CURWOOD UNFOLDS THRILLING DRAMA IN "THE GOLDEN SNARE"

Heralded as one of the most picturesque and compelling screen versions of any James Oliver Curwood story yet filmed, "The Golden Snare," produced under the direction of David Hartford for release by Associated First National, comes to the Arcade Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Lewis S. Stone, who has distinguished himself in other Curwood pictures, notably "The River's End" and "Nomads of the North," is the featured player in "The Golden Snare," in which he is again seen in his familiar and popular role of a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. Ruth Renick has the leading feminine part, and others in the cast are Wallace Berry, Melbourne MacLennan, Wellington Play-ter, Francis McDonald and Baby Esther Scott.

As in the "Nomads of the North," Director David Hartford is said to have again made skillful use of animals in the picturization of "The Golden Snare." This time it is a pack of wolf-dogs and malefactors which are featured. Running in packs with mad Bram Johnson these fierce but intelligent brutes are ready to attack either man or beast at the command of their master. Some remarkable photography and striking effects are said to have been obtained in the snow country with the aid of these "hulks."

"BURN 'EM UP' BARNES" BIG ATTRACTION.

Comparatively few comedy offerings of this season's vintage have attracted as much attention as has been displayed at the showing of "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes," now playing a limited engagement at the Star Theatre, with Johnny (Torchy) Hines in the title role.

"The appeal of 'Burn 'Em Up' Barnes" is not confined to any one particular class of amusement seekers. Its appeal seems to be universal. The love theme, so deftly and cleverly intertwined with the many thrilling incidents, appeals to the feminine contingent, the courageous combat with economic factors wins the admiration of the elderly business man, the adventurous "life on the broad highways" appeals to the youth of both sexes, and the thrilling automobile road race and its whirlwind dramatic climax finds everyone on the edge of their chairs with excitement.
Certain it is that Johnny, long the hero of countless office boy escapades in Torchy Comedies, could not have selected a better story to make into a picture during his "vacation" period than Raymond Schrock has provided in "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes."

In support of Mr. Hines are such distinguished artists as Edmund Breece, George Fawcett, Betty Carpenter, J. Barney Sherry, Dorothy Leeds, Julia Swayne O'Brien, Matthew Bettis, and a cast of 500. "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes" will conclude its engagement on Friday night.

BACK BAD TODAY?

Backache is usually kidney-ache and makes you dull, nervous and tired. Use Doan's Kidney Pills for weak kidneys—the remedy recommended by your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. J. J. Bartlett, 603 Adams Ave., La Grande, says: "It has been years since I have had occasion to take a kidney medicine but I know from past experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine remedy for backache. Before I got to using Doan's I was subject to backache and at times was in misery more so after standing. Knowing the value of Doan's I got some and had only taken one box when I was promptly cured of the misery in my back. Since then I haven't experienced any backache or kidney trouble." (Statement given May 26, 1916).

On May 6, 1920, Mrs. Bartlett said: "I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as they are sure to help me whenever I have any sign of kidney complaint."
Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bartlett and Foster-Mil-
