"CLAY DOLLARS" WITH EUGENE O'BRIEN AT THE ARCADE SUNDAY

In Eugene O'Brien's latest Salnick production, "Clay Dollars," which will be presented at the Arcade theatre Sunday only, the popular star is cast in a role wholly different from anything he has been seen in heretofore. The play which is from the pen of Lewis Allen Browne, is laid for the most part in a small country town, and is replete with all the human and humorous incidents and atmosphere that have always made such a wide appeal with the theatregoing public. By an ingenious and well-laid plan and with the assistance of June Gordon, a pretty country maiden, he succeeds in completely turning the tables on the Squire. How this is accomplished makes not only a very interesting and dramatic photoplay, but one of the most amusing that has been seen on the screen this season.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All drug stores in La Grande will be closed afternoons of Sunday and Monday, December 25th and 26th. 12-23-21

"THE BARBARIAN" A GRIPPING DRAMA

Whatever else you miss don't miss "The Barbarian," a Pioneer attractor. Captain Simmons, Walker, Hoffman, at the Star theatre today and Sunday. It is one of the year's best pictures, worthy of the patronage of the most discriminating screen fan. A drama of the northwoods, it throbs with the magic and the beauty of the great outdoors. The story is big in its emotional appeal, gripping in its sincerity and humaneness. The love theme that runs through it offers the most exquisite scenes that have been shown on the screen in a long time.

AT SHERRYS—TODAY ONLY

Hunted by a mob intent upon lynching him, "Harry the Goose," fell into the hands of Daniel Craig, whom he had known in the state penitentiary as "Three Sevens." Craig declared his intention of taking the convict back to the prison and "Harry the Goose" protested angrily, saying that was no way to treat a former fellow prisoner. Craig, however, not only felt in honor bound to get the jail bird behind the walls again, but had given his word to Joan Grace, who loved him and believed in him in spite of his conviction on a murder charge that he would do so. Craig gave Harry his choice of returning to prison or being lynched by the mob.

The situation arises in "Three Sevens," an Antonio Moreno production directed by Chester Bennett. It is based on the popular novel of the same name by Perley Poore Sheehan.

Also showing Mutt and Jeff.

AT SHERRYS—SUNDAY, MONDAY

A picture for young and old alike—that is the description that may be applied to Paramount's screen version of Sir James M. Barrie's "Sentimental Tommy." It is doubtful that many grownups exist who haven't a fond memory of Tommy's imagination and practically all of the youngsters today have read about him at one time or another. Also showing Ved-A-VII movies.

GODD NUCLEUS.
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 24.—The University of Michigan varsity track squad this year will be built around "The Barbarian," a Pioneer attractor. Captain Simmons, Walker, Hoffman, at the Star theatre today and Sunday. It is one of the year's best pictures, worthy of the patronage of the most discriminating screen fan. A drama of the northwoods, it throbs with the magic and the beauty of the great outdoors. The story is big in its emotional appeal, gripping in its sincerity and humaneness. The love theme that runs through it offers the most exquisite scenes that have been shown on the screen in a long time.

The strength of the team appears to be in dashes, with Captain Simmons, Burk, who placed last year in the Cornell meet, and Weeks, Davis, Martin and Siemons, all from last year's Freshman squad. Kelly, a member of last year's varsity, is at his best indoors.

Just What I Wanted For Christmas

—I wonder how Santa always knows just what I want for Christmas? Somehow he brings me the right things every year—and does the same for Mother and Daddy.

—I went to the United States National Bank with Daddy a few days ago, and I heard him tell the man behind the window that his bank account brings the best things of life to our home. So I guess he brings Santa, too.
