The program on Russian Literature which was to have been given last Tuesday at the Neighborhood Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Murphy, will be given next Tuesday afternoon.

Following is the program: A paper on the "Life of Tolstoi," by Mrs. J. D. Lynch; a piano solo, "A November Sleigh Ride," by Tscharkowsky, played by Alfred Meyers; "Russian Peasant Folk Dance," by eight little girls from Miss Imogene Russell's room, Sallie Siegrist, Peggy Bohnenkamp, Barbara Guye, Beverly Guye, Virginia Bramwell, Mildred Shuman, Audrey Clark; a story "What Men Live For," by Tolstoi, to be read by Mrs. L. B. Moe, assisted by Miss Florence Lynch on the violin and Mrs. J. Donald Meyers on the piano.

The Parliamentary class which was to have met with Mrs. E. P. Mossman on Tuesday afternoon has been postponed until 7:30 Tuesday evening.

A "wonderful time" was the comment of each of the twenty-five girls who attended the Girls' Friendly Society pot-luck supper held at Honan Hall Wednesday evening. Fern Wells, Anna Mae Webster and Lola Pierson proved to be very successful young hostesses. The tables were attractively laid, decorations being pastel shaded candles. Loads of good things to eat were in evidence and, while the girls were eating, song broke forth every now and then, mostly the popular songs used internationally by the G. F. S., and the popular old "rounds."

At the close of the dinner hour, a very energetic business meeting was held, the officers for the new year taking their chairs for the first time.

Plans were laid for a Valentine's dancing party, strictly invitational, and a Mardi Gras carnival. The latter is to be held Friday, February 24th, and is to be everything one can think of as the "last mad revel" before Lent.

The G. F. S. girls want the young people of the city to keep the date open if they want to have the best time they have ever had. With the adjournment of the business meeting, a half hour of dancing was enjoyed, before the girls were taken to their homes.

The new officers of the year are: President, Jean Stearns; vice president, Cressa Wells; recording secretary, Marian Catlin; corresponding secretary, Fern Wells; treasurer, Gertrude Leonard.

The G. A. R. and the W. R. C. met last Saturday and held a joint installation at the K. P. hall. The installation took place at one o'clock and immediately afterwards a dinner was served.

The following G. A. R. officers were installed: I. W. Faulk, commander; William Thompson, senior vice commander; G. W. Allen, junior vice commander; Mr. Coalwell, officer of the day; J. W. Oliver, adjutant, and Frank Huron, chaplain. Commander Faulk was presented with a beautiful silk flag.

The W. R. C. installed: Mrs. Gallagher, president; Mrs. Chambers, senior vice president; Mrs. Braden, junior vice president; Mrs. Bickford, secretary; Mrs. Carr, treasurer; Mrs. Davis, chaplain; Mrs. Williamson, guard; Mrs. Kochensparger, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Roesch, press correspondent; Mrs. Huig, assistant guard; Mrs. Divink, conductor; Mrs. Rose Wright, assistant conductor; Mrs. Rhodes, musician; Mrs. Jack, Mrs. Winburn, Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Cantrell, color bearers. Mrs. Roesch was installing officer.

A gathering of the "Clan" was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, 1811 Spruce street, in honor of Robert Burns' birthday. John Meldrum was the only one of the clan who was born in the same shire as Robert Burns and he gave a reading on the life of Burns which was enjoyed by every Scot present. Songs by the Burns Quartette, composed of Robert Collier, Earl Minner, Alex McPherson and Thomas Barrie, were sung with true Scottish vim. Dancing of the reels and quadrilles helped to amuse the clan and two open floor dances, "The Highland Fling," by John Harvey, won great applause. A delicious supper was served and a social hour followed, during which each guest spoke of his favorite Burns poem, after which the evening closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," and the hope that Bobbie Burns' ain folk "would all meet again next year."

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Meldrum, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Milne, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miner, Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barrie, Robert Collier and Alex McPherson.

On Wednesday evening of December 21, H. A. Thomas was surprised by a few of his many friends calling on him at his home at the City Park, the occasion being his 67th birthday. An enjoyable hour was spent in games and visiting, with light refreshments at the close. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Landry, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Combs, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams, Mr. Willis Wright and daughter, Evelyn, Mrs. M. J. Skiff, Mrs. Minerva Slope, Mrs. Oma Lapham, and Ava and J. C. Williams.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman will give a illustrated lecture on the "Joy in Art" before the M. I. A. on Sunday evening at seven o'clock. She will illustrate the lecture with a series of lantern slides and a very interesting and instructive lecture is expected as Mrs. Mossman is especially qualified to speak on this subject. A cordial invitation is extended by the M. I. A. to the public to attend this lecture.

The Thursday Auction Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe on Thursday, February 2nd.

The Lucky Thirteen Bridge Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grace Molitor for their usual semi-monthly meeting. The high honors were won by Mrs. Elizabeth Priest. Delightful refreshments were served. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Fred Meyers on February 9.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. DeLille Green on Thursday evening. Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe won high honors. At the close of a delicious luncheon the party adjourned to meet on February 9 at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe.

Mrs. Henry Hill entertained at Bridge at her home the afternoon of January 19. Mrs. J. F. O'Connell won high honors and Mrs. Frank Parsons received the consolation prize. Some delightful refreshments were served and everyone experienced a very enjoyable afternoon.

With Claude Cooper's squad acting as hosts, the members of the young men's class at the Y. M. C. A. and several visitors were present at a delightful banquet given in the "Y" dining room.

The dinner began at six-thirty, after grace had been said by Reverend Quigley, and consisted of roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, peas, coffee, plum pudding, cake and bread, butter, pickles, cream and sugar, after-dinner mints and other garnishments. Between courses the assembly indulged in chorus singing, "Working on the Railroad" being the chief song.

The Methodist male quartet was present and furnished two delightful numbers. Rev. Quigley then delivered a very interesting talk on "A Man's Man," citing Lincoln, and several others in this connection. Twenty-two were present and all agreed that the dinner was a success in every way.

A delightful dinner was given in the Methodist church basement last night by the members of the Epworth League. The Epworth League had been divided into two sections, the Reds and Blues, to take part in a contest. The Reds emerged winners and the Blues gave them a dinner as their prize.

Miss Lois Nelson acted as toastmistress and handled her duties very capably. Reverend Quigley, the Red and Blue captains, the superintendent and the teachers all responded with short talks.

At the close of the dinner several games were played before adjourning for the evening.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A student body meeting was held Thursday. The main object for discussion was the revising of several phases of the high school constitution. The most important changes made was in regards to the awarding of athletic letters. Under the new amendments the football lettermen of this year will select their type of letter and the trackmen will do likewise. These letters will be used permanently for their respective branch in the future. Another important change was made due to the contracting of several bills not officially authorized. Now the students must have full authority from those in charge to purchase articles at the expense of the student body.

A soul inspiring assembly was held last night for the purpose of initiating the grave-complimented clubs and societies.
