GOSSARD BRASSIERES

It is generally conceded that the American business girl is without equal, both in efficiency and in appearance.

Stenographers and other business women prefer Gossard Brassieres because their perfect support sustains them in comfort through the busiest day, and gives them a trimness above the waistline that assures a youthful and charming silhouette beneath the sheers waist.

Gossard Brassieres so faultlessly fit the figures for which they are specially designed, that you are unconscious of their support save for a pleasant feeling of well-being.

The daintiest of materials are combined in a charming and unexpected way and we offer a most unusual selection. A specially informed saleswoman will serve you.

ELGIN LOCAL HAS ELECTION

ELGIN, Jan. 23.—Henry Auguston and his son-in-law, Mr. Anderson, formerly owners of the "Don't Worry" store here, were in Elgin from Milton a few days last week.

The Elgin local of the Farmers Union held its regular meeting Saturday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Bernal D. Hug; vice-president, Henry Wealty; secretary-treasurer, James Gekeler, conductor, Mrs. Lynn Hill; chaplain, Mrs. Julius Hug; doorkeeper, R. Wealty; executive board, Mrs. John Klinghammer, J. E. Witherspoon, Julius Hug. The next meeting will be held February 4th and outside speakers are to be obtained for the open meeting in the afternoon.

H. H. Hug, who is interested in the K. E. K. grocery store at La Grande, is spending a few days this week there.

Arthur Hallgarth was a business visitor to La Grande this week.

This latest severe cold weather has caused a great number of frozen pipes and makes the plumber a much-desired caller. By the mischance of some one leaving a window open in the basement of the school house, the water pipes there were frozen so that a great deal of work was required to get them in running order again, and was the cause of a large bill for the board to pay.

Mrs. Charles Churchill, who is in the hospital at La Grande, following an operation there, is still in a serious condition.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held one of the most enjoyable and unique meetings of the year at the country home of Mrs. Darius Witty, about a mile and a half west of town. The members all gathered at the parsonage, where Charles Witty came for them with a sled, and they all felt that surely the "good old days" were back after their afternoon of work was over. Mrs. Witty served a delicious supper of hot chicken pie, with apple pie and coffee. The return sleigh-ride to town closed a very merry afternoon.

A number of Elgin young people attended the party at Overton Scott's home in the Fairview district, Friday evening.

The Elgin Ad club are planning for a splendid banquet next Wednesday evening. It is arranged especially for club members and their wives, sisters and mothers. They hope for a good attendance for they have the playing field for a very interesting meeting.

Lucian Shelton is working at Vincent for a few weeks, for the Palmer company.

The residents at the Fairview district, about twelve miles northwest of Elgin, are petitioning for a road to connect their community directly with the highway. This will be of great assistance to them for it would save a number of miles travel over rough, hilly country.

Ernest Hug came in on the train Saturday, although the snow was deep and drifted every one asked him if he drove over, for all knew that he can make trips that most folks wouldn't attempt.

John Tucker was among those upper Indian creek ranchers who took advantage of the good sledding to bring wood into town.

Leo McDowell, who has been engaged in Elgin for several days, went into Wallawa Friday.

"Cap" Tuttle and John Kerr of Bladhart, were transacting business in Elgin Friday.

Several teams have been hauling ice from the river near town and filling ice houses, for the needs of next summer.

LOCAL TEAM MEETS DEFEAT

Elginites Manage to Grab Long End of Score in the Game Last Saturday at Elgin.

The La Grande high school basketball team journeyed to Elgin Saturday and returned without the much coveted bacon. The final score resulted in 24 points for Elgin to 16 for the locals.

The local team was handicapped by the small court and the fact that the sidelines were not out of bounds, but they also met a much stronger team than they played here. Elgin used the same line-up but they have improved considerably and put up a much better game.

The game was hard fought from start to finish, especially in the last half when Elgin came from behind and came back with a burst of speed that won the game for them. Shelton and Tucker were the outstanding stars for the Elgin team, while the La Grande boys, although playing well together, had no outstanding luminary.

The line-ups were: La Grande—Metzger, center; Hough and Lynch forwards; Coker and Bean, guards. Elgin—Shelton, center; Gordon and Tucker, forwards; stoop and McAllister, guards. Humman, of Elgin refereed.
