"THE SPORT OF KINGS" IS BIG RACING DRAMA

The feature offering at the Star theatre today and Tuesday will be "The Sport of Kings," an adaptation by the Buffalo Motion Picture Company of the celebrated novel by Arthur Somers Roche.

The production is a sensation in its action and story values. Its thrills and exciting drama include the burning of a later in mid-ocean at sea, with the escape of hundreds of passengers in life boats, the jump of a race horse as its driver forty feet above the water, and, in the later action, the actual death of a jockey at a Southern track, riding the horse in an episode of the story which calls for it to foul because of whipping.

The producers also have included in their effort a very thorough picturization of the illegal methods employed by large bucket shop operators to fleece hundreds of thousands of dollars a year from the pay envelopes of people whose incomes are extremely limited, and who, therefore, are easy prey to the temptations of a little extra money through betting on horse races.

THE OPENING ATTRACTION.

There are names on the program of vaudeville that comes to the Avacade tonight only that are known the world over for their excellence. Moreover one number, the four old veterans in the "Follies of '61," is one of the best known feature acts before the public. They offer a combined singing, talking and dance melange that is specially attractive and causes one to wonder at their agility. As laugh makers Roberts and Fulton have supplied laughter for thousands yearly and continue to supply screams for their auditors. Miss Fulton is acknowledged as one of the leading comedienne of America. Then there are the "Sensational Turners," who do seemingly impossible things on roller skates and Ernest Rackett with his own songs and a line of humor that is infectious. Its all real entertainment that is worth while to jaded spirits. A five-reel feature picture is also on the program.

NEVER FAILS TO SET HER RIGHT

Portland Woman Believes That Years Have Been Added To Her Health.

"Since Tanlae restored me to health four years ago it has been my stand-by; I always keep a bottle in the house and whenever I feel the least run down I take a dose or two and it never fails to set me right," said Mrs. Wilhelmina Rinks, 1450 Fenwick St., Portland, Ore.

"For many years I suffered from stomach trouble and indigestion. I also had such a bad headache that I would have to remain in bed for three or four days at a time."

"Tanlae proved to be just what I needed and soon had me feeling like a different person. I believe Tanlae has added years to my life and I know that I feel many years younger than my age."

Tanlae is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store and all leading druggists.—Adv.
