Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have need of such a remedy. —adv.

The Westminister Guild met at the home of Miss Hulda Anderson on 507 Adams avenue Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock. A delightful program was enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Lee Reynolds was in charge of the program and gave a very interesting talk on S. B. Gordon's book entitled "Service." Mrs. Ray Murphy was in charge of the devotional services and at the close of these Miss Edith Tickett gave a very interesting sketch on the life and growth of a school in Porto Rico.

At the close of the program a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. About twenty-three ladies were present and all reported a delightful time.

Claude Cooper's squad of the young men's class of the Y. M. C. A. will entertain the other three squads tomorrow evening at 6:30 in the "Y" with a delightful banquet and program. Reverend Quigley is expected to give a short talk, the Methodist male quartet will furnish several selections and chorus singing will round out the program.

The marriage of H. Clinton Ball and Mrs. Memthia Wittenberg took place at the Baptist parsonage Saturday, January 21, Rev. A. R. Sitton officiating. The wedding hour was six o'clock in th eevening and immediately following the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ball who attended the ceremony, for the wedding supper. Following the supper the newly married couple left for the groom's own home. Mr. Ball is connected with the local post office and is well known in this city, having been a resident here all his life.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman will lecture before the M. I. A on Sunday evening at seven o'clock. Her subject is to be "The Joy in Art." Mrs. Mossman is especially qualified to speak on this subject and she will illustrate her lecture with a number of lantern slides. The public is cordially invited by the members of the M. I. A. to attend the meeting as their guests.

The Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary enjoyed a program of educational value Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. K. Wight, with Misses Blanche Clark, Esther Ryan, Nell Christiansen and Marjorie Barratt as hostesses. Art in the phase of interior decorations was interestingly presented by talks and lantern slides. The subject of floors and draperies was presented by Miss Clark, furniture by Miss Ryan and pictures by Miss Christiansen.

The walls of the living room were adorned with infant pictures of the guests. Miss Imogene Russell won the prize for recognising the most pictures.

Religious movies are not a well-balanced pulpit diet; music should not be predominant unless the masters in music are interpreted by artists, to the end that the music be not soothing and entertaining alone, but inspirational; the open forum is practicable as an avenue but in the end it is the parents themselves that must meet the problems of filling church pews on Sunday evenings; to socialize the Sunday evening hour is entirely feasible and practical.

These conclusions were reached by speakers at the Men's club of the Methodist church last evening. Rev. Ira R. Aldrich read the main paper presenting 15 sample programs for the Sunday evening meetings of any church, that dealt with civic, educational, medical and quasi-religious topics. Harry Hessert, George Helm, Claude Cooper and A. W. Leffel were other speakers.

Mrs. John Milne entertained Tuesday evening at her home in honor of her daughter, Alice, January 24th being her eighth birthday. Games were played and several hours of fun indulged in, after which a birthday supper was served. In the center of the table was a big birthday cake, the gift of Alex McPherson. This was decorated with nine candles, eight for the birthdays and one to grow on. The cake contained a silver wishbone, a ring, a thimble and a button. The young folks drawing the prizes were: Alice Milne, the ring; Margaret Milne the thimble; Kenneth Oxner, the wishbone; Dorothy Warnick, the button. The following young people enjoyed the evening with Miss Alice: Dorothy Ann Warwick, Marjory Warnick, Virginia Warnick, Donalene Oxner, Kenneth Oxner, Dorothy Miner, Donald Miner, Wesley Miner, Margaret Milne and Elizabeth Milne.

Constipation.

Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste matter as it is that the waste pipes of our home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed. —adv especially in American-Japanese relations and in 1918 gave funds to the University of Tokio to establish a chair for the study of the history and constitution of the United States. He was made an officer of the Legion of Honor by the French government in 1913, for his share in a reception in New York to French official visitors. In the year following the world war he was appointed chairman of a committee to aid German children.

Mr. Hepburn was author of many magazine and review essays on economics and finance and published two books, "The History of Coinage and Currency," and "Artificial Waterways and Commercial Development." He was chairman of the currency committee of the American Bankers' association from the time of its organization. He was a member of many leading clubs.

In 1873 he married Miss Hattie Fisher of St. Albans, Vt., who died several years late. In 1887 he remarried, taking for his wife Miss Emily H. Eaton, of Montpelier, Vt. They made their home in New York City for many years and had a country house at Ridgefield, Conn.
