Among the pretty parties of the pre-Lenten season were the two bridge afternoons at which Mrs. Ray Murphy and Mrs. Donald M. Pague were hostesses on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

The first afternoon seven tables were arranged for bridge. Mrs. Margaret Anson winning high honors, and Mrs. W. G. Sawyer second. On Tuesday eleven tables were laid for bridge. Mrs. T. J. Soroggin receiving high score, while second honors fell to Mrs. Frank Ralston. At the tea hour, additional guests were entertained.

Baskets of pink, sweet peas and greenery added to the attractiveness of the Murphy home, while the color scheme of pink and green was appropriately used in the other appointments.

The two hostesses were assisted on Monday afternoon by Mrs. R. L. Pouch, Mrs. Charles H. Reynolds and Miss Helen McDonald. On Tuesday afternoon those assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Harry A. Zarwick, Mrs. Dwight H. Jesse, Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Miss Helen McDonald.

The Women of Mooseheart Legion will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Crandall in Old Town tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

One of the biggest society events of the season occurred last night, the occasion being the first annual benefit ball of the Union-Wallowa County Shrine club. The Rex Hall was the scene of the festivities and early in the evening guests began to arrive, many of them coming from out of town, both Union and Wallowa counties being well represented.

The larger part of the evening was spent in dancing to the delightful music furnished by the Staro orchestra. The floor was in splendid shape and was crowded with joyous dancers all during the evening.

At the close of the dancing the guests were served with refreshments consisting of punch, sandwiches and coffee.

This is the first annual ball presented by the shrines and its success was all that could be hoped for. The guests were delighted with the occasion and were united in their praise of the efficient management and arrangement.

An installation of officers will be held at the meeting of Chapter I. P. E. O., to be held Friday, March 3, at the home of Mrs. George Palmer. All members are urged to be there by two thirty o'clock as several other important business matters will be before the meeting.

The Eastern Star Social Club was entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. W. Parsons. The afternoon was spent in playing "900." Mrs. Peter McDonald winning high honors for the day. At the close of the card session the hostess served a dainty luncheon, and the guests took their departure, feeling they had spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

The Thursday Five Hundred Club will be entertained tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. B. J. McKay, on 1065 Seventh street.

The Kaffee Klatch meeting to have been held Friday afternoon has been postponed until the following Friday, on account of the illness of Mrs. A. J. Richardson. Mrs. John Tieson and Mrs. H. K. O'Brien will be joint hostesses.

Roman Hall was the scene of much activity Sunday afternoon and evening, the occasion being the banquet by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in honor of the Sunday school teachers and the wives of the brotherhood members. It took the greater part of the men's time in the afternoon to arrange the decorations and tables.

The cooking was under direction of A. E. Pryke. The tables were arranged in a U shape, tastefully decorated with daffodils, place cards and clusters of carnations, all being in harmony with the flowers.

At five thirty the dishes commenced to clutter and the electric lights were extinguished and the lady guests descended to the lower hall in the shade of the candlelight to receive an agreeable surprise.

The menu consisted of oyster cocktails, soup, roast veal, mashed potatoes, green peas, salad, celery, apple pie a la mode, decorated with tiny American flags, and coffee.

The program was in charge of Professor A. C. Hampton, director of the brotherhood and chairman of the evening. He faced his audience across the table and deluged it with interesting talk, scintillating with praise and compliments for the teachers. He introduced the speakers, who were Mrs. Susanne Deal, who gave a heart to heart talk on the primary work in the Sunday school; Mr. Pryke who gave a very interesting talk on the possibilities of a Junior Brotherhood; Mrs. Harriet McDonald, giving a very delightful talk, her address being confined to adults in the Sunday school and the Bible class, giving a short history of its foundation and accomplishments; and Reverend J. W. Gunn, who delivered the closing address.

The guests departed vociferous in their praise of the delightful banquet and entertainment given them by the brotherhood.

A type of entertainment that is scarce has never heard before is slated for either the 16th or 17th of March, when Salvi, the world-famous harpist, will give a concert in this city under auspices of the Neighborhood Club. Salvi is of such a type that he is recognized the world-over as the peer of harpists, and the story that tells his progress in that line is the one coming from Salt Lake, where he will make his second appearance. An open date, and the geographical location of La Grande are the two reasons why he can be brought here.

With an artist of that caliber scheduled La Grande should feel itself favored. He makes no other Eastern Oregon stop.

The Greenwood Parent-Teacher Association will hold their regular meeting on Friday afternoon at two thirty o'clock.

The meeting of the Lucky Thirteen has been postponed indefinitely owing to the illness of Mrs. A. L. Richardson. The meeting was to have been tomorrow.

The Girls Friendly Society Mardi Gras held in Honan Hall last Saturday evening was declared a complete success by all those attending and the crowd was one of the largest ever assembling in the hall. "Oh, but we had a good time" is the way one member of the younger set expressed herself and her spirit was voiced by others who expressed themselves, while the smiles on the faces of the many, both young and old, and the reluctance to see the evening come to an end showed that this spirit was universal.

There was a merry-go-round, dancing, fortune telling and many other attractions. A clever "Cat street" under the direction of Miss Francis Binney, followed by some very charming little girls who danced "Bereza," under the supervision of Miss Russell. Later ten beautiful fairies, beautifully costumed, led by Edna Maguire, more than delighted the audience, but the Scotsman and Scottish lassies brought down the house when they presented "Scotland's Schottische."

Ten pretty colonial lassies gave two charming dance numbers—one a "Patriotic Dance," and one a minuet. A Mardi Gras program is never complete without its clowns. These were furnished by La Grande's Y. M. C. A. and they did themselves proud throughout the evening. Last, but not least, Dorothy Crouse fascinated all with a ballad.

The girls and Mrs. Robert Pratt, who directs the local branch of the G. F. S., today expressed their thanks to the Misses Binney, James Ryllin, Bennett, Rhee and McLeod, the teachers who so ably assisted in making the carnival a success.

The G. F. S. put on the Mardi Gras as an experiment. Hereafter it will be an annual event as their own particular stunt for material aid in social service work.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood will not meet this evening as was scheduled, but will meet on Wednesday evening, March 8, at the home of Herbert Hanna, Robert Eakin being the speaker of the evening.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cleaver was the scene of a very delightful entertainment last night. The occasion was the regular meeting of the Young Women's Educational Society.

Mrs. Cleaver, with the aid of Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Otis Palmer, Mrs. Bolling and Miss Elliott, was in charge of the program and hostess of the evening.

A patriotic program was the feature of the evening, the first entertainment being the stately minuet rendered by some high school girls. Mr. Cleaver then gave two delightful recitations, "In 1492" and "When Sue and Ma Entertained."

The remainder of the evening was spent in observing a social hour and playing games. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be held two weeks from Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Short.

GRANGE MEETS IN NEW HALL

TELECAST, Mar. 1.—The meeting of Telecast Grange was held Saturday morning in the new hall, this being the first time the hall was used for one of the semi-monthly meetings, which are held the second and fourth Saturdays of each month. The hall is warm and cozy and the grange expects to build an addition and do some refinishing before formally dedicating the hall. Work will begin as soon as the weather permits. The officers elected for this year are: D. H. Snider, master; B. G. Wolf, overseer; M. G. Church, lecturer; L. Parks, assistant lecturer; George Ackley, steward; Robert Snider, assistant steward; Mrs. D. H. Snider, chaplain; Henry Low, treasurer; Mabel Wolf, secretary; Elsie Hodge, link, gate-keeper; Miss Lura Wilson, Gays; Mrs. Hanna Anson, Pomona; Mrs. Marjorie Hyatt, Flora; Miss Emma Stratton, hall assistant steward; Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Anson, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Ackley, Mrs. Church, home economics committee; Edna Bell, Geo. Ackley, W. Baxter, finance committee; Henry Low, Robert Briggs, executive committee.

Elephant's Reflective Powers.
John Burrows says that while an elephant may not think, he at least reflects. He tries to prove this the fact that the elephant covers himself with mud to keep insects from biting, and uses branches like a fan to brush flies away from him.
