SOCIALIST IS NOW WEALTHY

Man who Spurned Fortune Several Months Ago Decides to Accept Millions.

(By Associated Press)
MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Jan. 11.—Charles Garland, who 14 months ago refused $1,000,000 from the estate of his father, the late James A. Garland of Boston, on the ground that it would be inconsistent with his views regarding the property, has confirmed a report that he had had a change of mind and that he would accept the legacy.

Hamilton Garland, his younger brother, has also reconsidered and will accept his legacy, according to James Garland, the oldest brother.

Charles Garland said he still thought the property system against which he revolted a year ago was wrong, but he concluded that he ought not to continue to refuse the money and allow it to lie idle. He believed it should be put into circulation.
"I will take the money," he said. "I will not use it for furthering any Socialist idea for the extension of my farm work. I will use it for my own special purposes. I shall live on the old farm here for some time yet, however."

IMMIGRATION WAS ROTHERHOOD SUBJECT

Authorities on why the doors should be completely closed to the foreigner. He cited the Japanese peril, demanded that the scale of living for workmen in America be not lowered, arguing that if the foreign labor comes the scale will go down and Americans will enjoy the land of the free as they should.

Walter M. Pierce followed Mr. Humphreys and stressed some of the points Mr. Humphreys had made, agreeing that the time is ripe for exclusion. Mr. Pierce very eloquently delivered his message closing with illustrations that were appreciated.

Chocolate, sandwiches and apples were served before the meeting adjourned and after adjournment the men stayed to talk a little longer on important subjects.
That the brotherhood meetings are to be of greater importance as people grow to understand them there is little doubt. The idea is recognized as a good one for the open forum is a thing long needed in all communities.
