THRILLING FOOTBALL GAME SEEN IN "TWO MINUTES TO GO"

A thrilling football game is one of the big features of "Two Minutes to Go," starring Charles Ray, who is himself an ex-gladiator of the gridiron.

This First National attraction will begin an engagement of three days at the Arcade theatre today.

"Two Minutes to Go," a fascinating humorous story of college life by Richard Andre, provides Charles Ray with just the sort of role best suited to his own peculiar and exceptional talent.

At the height of her screen career, Priscilla Dean will be seen at the Star theatre tonight for the last time, in "Conflict," the Universal-Jewel feature produced by Stuart Paton, remembered for his direction of Miss Dean's preceding success, "Reputation." In the role of Dorcas Remalle, Miss Dean enters the story as a pampered child of wealth, who, in accordance with her father's will, is sent to live with an uncle in the Big North Woods. Complications of the most dramatic sort enter her life.

LATEST CURWOOD STORY READY FOR THE SCREEN

For the scores of local photoplay fans who have been hungering for another one of those red-blooded photoplay stories by James Oliver Curwood, the management of the Star theatre announces that on Friday

GERMANS TO BE IN MIXED COURT

(By Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, Dec. 29.—Shanghai's Mixed Court, which has jurisdiction over Chinese generally who reside within the International Settlement and over foreigners who lack consular protection, is to have jurisdiction over Germans until such time as a special system of jurisdiction is established, according to a decision handed down by the Mixed Court in October.

The ruling was given on a demurrer that was filed in a case in which a German was a defendant. The contention advanced was that the Mixed Court has no jurisdiction over Germans by reason of the agreement completed recently between Germany and China. In overruling the demurrer the court held that the Sino-German agreement directs that cases involving Germans shall be tried by new or modern courts, but that until such a court or some other court is established having jurisdiction over Germans in the International Settlement, the Mixed Court is bound to take jurisdiction, as the Mixed Court cannot admit that any person in the Settlement can at any moment be subject to the jurisdiction of no existing court.

The ruling points out that it is for the German authorities by diplomatic methods to see that the proper courts are established without delay.

WHEN CAN THEY SMOKE.
(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—When is a girl old enough to smoke? This question has cropped up at Columbia university and is puzzling hundreds of co-eds, who want to be told why Barnard college rules say nothing about use of the soothing weed in graduate dormitories and prohibit in those of the undergraduates. Two undergraduates recently were suspended when caught smoking.

FIRST DUAL PART FOR ALICE LAKE AT SHERIDAN'S TODAY

The first dual role of her career as a star is the double portion of Alice Lake in her latest picture for Metro, a Dallas Fitzgerald production of W. Carey Wonderly's story, "The Infamous Miss Revell."

The two characters Miss Lake enacts are those of Paula and Julien Revell. They are, in the story, sisters; the one a violinist and the other a pianist, who have made a success on the stage. When their mother dies they are forced to abandon their professional careers to look after the family. Then Julien dies, soon after a wealthy friend has left her a bequest; and Paula poses as the beneficiary of the will in order to have the money to care for the children.

Paula's fight to keep her identity hidden, her final exposure and its results constitute a most unusual story.

In support of Miss Lake in "The Infamous Miss Revell" is a cast embracing such prominent players as Cullen Landis, Jackie Saunders, Lydia Knott, Stanley Oethals, Francis Carpenter, May araci, Geraldine Condon, Herbert Standing and Alfred Hollingsworth.

Also showing "Fighting Fate," the big western story.
