BEBE DANIELS TO BE SEEN IN ANOTHER MADCAP ROLE.

Picture fans will welcome the appearance today and Tuesday at the Arcade Theatre, of Bebe Daniels, the popular Realist star, in another amusing "madcap girl" role.

This time she portrays an orphan who is brought up very strictly by a spinster aunt. The girl has such a dreary childhood that she determines to make up for lost time as soon as she reaches her majority. Hence the title, "One Wild Week."

Miss Daniels has a whimsical personality and an elfish beauty which especially fit her for roles of the "good-little-bad girl" type—the girl who is always up to mischief and always in trouble because of her high spirits, not because she is wantonly bad.

There isn't anyone else on the screen just like Miss Daniels. She doesn't imitate anybody, and one never hears the comment, "Oh, that's just like So-and-So." Miss Daniels' gestures, expressions and manners are as individual as her beauty.

A two-reel comedy is also being shown.

AT SHERRYS—LAST DAY—SUPERB DE MILLE PICTURE.

Cecil B. De Mille, perhaps the foremost motion picture producer in the country, if not the world, displayed his genius at its best in his latest Paramount picture, "The Affairs of Anatol," which was presented with splendid effect at the Sherry theatre last night. From every standpoint—investiture, its all-star cast, sumptuousness of setting, brilliancy of directorial execution, richness of costumes, quality of story and general artistry, this picture marks a distinct epoch in screen production of the decade.

The cast is superb and includes such stars as Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres and Theodore Kosloff. Their portrayals are artistic and add vastly to the value of the production. The photography by Alvin Wyckoff and Karl

"A Man in Good Circumstances"

When a man is described as "in good circumstances" we picture a pleasant home, a happy family, a few luxuries, freedom from debt.

Such a man usually attains his enviable position through his own industry and thrift. Like Napoleon, he can exclaim "Circumstances? I MAKE Circumstances."

That such men always have savings accounts is not a happenstance but a self-create circumstance.
