Now that both presentations of the comic opera "Bulbul" have been witnessed there can be no doubt that all forecasts as to its excellence have been abundantly confirmed. If the enthusiasm and compliments may form an index, the deep expression of the public, both by its patronage and its frequent praise, should bring satisfaction to Mrs. A. L. Richardson, director of music, and Mrs. Norman Free, dramatic director, as well as to Mrs. J. Donald Meyers, who, as accompanist, kept the entire opera balanced. A good pianist is so essential to the rendition of successful productions that it is little wonder members of the cast in "Bulbul" express their praise and admiration for Mrs. Meyers' excellent work.

La Grande is proud of her talent. She is proud of the ladies who so ably directed that talent in the rendition of "Bulbul," and she is proud of the Neighborhood Club, which was behind the event, just as the Neighborhood Club has been behind so many thoroughly worthy things in La Grande.

One of the most enjoyable afternoons in many months was spent by the members of the Neighborhood Club at the club rooms yesterday when under the direction of Mrs. Ray Fuller, a program devoted to modern composers was rendered. Mrs. Fuller arranged a number of vocal and instrumental selections for the afternoon that admirably illustrated the work of the composers of the twentieth century. From the first number on to the last the audience was delighted. The work of the composers of this age, and especially of those whose compositions were given, was explained in a paper read by Mrs. Thomas Walsinger.

The initial number was Rachmaninoff's Prelude, played on the piano in a masterful manner by Miss Hilja Anthony. The prelude so pleased the audience that Miss Anthony was urged to respond with an encore. She selected Paganini's "May Night" as a fitting encore.

Negro melodies followed the opening number. Genevieve Adler and Cleland Walsinger, costumed as little darters, were chosen to illustrate this part of modern musical creations. "Way Down South," by Edith Kingler, was the duet sung by the young artists.

Miss Bertha Young gave a solo on the violin, "Solo de Concerto," by Chas. Bancel, in a most charming manner and responded to an encore. Mrs. George Birnie accompanied her on the piano.

One of the interesting and novel numbers of the program was Mrs. Ray Fuller's. She sang three bird songs which offered her an opportunity to display her charming voice at its best. As the closing number on the program Mrs. Sherwood Williams had arranged a little one-act opera, "Little Bobbie Shaffer." Jean Wilkins took the part of Bobbie Shaffer, and Dorothy Brown and Lois Nelson had the other two roles in the piece. The trio of girls sang their parts in a delightful manner and pleased the club greatly with their act.

Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp entertained Chapter I, P. E. O., last Friday afternoon at her home. An interesting and instructive program on the "Birds and Trees of Oregon" had been arranged by Mrs. Wayne Wade and Mrs. E. B. Kiddle. Following the program and business session light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Saturday evening a host of friends were entertained at a dancing party given by the Messrs Robert, Lloyd and Grant Chandler at their home in Fruitdale. At a late hour a delightful lunch was served. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

STARKEY, Feb. 22.—The masquerade ball at Hilgard February 11 was enjoyed by twenty of the Starkey people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rose and Mr. and Mrs. John Wells left Starkey in the afternoon and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott. The rest of the crowd left Jack Starkey's at 5:00 o'clock, with a four-horse team, the wheelers belonging to Sol Twidwell and the leaders to Alvie Burnett, and the bob-se, with a wheat rack belonged to Jack Starkey, on which he had fixed bows and a wagon cover, "prairie schooner" style.

Arriving in Hilgard the crowd were given accommodations by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young. After a lunch of sandwiches and coffee, all donned their masques.

The masquers were as follows: J. S. Rose, in an elaborate dress suit, was a real Starkey swell; Mrs. J. S. Rose was a plump little "Dinah"; John Wells, Jim Jeffries; Mrs. John Wells, Senora Armondez; Alvin Thornburg, Clo-Clo, the clown; Miss Margaret Johnson, with her pointed hood and pretty curls made a dainty Little Red Riding Hood; Alvie Burnett, "Chip of the Flying U"; Mrs. Alvie Burnett, "Jean of the Lazy A"; C. R. Hiltabidel, "Don Quixote"; Miss Edna Hagey was a cute little "Senorita Chiquita"; Ray Noyes, with his goatee and hard-luck look, was Si Perkins; Mrs. Ray Noyes, Samantha Perkins; Vince Emerick, Gob; Miss Evelyn Twidwell, Indian Maiden; Jack Starkey, Abraham Lincoln; Mrs. Jack Starkey, in her quaint costume of yellow, trimmed with narrow black ribbon and black lace, was a lovely "Ann Rutledge"; Sol Twidwell, "Dr. Von Klophestein"; Mrs. Sol Twidwell, "Dr. Dell" Whitmore; Ira Wilson, Sergeant Wilson; Mr. Fourier, Tramp.

The trip both ways was enjoyed by everyone, as sleighing is excellent. Little Barbara Reokaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Reokaw, celebrated her fifth birthday last Saturday afternoon. Four little girls and their mothers were invited. A peanut and Dorothy Brown and Lois Nelson had the other two roles in the piece. The trio of girls sang their other games. A lovely pink birthday cake, little pink and white cakes, candies and decorations and chocolate and pink ice cream were much enjoyed by all.

The Kaffee Klatsch club will meet this Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, with Mrs. J. J. Carr as joint hostess.

Arrangements are complete for handling a big crowd at the masquerade ball at Zuber hall this evening, given by La Grande Lodge No. 850, L. O. O. M. The committee in charge consists of Messrs. W. S. Bennett, F. E. Stillwell, C. C. Larsh, R. McGee, J. Morley. Dancing will begin promptly at 8:00. Music by Lindsay's orchestra. Three prizes will be awarded for the best gentleman's costume, best lady's costume and best comic costumes.

In the article published last week concerning the party given in the M. I. A. Hall, a slight error was made. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson were quoted as being the hosts and hostesses. They were on the entertainment committee.

Mrs. W. F. Snook, at 1505 M street, will entertain the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at her home on Friday afternoon.

The annual Elks' semi-formal ball and banquet tonight will undoubtedly be one of the season's most successful affairs. Eleven hundred invitations have been sent out. The numerous committees, under J. C. Hughes, general chairman, and his assistant chairman, Len F. Miller, have worked hard and as the opening hour draws near are feeling satisfied that all arrangements have been completed in best possible manner. The decoration committee, Paul Massee and O. J. Brandt, assisted by willing helpers, have transformed the hall into a place of rare beauty. The ladies of the Episcopal Guild are serving the banquet.

The Lucky Thirteen Club is being entertained this week by Mrs. C. D. Putnam at her home on Washington avenue.

An invitation is extended the young people of the city by the Girls' Friendly society to attend their Mardi Gras to be held in Houson Hall Saturday evening. All are asked to come in costume, with plenty of nickels in their pockets.

Mrs. R. F. Murphy entertained the Clio Bridge Club at her home last Saturday evening. High score prize went to Dr. Margaret Ingie, and a guest prize was presented to Mrs. Donald Pague.

The second of the series of dances that are being given in the Sugar Addition took place Saturday night at the home of R. W. Clark. A large number were invited and the evening was spent in dancing, the music consisting of a piano and two violins.

At the close of the dancing a delicious luncheon was served, "just like mother used to make," and the guests took their departure at a late hour feeling that they had spent a very delightful evening and that they had been treated to refreshments that were second to none.

Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn is entertaining the Rambler Art Club at her home this afternoon. The program arranged by Mrs. G. S. Bittis will be an informal discussion of the lives and work of the painter Abbot Thayer, and the sculptor, Sterling Calder, whose works attracted so much attention at the San Francisco Exposition.

The G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps gathered at K. of P. hall at twelve o'clock Saturday. Rev. Quigley gave an address on the early years which our brave boys fought in the early days. The second number was a solo by Sherwood Williams, accompanied by his wife. The third number was a recitation by Harry Divins. The fourth was a solo by Comrade Harnon and the fifth and concluding number was a solo by Sherwood Williams, again accompanied by his wife. Dinner was then served and was greatly enjoyed by those present. A 25-cent dinner the fire and drum corps gave a number of selections, after which the Relief Corps had their regular meeting.

"When Greek Meets Greek." The expression, "When Greek meets Greek," slightly altered, is derived from the line, "When Greeks joined Greeks, then was the tug of war." The quotation is from the drama of "Alexander the Great," by Nathaniel Lee (1630-1682), and refers to the stubborn resistance offered by the cities of Greece to Philip and Alexander of Macedon.

Royal Neighbor Circle will not hold their regular business meeting this Friday, owing to the Royal Neighbor social to be held in the K. P. hall that evening, February 24. All members of the lodge are asked to come out for a good time, bringing their children and friends.

Mrs. E. Jacobson was hostess at a bridge party Friday night at her home on Greenwood street. At the conclusion of the game the hostess served a dainty luncheon that was much enjoyed and awarded a prize for high score to Mrs. Nellie Spencer, and a consolation prize to Mrs. G. Kerr.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft gave a delightful surprise party on Mrs. Nabel Thompson, February 20, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in games and music. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mrs. M. J. Cole, Mrs. J. W. Cole, Mrs. A. L. Cole, Mrs. J. B. Cole, Mrs. J. C. Cole, Mrs. J. D. Cole, Mrs. J. E. Cole, Mrs. J. F.
