"THUNDERCLAP" IS A MELODRAMA OF THRILLS

In "Thunderclap," the super-picture which is now running at the Star Theatre, one of the most spectacular races ever screened is shown. There is plenty of excitement in it for even the most jaded of movie appetites, and William Fox and Director Stanton have afforded the public some wonderful thrills.

Perhaps most memorable of all, next to the remarkable race scene, is that of the hero swilling down the rapids. One paper says that it made all other similar scenes ever filmed look very tame. In the taking of this incident, Paul Willis, the hero, almost lost his life. He did not have to call on his histrionic assets to register fear, his fear was genuine; and the colored lad who plays in the picture insists that Willis carried a horse shoe in his pocket while he crawled down the torrent to what looked like sure death.

In order to give the interiors of the gaming house a more realistic effect, one of the most fashionable establishments in New York was rented for the filming of the scenes.

The picture was originally shown at the Central Theatre, New York, and had a brilliant Broadway run. William Fox explained in his message to the public that he did not feel that this was the time to allow only big cities to see the big productions. He wanted to give everyone a chance to see it at the local theatre.

"Thunderclap" will be the attraction at the Star Theatre until Sunday night.

TIA JEANA GIRLS DANCE CAN-CAN FOR FILM PLAY AT SHERRY'S LAST DAY

The can-can can come back, and did for Goldwyn's production of Gertrude Atherton's first story written directly for the screen, "Don't Neglect Your Wife!" showing for the last time today at the Sherry Theatre, but it had a hard time doing it. The action of this powerful drama of domestic relations takes place in the early San Francisco days, when the can-can was the dance of the day, looked at askance in many circles. In order to obtain the right atmosphere for one scene in "Don't Neglect Your Wife!" it was necessary to have the can-can danced as it was in those days.

The girls tried out for the dance invariably started by shimmying. The Goldwyn studios at Culver City, Cal., are not very far from the Mexican border, and eventually Director Wallace Worsley sent to the little Mexican town of Tia Juana, which still retains much of the "atmosphere" of the gold-rush days. There he found girls who could dance the can-can.

NORMA TALMADGE SURPRISES IN "THE WONDERFUL THING"

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opened an engagement of three days at the Arcade Theatre yesterday. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance, at least as far as the Talmadge family is concerned. In addition, the story does not deprive the audience at the theatre of seeing Miss Talmadge do some of the emotional acting which has made her so popular.

"The Wonderful Thing" is really good entertainment. The wonderful thing about it is the wonderful way in which excellent comedy has been mixed in with drama and pathos.

The entire cast is five, and naturally, Harrison Ford carries away the honors that go to the male char-

ARGENTINE IS GIVEN CREDIT

(By Associated Press) BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 19.—Recent offers of credits by the Argentine government to France and Belgium for the purchase of Argentine produce have been extended to all countries where Argentina has diplomatic representation.

A circular sent out by Foreign Minister Pueyrredon to the various legations says that the Argentine government, being desirous of making closer its relations with other nations, thereby putting into practice a policy of economic co-operation, desires that Argentina's representatives abroad should inform the governments to which they are accredited that the Argentine government is willing to grant all kinds of facilities for buying Argentine meat, cereals, wool and other national produce which may be necessary for the consumption and the manufacturing industries of other countries.

The Argentine foreign representatives are instructed to point out the abundance of Argentina's new cereal harvest, the suitability of Argentine meat for the requirements of all the consuming markets, the fact that previous wool clips have been partially liquidated and that the sale of the present year wool clip has commenced under favorable conditions.

Argentina's representatives are also instructed to put themselves in contact with commercial and industrial centers and inform them fully on the matter.

HERMAN KURTZISCH

"When it comes to eating, working and sleeping, I'm like a different man from what I was a short time ago," said Herman Kurtzisch, 404 1/2 Norris Place, Milwaukee, with the Northwestern Life Insurance Co., in relating his experience with Taulac.

"My whole system was about to give way as a result of two years' constant suffering from stomach trouble, and I was so run down and worn out I was hardly able to work. Actually I suffered so terribly from heartburn, and I was so nervous I got little rest day or night.

"If it hadn't been for Taulac, I'm firmly convinced I would have had to resign my place. It came to my aid in the nick of time and I am strong for it. Taulac was worth at least fifty times what it cost me."

NEWSPAPERS FORM TRUST

(By Associated Press) STOCKHOLM, Feb. 9.—Publishers of the most important Russian newspapers have formed a cooperative association or trust, according to information received here. The combine is to control the administration and distribution of the different papers and owners of the papers become stockholders in the trust.

The Communist party is now contemplating a plan to give the daily newspapers economic freedom while the government will retain political control.

Any deficit in the yearly budget of these semi-official newspapers will be covered by the soviet government, and the central executive committee of the government will be requested to set aside a permanent fund for the support of the press.

CITY BUYS STILL

(By Associated Press) REDDING, Cal., Feb. 3.—The city of Redding is owner of a whiskey still and considerable mash, found in a house acquired recently by the town trustees. It became known Wednesday. The trustees fear they are technical violators of the Volstead act, in that they acquired the still and mash as part of an investment and not through a police raid.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. Many such, however, have been completely restored to health by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. These tablets strengthen the stomach, invigorate the liver and improve the digestion. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. When you have any trouble with your stomach, give them a trial.

THOUSAND YEAR OLD OAK TREE

(By Associated Press) CHICO, Calif., Feb. 10.—An oak tree whose age is estimated to exceed 1,000 years and under whose prodigious branches General William Tecumseh Sherman, estimated an army of 7,000 could stand, has been proposed by people of this city as the emblem of the Woodmen of the World. The tree is not far from here. A proposal to this effect has been made to the head camp of the order at Denver, Colorado.

The tree was named after Sir Thomas Hooker, noted English naturalist, who in 1877, after close examination and considerable study pronounced it larger than any of the wondrous oaks for which England is famed. Sir Thomas said the tree was more than ten centuries old. It is more than 100 feet high and its circumference eight feet above the ground is 24

4-100 feet. Its largest branch extends away from the trunk for 105 feet. From north to south its branches extend an even 200 feet. The greatest circumference of its outside branches is said to be almost 400 feet.

WAGES WILL NOT CHANGE

(By Associated Press) ANDOVER, Mass., Feb. 10.—William M. Wood, president of the American Woolen company, in a statement, reassured the company's employees that their wages would not be reduced this season.

"There will be no reduction of wages this season so far as the American Woolen company is concerned," he said. "There is nothing to justify it. We would be more justified in increasing the price of clothes than reducing wages," he declared.

THE REASON FOR OUR SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH IS OUR SUBSTANTIAL SERVICE HAVE YOU HELD YOUR DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE? The Disarmament Conference held in our national capital has clearly brought out the fact that nations favor reducing arms to a peace footing. The reason for this opinion is obvious. Expenses must be curtailed, the chaotic financial condition of the world must be swiftly brought to control. We as individuals must assist, we must also disarm—our useless expenditures—some of our unnecessary luxuries. And in this program your bank is an important factor, for in it your savings are carefully protected and accounted for. Every facility of this bank is at your command.
