THREE APARTMENTS ALL LOOK ALIKE

Three Apartments All Look Alike. BY ALMAN.

The Screen

AT SHERRYS, LAST DAY OF "THE MAN FROM LOST RIVER"

House Peters, whose splendid performance in Goldwyn's "The Invisible Power" has been hailed as one of the best characterizations of the new season, will be seen in the leading role of "The Man from Lost River," a new whodunit by Katharine Newlin Burt. Mr. Peters has long been known for his portrayal of powerful characters; and as the lumber camp foreman in his latest Goldwyn picture, he is given every opportunity to reveal that manliness and suppressed tenderness which make him an ideal screen hero.

Fritzi Brunette plays the leading feminine role opposite Mr. Peters. As the girl who doesn't know her true feelings, Miss Brunette's performance is subtle and appealing. The third angle of the triangle is ably upheld by Allan Forrest.

Frank Lloyd, who directed "The Man from Lost River," believes it to be one of his best productions. It is a thrilling picture of life in the northwestern lumber camps and one that should not be missed.

Also showing "Fighting Fate."

COMEDY HYSTERIA

Laughs a lot of people never dreamed they were capable of were literally scared out of them by the breathlessly thrilling stunts of Harold Lloyd performed in his timelike comedy yesterday in "Never Weaken," shown yesterday at the Arcade Theatre for the first time, and continuing until Saturday.

The first two reels of this new Associated Exhibitors comedy, produced by Hal Roach, with whom Lloyd's entire comedy career has been associated, move along swiftly with a lot of typical Lloydian gags and humor.

In the last reel the comedy suddenly slips into a high gear labelled Thrills! It maintains a mad, hilarious pace to the very last fadeout. When it is over, you are so exhausted from your hearty, and sometimes hysterical, laughs, you wonder if the title, "Never Weaken," is a precaution intended for you, or for Harold Lloyd, who apparently places no value on his life.

"Tropical Love," a five reel feature, many parts of which was filmed in Porto Rico, is also being shown. The story is a powerful one, full of swift action and beautiful scenery and holds the interest throughout.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR WEDDING

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Feb. 3.—Arrangements for Princess Mary's wedding to Viscount Lascelles at Westminster Abbey last week in February are beginning to take form.

The Lord Chamberlain, the Duke of Atholl, has been commissioned by the King to draw up a sketch of the proposed ceremonial and the State Chamberlain, Sir Douglas Dawson, will prepare the program.

The sending out of 2,000 invitations is the task of the Ceremonial Department at St. James' Palace. A fortnight's notice is usually considered sufficient for such occasions. The King and Queen as a rule invite personally their own relatives from abroad.

Not all the guests at Westminster Abbey will be able to see the wedding ceremony. The choir and the transepts will be set apart for the royal family, the diplomatic corps, personal friends of the Viscount and Princess and the members of the royal households and suites. The others will have to be content with a view of the procession.

The wedding will be solemnized by the Archbishop of Canterbury, or in his absence, by the Archbishop of York.

Terms of Such Sale

An intending purchaser shall send to the address of the undersigned at La Grande, Oregon, a sealed bid, for either the separate property, at either Enterprise or La Grande, Oregon, or the entire property at both places, to be received not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon of February 20th, 1922, accompanied by a certified check of not less than 10 percent of such bid, payable to the order of the undersigned, the amount of such check to be applied on purchase price of bid, if accepted, and forfeited to the estate of said company, if the bidder fails to comply with terms of sale, on demand. If bid is not accepted, check to be returned to bidder. It is a part of the condition of any bid that the successful bid shall be credited with the appraised value of any item or items named in said inventory, that may have been disposed of prior to date of acceptance of bid. Undersigned reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and the acceptance of any bid shall be subject to approval of creditors, and confirmation of sale by referee.

Dated at La Grande, Oregon January 30th, 1922.

CONVERTS FEW AT TELOCASET

(Special to The Observer)

TELOCASET, Feb. 3.—Cold weather and snow seems to be the order of the day for this section. We have a blizzard for one day and next we have a snowstorm to help the extreme cold along. This has been one of the longest and steadiest cold spells that has ever been known. We are all hoping for warmer weather soon.

A basket social was held at the school house last Friday night. A large crowd was present and had a good time. The baskets were auctioned off by Bob Briggs and brought a good price. Some going as high as five dollars. Something over a hundred dollars was taken in from the sale of baskets. Some of the young people from Wolfe creek did not get to Telocaset until after the exercises were over, owing to the bad roads.

Leah Hodgkins, who had the misfortune to break his leg some weeks ago, had to have an operation on the leg because it was not set properly at first. It will be some time before he will be able to leave the hospital. He is resting easily at present it is reported.

Miss Young, the night telegraph operator, was called to Baker last Saturday by the sad news of her sister's death. Miss Young did not know that her sister was sick and the unexpected news was a great shock to her.

The protracted meetings that were being held at Telocaset have been closed. A few converts were made by these meetings.

A number of our young people have been enjoying slides on a toboggan down a steep hill back of the town. The animal gets balky at times, some of the riders have been hurt, but none seriously thus far.

The extreme cold weather decreased the attendance at school as so many children live out in the country and have a long way to come to school.

Ed. Hollfield went to North Powder on Thursday for a load of hay.

Robert Snider was bitten by a dog the other day. He tried to separate two that were fighting and one of the animals bit him on the hand. He is getting along all right at present.

Adeline Lubbs and Avela Titus went to Baker on Saturday. Miss Adeline had some dental work done on her teeth.

L. B. Hintz and Lars Larsen are getting out lots of wood and expect to supply the local demand for the summer.

Telocaset is to have a local eating house. Two old freight cars are being renovated and will be made into an improvised restaurant. We hope it will be a good one as Telocaset needs a good place to eat.

The ground hog saw his shadow, but as we expect a late spring in this section it does not worry us about that.

The Daniels boys had an accident the other day on the way to school. The horse which the two younger boys were riding fell into a hole and the other one ridden by the older boy fell over it. No one was hurt which was lucky considering the fall.

Sale of cyclamen plants at Cherry's flower store next week.
