ing Red Cross apron sale, after a talk on Red Cross work by the secretary, Mrs. Clyde Metcalf. A social time was then spent while refreshments were served by Mrs. N. Nelson, Mrs. F. Tuberson and Mrs. D. Beveridge.

The Royal Neighbors lodge has made plans for a big social evening on their next regular meeting night, Friday, February 23, and will not hold any business session on that occasion. Once or twice a year the lodge plans a big time for the kiddies of its members and their friends, and this is one of the occasions that the children are eagerly looking forward to. The feature of the evening will be the "grab bag" booths, one for the children and one for the grown-ups. And, of course, there is to be a program, social games and a late supper. A big turn-out is expected. All the Royal Neighbors, their children, and friends being invited.

The lodge recently installed new officers, who have taken hold of the work in a business-like manner. Practice for the state convention to be held in Baker next October is already under way, the lodge planning to carry off some of the prizes. A number of new members have also been initiated lately. Mrs. Hilda Steffens being the latest member taken into the order.

Officers installed for this year are: Bertha White, oracle; Mary Estes, vice-oracle; Lillian Ellsworth, past oracle; Harriet Briggs, chancellor; Perle Munson, recorder; Marguerite Swart, receiver; Alta Winburn, marshal; Bertha Bates, assistant marshal; Martha Chambers, inner sentinel; Rebecca McGuire, outer sentinel.

The Women's Moosehead League met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Collins, with Mrs. Harriet Fischer as joint hostess. The ladies enjoyed a pleasant social time, and engaged in fancy work, also completing plans for the annual masked ball to be held in Zulu Hall on February 24. The hostess served a
