Fifty Per Cent—
"Maybe I couldn't play ball in the legislature, but I'm able to fool around with golf a little," declared Albert Huster of La Grande, who has decided to remain in Portland this winter rather than return to his home in eastern Oregon. Mr. Huster was 50 per cent of the democratic strength in the lower house. He has discovered the municipal golf links and is trying them out.—Oregonian.

WHEN YOU ARE CONSTIPATED.
To insure a healthy action of the bowels, and correct disorders of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, stupid feeling that often accompanies constipation.—Adv.

Stops Over Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Kennedy, well-known couple of Union, stopped over at La Grande last night en route to Union. They have been visiting in Portland for the last month and reported a splendid time.

Every member of the church and their families are urged to be present. Bring your lunch basket and the ladies will provide coffee. Supper at 6 o'clock.

MASTERPIECE IS TO BE AT ARCADE

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse is Wonderful Film—Starts in La Grande Next Monday.

Taken from Life—the weekly periodical whose dramatic page is notably fearless—is the following comment:
"Comparisons are necessarily odious, but we cannot help looking back over the brief history of the cinema, and trying to find something that can be compared with 'The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.' The films which first came to mind are 'The Birth of a Nation,' 'Intolerance,' 'Hearts of the World,' and 'Joan the Woman,' but the grandiose posturing of David Wark Griffith and Cecil B. DeMille appear pale and artificial in the light of this new production....Nor does the legitimate stage itself come out entirely unscathed in the test of comparison, for this masterpiece easily surpasses the noisy claptrap which passes off as art in the box-office of the Belasco Theatre.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" will be hailed as a great dramatic achievement; one which deserves—more than any other picture play that has ever inspired—to be handed down to generations yet unborn.
"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is a living, breathing answer to those who still refuse to take motion pictures seriously. Its production lifts the silent drama to an artistic plane that it has never touched before.
"Robert E. Sherwood."
The "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" will be presented at the Arcade theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Prices and time of shows appear in all advertisements, please note them carefully.

TAKING DESPERATE CHANCES
It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds may be had for a trifle?—Adv
