LOSTINE LIGHTS OUT OF ORDER

(Special to The Observer) LOSTINE, Dec. 23.—Last Friday morning one of the big copper electric power wires broke at a splicing on top of the Lewis hill, just east of town, and caused considerable trouble for 7 time. It was in the early morning, about six o'clock, that it broke and just before some of the people nearby were up. Floyd Hammock found no light but got a shock from touching the socket of the kitchen light when he went out there to see if it would light. Mrs. Hammock then went to the telephone and called for Jay Lewis, who lives at the foot of the hill and has an electric transformer in front of his house, to inquire of light conditions there, and while Mr. Lewis held the receiver in one hand he turned to the light bulb with the other hand to investigate and thereby became a human connecting medium for the electricity, as the telephone line was heavily charged from the broken wire crossing it, and Mr. Lewis got such a shock he was unconscious for a short time. The current that passed through his body burned out the fuse on that line in central office, and as he fell to the floor, his hold broke loose from the receiver and bulb or it would have been fatal for him. As it was, his hands were badly burned, Theodore LaCort, working at M. O. Courtney's dairy ranch, found something had gone wrong with the lights in the barn. He thought the bulb was burning out and reached for it to unscrew it to put in another. As he was standing on the damp floor he, too, got a pretty severe shock. His fingers were badly burned and the effects of the shock caused him to double up and finally fall to the floor and that broke his hold. Mr. and Mrs. Courtney and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, living near Lewis' also got light shocks and D. W. McGee said it had strange effects at his home east of the hill. The engine and woodwork and poker and stove all seemed charged with it, when the end of the wire touched the rocks alongside of the road it burned the rock into a bubbling pool of liquid glass. Frank Hamilton and Bob McKenzie were notified at Enterprise of the condition and came down early, after shutting off the power on that line to enable them to repair the damage.

Pauline Childers entertained some of her young friends at a party Saturday in honor of her eleventh birthday. She had a great bag with many little surprises, and each little friend got something to remember the occasion by. All reported a very pleasant afternoon. Uncle Dick Bradwell, a Civil War veteran, over 80 years of age, can get a number of younger soldier boys to shame by his ability to work. He has been working with his son, Charles, in a wood camp up the mountain side and seems hale and hearty for it. But he has never given up not to work, and to settle down to be an old man. Thereby proving that we are just as old as we think we are in most cases. Thomas Kenzie returned home Sunday from O. A. C. for the holidays. He left Tuesday for a few days' visit in Wallawa. Miss Ivel Hunter returned home Sunday for the holidays from Sacred Heart assembly at La Grande. Gale Crow, Ira Fisher and his mother, Mrs. Harvey Fisher, all of Hurricane creek, were doing Christmas shopping in Lostine Wednesday. Word has been received from E. V. Goodman since he went to Hot Lake last week that he is improving fast under the treatment at the sanatorium. We are having some cold weather at present. It was slightly warmer Wednesday with a little more snow as they have not had as much snow as they have been having in Portland, where they claim never to have winter. S. M. Crow was a Wallawa visitor Saturday to see the dentist. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McArthur were also down the same day on the same errand.

Miss Susie Jacobs has returned from a couple months visit to Portland and is again assisting at the telephone office.

Howard Williamson came in from Mud creek last week and Howard Childers accompanied him back to the stock ranch where Mr. Williamson is feeding cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Willett and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bowman were Enterprise visitors last week, Tuesday and Wednesday, and again Wednesday of this week.

S. P. Crow and W. P. Robinson were Enterprise visitors last Wednesday.

County Judge Edgar Marvin returned the last of the week from a trip to Portland on county affairs.

Mrs. W. P. Van Pelt was an Enterprise visitor last week one day.

R. M. Carey has moved to Evans from Lostine this week, where he will be nearer his work on the railroad.

Anthony Chapter No. 88, O. E. S., held installation at the meeting Thursday night, December 15. The following officers were installed: Norm Williamson, W. M.; S. M. Crow, W. P.; Helen Jackson, A. M.; Ruth Shintaffer, Sec.; Edgar Marvin, treasurer; Victoria Robinson, organist; Hattie Leonard, Ada; Hilda Marvin, Ruth, Eva Everson, Esther; Dolly Pearce, Martha; Georgia Allen, Electa; Mrs. Moody, warder; Floyd Leonard, sentinel. After the installation exercises were over they all enjoyed dainty refreshments and a general social hour. Gussie Crow was the installing officer and is also chaplain of the chapter.

The ladies of the Neighborhood club did quite well with their bazaar and food sale last Saturday afternoon, considering they had only planned to give it a month previous, and not much time to make articles for the bazaar. The food sales are most always a success.

Bert Candler is going around with a limp and a plastered broken nose as a result of a horse throwing him and rolling on him a week ago Sunday while racing with some companions. He was unconscious for a time when his friends got to him, but suffered only bruises and the broken nose.

TURKEYS MAY DROP. (By Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.—Turkey producers were advised by Harry S. Maddox, state market director, to dispose of their birds at a "reasonable profit" rather than hold them for prices "which may antagonize consumers."

Turkeys are moving slowly on the local market Mr. Maddox declared in a statement today, and said there was more than the prevailing maximum of 60 cents a pound. The price to producers probably would not go below 40 cents, he said, and added that this figure would provide, in most cases a reasonable profit.

MAKE BIG HAUL. YORK, Pa., Dec. 23.—Burglars early today broke into the Mount Wolf bank and stole $100,000 in securities from safety deposit boxes. They forced a window and cut through the vault doors with acetylene torches. Locks on the deposit boxes were broken with a hammer.

ARMY IS BIG. (By Associated Press)

COLOGNE, Dec. 23.—The Allied armies of occupation in the Rhineland which the German government has been endeavoring to have reduced are composed at the present time of approximately 118,000 officers and men. Some German newspapers have been contending that the armies of the four powers should be reduced more than one-half, the money thus saved to the Berlin government to be applied to the reparations fund.

The armies of occupation are divided as follows: England, 4,000; United States, 8,000; Belgium, 18,000; France, 85,000. Great Britain's troops numbered about 8,000 until a few months ago when several detachments were sent to Upper Silesia, where they have been on duty since.

HAD SUFFERED FOR SIX YEARS

Portland Man is On His Feet Again And Says He's Feeling Like a Boy.

"The way Tanlac put me on my feet beat anything I ever saw," said R. J. Platt, 839 East Couch St., Portland, Ore.

"For six years I had indigestion of the worst sort and finally my whole system seemed to give way. I lost so much strength and energy I could hardly swing my hammer to rivet bolts and I began to be afraid my working days were over. I was bothered a good deal by constipation."

"Tanlac helped me from the very start and now I am just brimful of life and energy as a boy. Tanlac did for me in a few weeks what I had been trying for years to get other medicines to do."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store and all leading druggists.—Adv.
