AT SHERRY'S TODAY AND TOMORROW

"Passing Thru" the latest Thomas H. Ince-Paramount comedy starring Douglas MacLean is the humorous tale of a young man whose willingness to assume the troubles of others involves him in serious difficulties. Billy Barton, the leading character, portrayed by Mr. MacLean, first draws a sentence to the penitentiary through having assumed the blame for a bank theft of which he was entirely innocent. Before he is placed behind the bars, however, he makes his escape in a spectacular train wreck and seeks refuge in the village of Calverton. Here, befriending a lazy mule being beaten by her master gets him into more difficulties, and his misfortunes continue to pile up until the final scenes of the story when a deluge of good luck more than evens the score. Madge Bellamy, recently recruited to the screen by Thomas H. Ince from the New York stage, is seen as Mary Spivins, the charming object of the young man's affections.

FUN IN "SPEED GIRL" NEVER LAGS—AT ARCADE THEATRE

Several new faces, excellent direction, a corking good story and—Rebo Daniels! These are the high spot, in climactic order, of "The Speed Girl," which is being shown today and Wednesday at the Arcade Theatre. Elmer Harris' story is most entertainingly told, and has all the vital elements of action, suspense and situation. Douglas Doty, in handling his continuity, has knit the several factors so closely and so well as to get the little speed girl into the most thrilling complications, such as a race with a train, an exciting skid in an automobile, and yet keep the sympathy with her all the time.

CONOLIDATION IS VERY SLOW

BEFORADJE, Feb. 14.—The political consolidation of the new kingdom of Yugoslavia is not proceeding as rapidly or satisfactorily as friends of the country might wish, despite the fact that it has a unified constitution to which most of the parties of the state have subscribed. There are not lacking among the various racial elements in the population evidences of antagonism and lack of cooperation. One racial group feels itself superior to the other, and thinks in consequence it ought to have a greater voice in the affairs of the country. The Serbians, for example, feel that by reason of their numbers and their experience in government and statecraft, they are the most important element in Yugoslavia and should have the dominant part in guiding the country's destinies.

Miss Bebe ends her rapid adventure with what should have been a restful term in the county jail. But even there—things happen. There is another strong contender for sympathy in the unfortunate girl Hila, a role beautifully played by Norris Johnson. Theodore Von Elts is a new leading man with Miss Daniels, and Frank Elliott has the sort of heavy part in which you are used to seeing him.

Walter Hiern deserves a paragraph all to himself, though is part is not a large one. The fat actor has the role of Soapy Taylor, the press-agent, and it's certain no editor could resist his beaming smile—even if the judge did. Truly Shattuck, Wm. Court-right and Barbara Maier complete the excellent cast. Irving Cummings in "Tricked," a Northwest Mounted Police story, is also being shown.

There are not lacking among the various racial elements in the population evidences of antagonism and lack of cooperation. One racial group feels itself superior to the other, and thinks in consequence it ought to have a greater voice in the affairs of the country.

The Croats and Slovenes, on the other hand, feel that the education, culture and modern training they received under the Austrians, gives them an intellectual and cultural superiority over their brother Slavs to the south and that therefore they are the best qualified to lead the nation through the difficult days of organization, reconstruction and consolidation.

The old Austrian Empire systematically encouraged discord between the Serbs and Croats, and held out to the Croats as a reward the hope of a great Croatian state within the Hapsburg Monarchy. In some parts of Croatia that hope still persists. In the Yugoslav cabinet there are no less than 18 members representing all political and racial groups and important geographical areas equal representation. Even the Mohammedan population of Bosnia and Macedonia have a voice in the ministry, there being four Moslem members. The sittings of the cabinet often are characterized by bitter acrimony and partisan strife. Cabinet "crises" occur frequently. But while all this party discord and racial discord exist, few doubt that the nation ultimately will reach its goal of political and social unification. The process will BAKER, Feb. 14.—George Miller was yesterday elected president and W. S. Levens secretary-treasurer of the Baker Tax Reduction club at a meeting of about 75 taxpayers at the W. O. W. hall on Main street yesterday afternoon. Over 50 signatures to the membership roll were made and it is expected that before March many more will become members of the club.

The purpose of the meeting was outlined by Senator W. MARKETING IS TALKED OVER

ONTARIO, Feb. 14.—Seventy-five Malheur county farmers who are going to raise potatoes as one of their principal crops gathered in Ontario yesterday to discuss the problems of securing seed, and incidentally also discussing the problem of marketing the crop after it was raised.

Early in the discussion it developed that many of them would need financial assistance to secure seed, but not as many as it was at first believed would require help other than that which they could personally get from their local bankers.

THE REASON FOR OUR SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH IS OUR SUBSTANTIAL SERVICE

HAVE YOU HELD YOUR DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE? The Disarmament Conference held in our national capital has clearly brought out the fact that nations favor reducing arms to a peace footing. The reason for this opinion is obvious. Expenses must be curtailed, the chaotic financial condition of the world must be swiftly brought to control. We as individuals must assist, we must also disarm—our useless expenditures—some of our unnecessary luxuries. And in this program your bank is an important factor, for in it your savings are carefully protected and accounted for. Every facility of this bank is at your command.
