

Women's Army That Hauled Strikebreakers Out of Mines

The army of 6000 wives and daughters of striking Kansas miners advancing toward the pits where men, obeying orders of the United Mine Workers of America, were at work. Waving American flags, laughing and jostling, they hauled out the "strikebreakers" and were not stopped until arrival of state troops.

THRONE QUESTION SETTLED

(By Associated Press) AMSTERDAM, Dec. 22.—The second chamber of parliament has adopted the bill settling the question of the succession to the throne of the Netherlands. It will no longer be possible for a German prince to ascend the Dutch throne in case of the death of Princess Juliana, the succession being limited to collateral descendants of Queen Wilhelmina in the degree of uncle, aunt or cousin.

The measure opens the possibility of a referendum on the question of the preservation of the monarchy of the foundation of a republic.

COVE WOMAN PASSED AWAY

(Special to The Observer) COVE, Dec. 22.—After a lingering illness death came to Mrs. E. H. Evans at an early hour Wednesday morning. Maggie Davis was born August 4, 1874, in Washington county, Kansas. At the age of sixteen she was married to Evan H. Evans. Seven children were born to them, of whom only two survive, Mrs. Thelma Goyette and Zora, aged 8. Funeral services will be held at the family residence this afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be in Rose Ridge cemetery.

Low Bloom is doing business in his new building. It is a fine up-to-date structure, built of cement, absolutely fireproof and a splendid addition to the town. Mr. Bloom has been a victim in both the fires that have swept Cove, but he is a good sport and is determined to beat the jinx that has been camping on his trail for the last few years and he is still doing business.

Miss Grace Pease, who is teaching at Palmer Junction, is at home for the holidays.

Miss Edna DeBorde, who is teaching near Elgin, is also at home.

Roy Lay is in Baker for a few days. The Baptist young people are busy preparing a Christmas play. The play and other Christmas festivities will be held Friday evening.

The little Christmas play prepared by the second and third grades will be a feature of the school program on Friday afternoon, and will be repeated at the Methodist church Christmas Eve to lend color to the program prepared for the Christmas tree there.

The ice ponds are covered with happy skaters at all hours of the night and day since the real winter weather began. There is so little opportunity for this kind of sport in this climate that the joyous crowd believe in skating while the skating is good.

Paul M. Ellis, forest ranger, left yesterday on snowshoes to take a last look over the forest in his charge. He is accompanied by Truman Pease. They will go first to Clark's Creek, Point Prominence, visit the Horse Ranch in the Big Minam, Rock Creek and then home, a distance of about 100 miles. He expects to be away a week or ten days.

Mrs. Mae Kelley entertained a small dinner party on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Sharp were host and hostess to a party of young people Monday evening.

E. H. Evans is out again after his recent illness.

Mrs. Tom Ryan, an old time resident of Cove, but now of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting her old friends and relatives here and in La Grande.

Mrs. J. D. Stout, who was here to attend her father's funeral, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mrs. John E. Doan is again at home after a month's absence in Portland.

Xmas Suggestion

In our store you have a quiet, convenient place to choose Christmas gifts of enduring charm. In a few moments you can select a Cheney that will bring pleasure to your home for years.

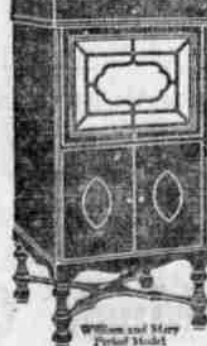

If You knew some of the Christmas Secrets that We know

We Invite You to a Demonstration of This Beautiful Instrument

Volunteers cannot tell you what you can hear in five minutes of the beautiful tonal quality of The Cheney.

Let us play your favorite records. Then decide for yourself whether The Cheney does not have rich, mellow tonal quality such as you never have heard before.

Each Cheney cabinet is in period design and the workmanship is that of the finest furniture craftsmen in the country.

YOU might be surprised! Santa Claus has taken us into his confidence. We're going to help him. And hundreds of homes are going to be happy on Christmas Day with a new Cheney. Is one coming to your house? We can't tell—it wouldn't be fair.

But if one is—then you surely will have a lovely Christmas gift. For The Cheney brings the finest music of the world into your home. Because it plays all records, it places the record libraries of the world at your disposal.

The CHENEY

is a wonderful entertainer for your friends, the accommodating host always ready to "play" for a dance. It is a soloist, or a "whole brass band" at your command.

The Cheney is an ideal Christmas gift—wanted because it continually grows in value. Just like a rare, old violin which has grown sweeter with age, The Cheney enhances in tone quality.

"The Longer You Play It, The Sweeter It Grows."

Not only does it play all records, but a series of acoustic, translucent envelopes The Cheney with tones of exquisite purity and richness. Needle scratch is virtually eliminated and those delightful "overtones" which give great artists their individuality of voice or touch are brought out in all their beauty.

We enjoy playing Santa Claus with The Cheney—for our friends always appreciate it. We trust that we already have instructions to leave one at your home. If we haven't, then "somebody" should act at once. For The Cheney is so popular that our stocks will soon be depleted.

Our sales people will be glad to demonstrate The Cheney for you. Even on the Christmas rush you will find them pleasant—and prompt.

Prices range from $115 to $325 for regular models. Convenient Terms, if You Prefer
