs. Pearl Powers, who lives at Coia, near here.

When Powers reached the United States this week, he immediately telegraphed his wife in Coia, appraising her of his arrival and that he would soon be with her. The young soldier's mother sorrowfully notified Powers that his bride had never arrived in Coia.

Powers now is turning things over to New York and Washington trying to locate the missing bride.

are not so unbusinesslike as they are pictured. Nowadays most housewives manage the home as efficiently as the husbands run their business.

One of the signs of an efficient housewife is a household checking account.

Such an account provides an indisputable record of expenditures, eliminates the written receipt and in general makes the husband respect his wife's business ability.
