WILL PLAY TWO WEEK-END GAMES

The La Grande high school basketball quintette will take on the strong Enterprise and Joseph teams this week-end.

Friday morning the boys will leave for Joseph, where they will play that night and the next night will find them on the Enterprise floor.

Both teams have shown their mettle and both of them are dangerous opponents. Joseph lost a close game to La Grande here a few weeks ago and Enterprise defeated Union the same week. As Union and La Grande broke even in their two games the dope points to an even break. Coach Lodell predicts a come-back on the part of his proteges and expects to win both games.

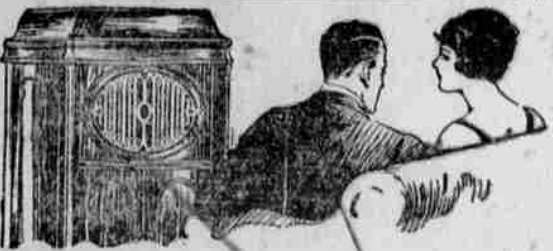

The team has been doing some hard practice during the last week and is in the pink of condition. Coker and Captain Lynch, will play the forward positions, Metcalf and Brain at center and Garrity and Reman will be the guards. Several substitutes will be taken along.

This is La Grande's chance to get back in the winner's column as they have dropped the last three out of four games. At present they stand at a percentage of .429, having lost four and won three games. This year's team has been handicapped by sickness and the fact that most of the material was new.

Dead Sea and Mediterranean.

The old question of the origin of the extreme saltness of the Dead sea has received a new answer. It has been shown, after demonstrating that the soil and rocks can have furnished but a fraction of the quantity of salt that has collected in the Dead sea basin, that the most important source of supply of this salt is atmospheric transportation by winds from the Mediterranean. This view, it is thought, is confirmed by the fact that the ratio of chlorine to bromine in the Dead sea is the same as in the Mediterranean.—Washington Star.

LOCAL SCOUTS WIN FROM COVE

The La Grande Boy Scout basketball team upset the deep bucket last night by winning from the Cove scouts by a score of 16 to 4. In the second game of the double-header the Hi-Y drubbed the high school second team 24 to 10.

After receiving a defeat at Cove the La Grande boys scouts started in with a sizable lead and were never even in danger. The visitors made one basket in each half and were unable to stop the locals, although the Cove lads were larger and more experienced.

In the second melee the Hi-Y conclusively proved themselves the better team by whitewashing their opponents. Metcalf and Brain showed up well for the Hi-Y and Ruckman and Christian played the best brand of ball for the seconds. Christian only played in the latter half.

The line-ups were: Hi-Y—Roban and Kingwell, forwards; Metcalf, center; Brown and McMillan, guards; Stager and Price were substitutes. High school seconds—Smith and Woodell, forwards; Abstott, center; Ruckman and Berger, guards. Christian took Smith's place in the last half.

The line-ups for the scout game were: Cove—Baxter and Conley, forwards; Peck, center; Harris and Loree, guards. Offical played during the last half. La Grande—Fitzgerald and Brown, forwards; Beatty, center; Kelly and McCorkle, guards. Dutil played center in the last half. C. C. Snow refereed both games.

ONE TEAM IS OUT OF LEAGUE

The Lingers Five team has dropped out of the city league and forfeited its remaining unplayed games. This automatically changes the percentage column which now stands: Clerks, three won and none lost, 1,000; Stoddards, three won and one lost, 750; Union, two won and one lost, 550; Cougars, three lost and one won, 250.

The game scheduled for Friday night between Union and the Clerks will definitely settle the championship should the Clerks win. If Union triumphs the result will be a three cornered tie for the championship, necessitating extra games.

This year's basketball season in the city league has been fraught with many set backs. The league started out with six members but the M. I. A. and the Lingers Five, two promising teams, were forced to drop out. Outside of this the league has been a success. A splendid brand of basketball has been exhibited by the three leading teams and many stars, such as Thelton and Garrity, of the Clerks; Levin of Union; Webb of the Cougars, and John and Lester Stoddard of the Stoddard brothers have been brought to light. An all-star team will be picked in the near future and will most likely embrace most of the above mentioned men.

At the close of the regular season it is probable that an all-star

La Grande team will be picked to play an exhibition game at Union, before the choosing of the regular mythical five.

CLERKS WIN IN BASKETBALL

The Clerks defeated the Union American Legion team at Union in an exhibition basketball game. This gives the Clerks the lead and on the hope for the game scheduled here Friday night to settle the championship of the city league.

The game was featured mostly by close checking only nine field baskets being made by both teams. The Clerks annexed six of these and shot three fouls while Union got three and converted seven fouls, the final score being 15 to 13. The first half ended 8 to 4 in favor of the Clerks and Union staged a comeback in the last half, passing the Clerks. However, the Clerks soon drew away and managed to retain their slender lead till the final whistle.

Union's team played well together but no one stood out as a star. Thelton played a bang-up game as guard and forward and Garrity each scored two baskets. Lindley shot one and Thelton got the other. Garrity was high point man with seven points scored.

The lineups were: La Grande—Garrity and Lawson, forwards; Proctor, center, and Lindley and Thelton, guards; Union, Morgan and Lewis, forwards; Turner, center, and Spencer and Sierlin, guards; Irwin Hens refereed.

When She Drops the Line.

I have a saucy niece who lives 'way down South. She was visiting her uncle one week-end with her sister and brother and her mother and father, and they had the nurse with them. She was rather saucy and her uncle was trying to make her mind. She looked him right in the eye, and threw back her head with the startling announcement: "I mind mammas and papas and nurses—but I don't have to mind uncles."—Chicago Tribune.

MORE SCANDAL---

A certain prominent young man was seen kissing his girl last evening and if the young man does not come to the Alley Store and purchase one of those fine jars of candy, the names of both parties will appear in large print tomorrow in this paper. For hunting around for a store that can undersell a store of this make-up and kind would be like fighting a big black bear with hot snow balls in July. The magnitude and size of this institution is unbelievable, unless you see our plan and system. Don't faint because sugar is raising, all contracts with me will be taken care of, right to the dot. Our system is a howling success, corn, tomatoes, mixed clams. Sugar is raising. We guarantee flour going higher soon, not much, but save the little. And to those who saw the sugar game right and bought—we wish as many as possible to take it direct from the ears. Now for the spud growers. Special attention. Last Spring I put among fifteen farmers a car of irrigated spuds and found our climate and conditions were a failure. Plant Dry Land Spuds Here. We need sure crops. Our butter is 80c a roll, guaranteed or back comes your money and keep the butter. Solid pack army tomatoes, 2 cans 25c; tea 50c. It is sure a cinch to see this store your first trip. Our total daily expense is $1.03. It doesn't sound possible, but it is true. You pay it, I do not. We are proud of our coffee business. We are buying for you on eggs, 12 for 30c. Do with us like Lee Warnick does with a thief—look us over. We try to steer you right in these times. We are not still but we are still on the Alley.
