The Screen

SPORTSMANSHIP THEME OF "THUNDERCLAP"

The local screen has a big thrilling William Fox drama of the sporting and gaming world in "Thunderclap," which opens at the Star Theatre on Friday.

Reports that come in advance state that some of the most daring and thrilling scenes ever recorded by the motion camera have been taken for this spectacular picture.

A notable cast including Mary Carr and Violet Mercereau interpret the story and the direction is by Richard Stanton. Paul H. Sloane wrote the scenario. "Thunderclap" opened at the Central Theatre, a large Broadway house in New York, for an extended run.

NORMA TALMADGE HAS STAR SUPPORT IN NEW PLAY

One of the most notable casts ever assembled in a motion picture production supports Norma Talmadge in "The Wonderful Thing," which will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre, beginning today.
With the single exception of Mrs.
Lydia Hoyt, who makes her first professional appearance in the production, the principals are all players who are widely known to mo-

Harrison Ford plays the role of Donald Mannerby, the young Englishman who marries Jacqueline for her money and then learns to love her. Howard Truettale is the American hog king whose millions make his daughter attractive to Donald.
Robert Agnew is Laurence Mannerby, the weaker young brother, who gets into the scrape which makes money essential to Donald. Ethel Flaming is Dulcie Mannerby Fox-dick, who knows Jacqueline for what she is, and loves her. The stern, proud English mother, Lady Sophia Alexandria Mannerby, is played by Mable Bert. Fanny Burke is cast as a rich comedy role, with a strong flavor of pathos because it is so human, as Angelica Mannerby, who has patiently waited 15 years for the return of her lover with whom she has quarrelled.

Charles Craig is her lover, who comes back, and Walter McKenzie is the villain in the role of "Smooth Bill" Carter.

AT SHERRYS TODAY
AND TOMORROW

When the first original Gertrude Atherton photoplay, "Don't Neglect Your Wife," comes to the Sherry Theatre, for two days, beginning today, one of the most unusual motion picture sets ever constructed will be seen. In this eminent Authors picture, which was made at the Goldwyn studios, an old section of New York, the "Five Points," that was formerly the hangout of thieves and other underworld characters, has been reconstructed in every detail. This section of the city is now a manufacturing center; but formerly it was a mesh of blind alleys and underground passages which afforded ample protection for a criminal, once he reached the "Points."

It is to this vicious section of the city that a capable San Francisco newspaper editor comes when his love for a married woman drives him to seek oblivion and to avoid the companionship of his friends.
Finding it impossible to live with her husband, she is divorced; and through here willingness to share his fate, succeeds in bring the editor back to the world. Mabel Julienne Scott and Lewis S. Stone play the leading roles. Wallace Worley directed.

Also showing "Fighting Fate."

A STATEROOM

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Gaiety borough's famous "Blue Boy," brought from England for Henry E. Huntington, will be exhibited in a Fifth avenue gallery before it is sent to its new owner. Plans for the exhibition in the galleries of the Duveen brothers, who bought the painting for Mr. Huntington, have been made.

"Blue Boy," exhibited in London before it was placed aboard the steamship La Savole with another famous Gainsborough, "The Cottage Door," attracted crowds of almost worshipful observers, the men removing their hats as they passed before the painting.

In crossing the Atlantic the two pictures were securely locked in a special stateroom, and were under the constant guard of two men.
The Duveen, who purchased "Blue Boy" from the Duke of Westminster's collection, are said to have paid for it 130,000 pounds.

Since the purchase the picture has been cleaned of numerous spots of varnish which clouded the rich blue, which made the portrait the famous art work it was when it first came from the hands of the painter.

VALE, Feb. 9.—At the point of revolvers, Jim Harris and Chris Leffoy were held up Wednesday evening at their sheep camp on the Hill ranch, across the Snake river from Weiser and relieved of $75 in cash by three robbers. The stick-up men left the camp and the holders started to track them on horseback. The trail led to Weis-er and police officers of that city arrested Wallace Adams, Buster Adams and Robert Burns.

Warrants for them were issued at Vale Friday night and Deputy Sheriff C. W. Glenn went after the prisoners Saturday.
