REGULAR U. S. CAVALRY SHOWN IN "THE FOX"

When you look at "The Fox," the Harry Carey picture now showing at the Star Theatre, you are not merely seeing a screen production—you are beholding scenes from real life. Among the most interesting of these scenes are those in which cavalry is to be seen in action on the desert.

These troops of cavalry are not moving-picture troops composed of a mob of extra men; but a part of the Eleventh regular United States cavalry from the presidio at Monterey. "The Fox" will be the attraction at the Star theatre for two more days only.

SHIRLEY MASON HERE IN ORIENTAL STORY

Winsome little Shirley Mason will be seen today and Tuesday at the Arcade theatre in her latest and what is declared to be her most beautiful William Fox production, "Wing Toy." This story was written by the well-known author Pearl Dales Bell, who was responsible for both "Her Elephant Man" and "Love's Harvest," two stories in which Miss Mason achieved marked success. In "Wing Toy" she appears as a little maid living in New York's Chinatown, surrounded by all the sinister craftiness of the Oriental.

A two-reel Mack Sennett comedy is also being shown.

Saving Them Money Is the reason Business, Professional and Working People are keeping as busy making real tailored suits and overcoats for men and women, as well as making over, dyeing, refining, cleaning and pressing old garments. THE REASON—Our Location:—Back of the Foley Hotel Phone Black 1822. McCALL COMPANY daughter of a French-Canadian miner, is left penniless without father or mother in Totem City, a mining town built up over night during the gold rush in the Canadian Northwest. A dance hall girl gives her a place in the Aurora Borealis, the main saloon and dance hall of the town, and rapidly acquiring the tricks of the trade she becomes the rage of the dance hall and is the subject of admiring comment because of her success in "trimming" the men.

Realizing that Colette has played them to the limit the miners force her to marry Bates, who has become a worthless drunkard. When Colette is succeeding in making a man of Bates and falling in love with him, Folsom returns to Totem City accompanied by Gloria who wants to take Bates back. The four have a sensational meeting in the Aurora Borealis which culminates satisfactorily.

This picture is being shown for the last time today at Sherry's. Comedy "An Eye for Figures."

AT THE MEN'S GIFT SHOP

Men are funny ducks. They derive almost as much pleasure in telling you they don't want anything for Christmas as they do in receiving something. But it's empty pleasure when you take them at their word.

NECKWEAR — He'd be tickled to death with one or two cravats, extravagantly luxurious scarfs, that he won't afford to buy for himself. Beauties for 50c, 75c, $1.00 to $2.50.

SMOKING JACKETS — He's too broke buying presents for the "folks" to afford such an "outrageous" extravagance for himself, but he wants one and you can get it for him, $8.50.

HANDKERCHIEFS — You know that he never has too many handkerchiefs, so a dozen or half that many would be just fine. Special values at 15c and up.

BELTS — Probably his present one is a disgrace, so how about a brand new $1.00 "Marvettex," or a snappy new leather model.

SHIRTS — A "Green Hood" Silk Pongee, custom tailored would make him feel like an heir. All you need is his size. Special at $5.35.
