"FOUR HORSEMEN" SMASHES RECORDS

The long-awaited Rex Ingram production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is coming to the Arcade theatre beginning Monday. This is the picture that cost Metro $1,000,000 to make, and, from all accounts, as critics agree that all other efforts at production on a grand scale have been surpassed and record runs have been made in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities where the picture has been previously shown.

"THE CONCERT"—LAST DAY AT SHERIDAN'S

This assumed attitude shocks Martin into a realization of his ridiculous position. The impressionable Delphine has also been disillusioned. Martin is jealous at seeing his faithful wife apparently in love with another man, while Delphine suffers the same pangs at the thought of losing her husband. The musical genius falls on his knees and begs forgiveness of his wife, while Delphine buries her head in her husband's breast. Also showing a comedy.

TWO CRACK FOOTBALL TEAMS HELP CHARLES RAY MAKE NEW FILM

In Charles Ray's latest first National production "Two Minutes to Go," which will be shown at the Arcade theatre soon, football fans and others will see a real football game, played not by extra men and actors, but by real footballers with a reputation. Here is the line-up: "Curly" Earl Cramer, who played full-back for Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn. "Curly" earned the title of the Bone-crusher and was for three years on the All-Minnesota team as full-back.

From the same college came O. Hester, who was quarterback on the All-State team of '19, and "Swede" Evans, who performed on the All-State, Pacific Coast team, and was a member of the American team at the 1920 Olympic games.
C. Dean, of the U. S. C., was full-back on the All-State team, and J. Jacomini was end for Northwestern University.
"Tuffy" Conn picked the two teams and added several well-known professionals. The teams worked out for two weeks prior to the actual taking of the football scenes and were in perfect condition to put up as high-class game of football as the film will amply testify.

PRISCILLA DEAN IN HER GREATEST ROLE

Reaching the apex of her career as a dramatic actress, Priscilla Dean, starring in "Contlet," now at the Star theatre, has brought to the screen a piece of work which will go down in history among the first ranks of screen acting.

Herbert Rawlinson, in the chief supporting role, lends excellent support as the lover, while Martha Mattox and Edward Connelly handle the chief character parts with exceptional ability. The rest of the cast includes such well-known players as Hector Sarno, L. C. Shumway, Sam Allen, Capt. C. E. Anderson, Milton Brown and Bill Gillis.

"FALSE KISSES" AT ARCADE TONIGHT

The most damnable situation ever conceived by a playwright, is the way a Chicago reviewer described the pivotal episodes of "Ropes," which was published in Harper's Magazine, staged all over the country and discussed with favor and censure by all the literary celebrities of the United States.

In "False Kisses," the Universal film version of "Ropes," the story is even more powerful in its simplicity. Miss du Pont is the star and Pat O'Malley and Lloyd Whitlock are her chief supporting players. It will be the main attraction at the Arcade theatre tonight only.

Wastefulness in Use of Coal.

Oil may possibly supplant coal for heating purposes and for the driving of machinery. But coal will always hold its own place in other ways, for oil has little to give us in the way of by-products. When we burn coal we lose it in the most wasteful way possible, obtaining from it less than a fifth of the heat which it is capable of giving out, and making no use at all of the colors, the sweetness, the disinfectants of the heating medicines that are hidden within it.

MRS. DELLA KUNZE (Chicago, Ill.)

"I understand now why so many people praise Tanlac as I have tried it myself and it certainly is a wonderful medicine," said Mrs. Della Kunze, 306 Lilli Ave., Chicago, valued employee of the Boston Department Store.

"I eat with so much zest and enjoyment now that my family really joke me about it. A short time ago, however, I had absolutely no appetite and was eating so little that I was losing weight and strength every day and I suffered so much from indigestion and nervousness that I was on the brink of a breakdown."

"There are absolutely no words that can express my delight at the remarkable and immediate results I obtained from Tanlac. It benefited me in every way. Instead of being depressed and melancholy and tired and worn out I am full of life and energy and cheerful and happy all the time. I've gained twelve pounds in weight, too."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store and all leading druggists.—Adv.
