The Screen

AT SHERRYS TODAY—LAST SHOWING

Frank Lloyd, the Goldwyn director, who made "The Great Lover," considers the picture one of his big successes.

"The Great Lover" is a singular character and will give the theatre-going public that for which they are always looking—something different. "The Great Lover" is the first of his kind, unlike any other character in fiction or dreams, because he is not a type; he is himself.

His life story is just as different from the usual life story as his character is different from that of the usual leading character in a film play. Combined with the absorbing dramatic action of the story "The Great Lover" should be enjoyed by every audience.

Mr. Lloyd considers this picture one of his successes, and coming from the director who made such screen triumphs as "Les Miserables," "The Tale of Two Cities," and "Madame X," his opinion should go a long way in putting the stamp of final approval on this Goldwyn production.

SMUGGLERS ARE MAKING PROFIT

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, Jan. 20.—Smugglers are making immense profits by bringing English cloth for men's suits past the customs line to the tailors of Berlin. Their illicit earnings are made possible by the high German import duties on that class of material.

The tailoring establishments are visited almost daily by sailors or other ship employees with huge rolls of English tweeds and other fabrics in one-suit pieces, which they have succeeded in purchasing at English ports and bringing in duty free. One of these smugglers, a New York man, said some English cloth dealers are making a regular business of supplying the smuggling trade.

The cloth is sold at one-fourth to one-fifth the price it would cost if the import duty was paid. Tailors are quick to purchase the fabrics. The smugglers also visit farmers and offer their wares for sale.

The smugglers go quite openly about their business. They may be seen walking the streets with big bundles on their backs. A few of the more venturesome have even offered the goods for sale on the sidewalks, where they find ready takers.

A French sailor who had been smuggling for several months said he was going to retire from the "game," having made enough money to open a shop of his own in Paris.

La Grande Pharmacy pays the cost of a trial by refunding your money if Hymel fails to relieve that cough or cold you have. 1-20-22

"A short time ago I was one of the most nervous and miserable persons on the earth, but thanks to Tanlac I'm well and happy now."

"I was just about two years ago that I began to be distressed after every meal. I had awful smothering spells at times and my heart beat so irregularly that I often thought I wouldn't live through the attack. Headaches were the base of my existence and I shudder even now when I think of them. My back hurt me, too, and it was just agony for me to bend over and straighten up again."

"Tanlac has done for me far more than I ever expected and I'm like a different person altogether."

In fact, I'm in perfect health now! In my opinion, Tanlac is the best medicine under the sun."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug store and all leading druggists.—Adv.
