

Local News In Brief

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

Enterprise Lady Here— Mrs. G. W. Coulter, of Enterprise, is in La Grande today.

Halfway Man Here— Raleigh Hoopman, who hails from Halfway, is in La Grande today and is registered at the Savoy.

Off to Athens— Mrs. A. C. McDowell, of this city, left today to visit with friends and relatives in Athens.

At Savoy— D. A. Roberts, who resides at Meacham, is stopping in La Grande and is registered at the Savoy.

From North Powder— Allade Gilbert, who lives at North Powder, is in La Grande for a short visit.

Elgin Man— W. B. Vaughn, who makes Elgin his home, is a La Grande visitor today and is stopping at the Foley.

Creamery Man Here— W. A. Maxwell, agent for the Mutual Creamery at Union, is in La Grande today on business.

Sprains Wrist— Mrs. Nellie Neill, principal of the Riviera school fell and severely sprained her wrist yesterday.

Returns to College— Clayton Ingle returned to the University of Oregon last night after spending a very pleasant vacation with his family in this city.

To Portland— Mrs. J. C. Ryan left for Portland last night after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nash of this city for several days.

To Kamela— Mrs. S. A. Ingerson and daughter Bernice, boarded No. 23 last night for Kamela, their home, after visiting here with friends and relatives.

To Joseph— Mrs. Calvin Nelson and baby left this morning for Joseph where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. Harry Coleman for a short time.

Going to Summerville— Miss Eunice Gates returned to her home in Summerville this morning after spending the holidays with her family in Union.

Kiddle Returns— Fred Kiddle returned from Portland yesterday after spending the holidays with friends and relatives in that city.

Telescope People Here— Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Robertson, of Telescot spent yesterday in La Grande shopping transacting business.

From Summerville— J. H. Newbill, well-known Summerville resident, is in our city today. He is registered at the Foley.

Horsebuyer Here— D. Sharlock, who deals in horses and is looking for some good buys in this valley, is stopping at the Foley at present. He hails from Portland.

Returns Home— Miss Pearl Pepper, who makes her home at Pendleton, returned to that city after a pleasant visit with Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Kirby of this city.

At Foley— H. F. French, owner of the French garage of this city, returned from a lengthy visit in California last night and registered at the Foley hotel.

Sharpen Your Appetite with MAY'S MAYONNAISE 40c 8 oz. bottle At the Exclusive FRUIT and VEGETABLE STORE N. A. Desilet

DANCE REX HALL EVERY THURSDAY Old Time Dances EVERY SATURDAY Modern Dances TO THE STA-REX ORCHESTRA Courtesy Shown to Everyone N. A. Desilet, Manager

At Sommer— L. Taus, well-known railroad engineer of Kamela, is stopping at the Sommer today.

Returns from Pendleton— Mrs. L. H. Norton, who has been spending the holidays in Pendleton, returned home last evening.

Visiting Here— Mrs. Ben Bragg and daughter, Maribeth, returned to their home in Hot Lake today after spending the day in La Grande.

Commissioner Leaves— Commissioner J. D. McKennon left today on No. 24 for Baker, where he will attend to business matters.

Back from Portland— Mrs. C. M. Hutchinson and Beatrice Patty came home this morning after spending the week-end in Portland.

Back to Haines— Miss Elizabeth Hen returned to her home in Haines after spending a few days in La Grande visiting with friends and relatives.

In from Elgin— C. A. Rasmussen, prominent Elgin man, is visiting La Grande at present. He is stopping at the Sommer.

Licenses Issued— Marriage licenses were issued to Fred B. Reed and Ruth M. Trill of this city and to Christian A. Rasmussen and May Scott of Elgin.

To O. A. C.— Frank Patty leaves this evening for O. A. C. after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. C. M. Hutchinson.

Return to Northport— Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Patty and Earnest, Jr., returned to their home in Northport, Wash., after spending the holidays with relatives in La Grande.

To Glenns Ferry, Idaho— Mrs. W. B. Tacey and son Richard left for their home at Glenns Ferry, Idaho, after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stearns of this city.

Returns to Portland— Walter D. Miller returned to his home in Portland last evening after spending the past three weeks with his aunt, Mrs. G. H. Baker, 906 D avenue.

From Elgin— Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hatch and two children returned to Portland this morning after spending the holiday season with friends and relatives at Elgin.

Back from Walla Walla— Mrs. H. L. Wynalt and children have returned from Walla Walla, where they have been spending the holiday season with friends and relatives.

At Dance— Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harris, of Telescot, attended the Engineer's dance that was held in La Grande last night. They returned to their home today.

Leaves for Washington— Mrs. W. R. Kivette left several days ago to meet her son Frederick in Washington, D. C. They will visit her parents in North Carolina and Mrs. Kivette may remain in the south for the winter.

Semester Examinations Soon— The semester examinations for both high school and grades will commence on Monday, January 16, the semester closing on Friday, January 29. The new semester begins on Monday, January 23.

To O. A. C.— John Wright, Audrey Playle, Alfred Aweley left last night to resume their studies at the Oregon Agricultural college after a very pleasant vacation spent here.

Union Boy Returns— Scott Callihan of Union, stopped over in La Grande a short time yesterday preparatory to returning to the Oregon Agricultural college. He left last night on No. 23.

Goes to College— Misses Mildred and Myrtle Hoyt returned to Monmouth last night, where they will complete their year's schooling at the Normal school. They have been spending the holidays with their folks here.

Back to Imbler— W. L. Lakefield and family left last evening for their home in Imbler. Mrs. Lakefield and her two children have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gray of Imbler during the holidays.

Very Extensive Visit— E. C. Coughenour and family returned from a visit at Hood River and Seattle yesterday. They visited his parents at Hood River and then stopped over at Seattle before returning home. They report a very pleasant visit.

One of Those Remarkable Dinners— Last evening from 6 to 8 o'clock the Guild ladies of the Episcopal church served another of their exceptional dinners in the dining room of the hall. The menu was of the best—Grande Ronde chicken with everything added, and it was served most daintily. The large number who enjoyed the dinner all had the same words of praise. A social hour was enjoyed after the dinner with music and dancing.

Home from California— Archie Miller returned home yesterday from an extended trip in California. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Miriam. Mr. Miller says that eastern Oregon climate suits him as it rained during most of his trip.

Judge Knowles Back— Judge and Mrs. J. W. Knowles will return to their home tonight after a visit at Portland and several points in the Willamette valley. They visited with their son who is attending the University of Oregon during their stay.

Ranch Sold— The Frank Chattus ranch north of the city has been sold to E. A. Smith. The place is well improved and has 120 acres. The transaction was made through the C. J. Black agency.

Famous Calves— Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

A Good Start— The Hooverized Grocery is starting the New Year right by the purchase of a new specially equipped delivery car designed to give the general public faster and more efficient service. The car is at present in Runyan's paint shop receiving its finishing coat of paint.

Postmaster Bragg Here— Postmaster E. E. Bragg has returned to La Grande after several weeks at Hot Lake where he underwent an operation. He is feeling almost like his old self and is glad to get back.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Off to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Fine Display of Needlework. There is an elaborate display of art needle work on exhibition at Hill's Department Store tomorrow, which is attracting the attention of all, especially the ladies. The work is done with the Parisian Perfected Art Embroidery Needle. There are four separate needles which are interchangeable in the holder and which work on all machines. You should see a demonstration of this wonderful needle at Hill's tomorrow. 1-3-1p

Two carloads of the celebrated "white-faced calves," which Walter M. Pierce used to refer to so feelingly in his speeches in the state senate in 1919 and 1920, came to Portland yesterday and some readers may be dining off them before long. L. B. Pierce, son of the former senator, brought the stock to market yesterday from La Grande. Mr. Pierce says that Union county is experiencing a very mild winter.—Oregonian.

Union People Go Through— Mr. and Mrs. James Webb, owners of the Cozy theatre in Union, went through La Grande today enroute to Portland and several points on Puget Sound, where she will visit with her father and other relatives.

Motors to Union— Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wynalt motored to Union Monday night. They had dinner at the Union hotel and attended the dance afterwards. They report a very pleasant evening and congratulate Mr. N. K. Clarke on his splendid management as host.

Race Between Cochran and Bragg— Recently Postmaster Bragg and Attorney George T. Cochran went to Hot Lake, both of them down and out physically, each needing a major operation. They were two twenty blue boys and the world looked dark and dreary. Dr. Puy operated on each of them and then the race started as to which would get well the quicker. Improvement came rapidly and when they left the institution they left together, Mr. Cochran having a complete new stomach plan and Mr. Bragg having been relieved of a collection of gall stones. The color is back in each of their faces and they are feeling fine with the world showing a much brighter tint and the new year starting off in a most happy manner.

Honors Even. Hub—"You spend too much money for false hair. Look at your puffs." Wife—"And you spend too much for cigars. Look at your own puffs."

Back to La Grande— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

On Road to Recovery— Mrs. Charles Spencer, who was operated on Sunday at the hospital for appendicitis, is getting along as well as can be expected and expects to be able to be home again within ten days or two weeks.

Back to La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Moon, holiday visitors at the home of Mrs. Moon's people, Mrs. M. E. Heath and family, left on an afternoon train for Portland enroute to La Grande, eastern Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Moon's people for a time. They will return to Corvallis later for another visit with the relatives here.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.