INTERMOUNTAIN LEAGUE MEETS

Plans for Baseball Next Summer Discussed Here Sunday; Directors Elected.

The Intermountain Baseball League met in the Elks' Temple Sunday afternoon for the purpose of arranging the 1922 schedule and making other arrangements for the summer.

Several towns were represented by delegates and the business went through in an agreeable manner to all. The schedule was arranged and the by-laws and rules to govern this year's league were adopted.

Judge Crawford was elected as one director and Guy Patten, of Elgin, was the other director selected. These two men will appoint the third man on the board of directors. Their duties will be to settle all disputes concerning the operation of the league and to settle all grievances that may come up.

It was agreed that each team will put up a sum of $250.00 in guarantee that they will comply with all the rules and finish playing the season. In case any team fails to live up to their agreement the forfeited sum will be given to the 1922 champions.

No player will be permitted to play on any other team but his own without the written consent of his manager. "Everything looks rosy for a very successful season," say the delegates.

WAKEGAN, Ill., Mar. 8.—The case of Governor Len Small, charged with conspiracy to embezzle state funds, had another day in court Monday and took another adjournment, this time until April 3, four weeks from Monday. The governor, asked for 60 days' delay, pleading his presence is needed at Springfield to get the state road building program for 1922 under way.

A half day of argument ended in Judge Clair C. Edwards serving notice on lawyers for state and defense that there will be no more delays and that they must be prepared to begin selecting a jury four weeks from Monday.

Vernon Curtis, who was confined to his home by quarantine when Governor Small was arraigned last month, was present in court Monday and entered a plea of not guilty. The state asked that his case be set for trial immediately after that of the governor.

BLUE MOUNTAIN GARAGE IS OPEN

Where the Inland Motor company once held forth at Fourth and Adams there is now open for business the Blue Mountain Garage, fitted with all the modern garage machinery, service station and filling apparatus will have Harrison, the sole proprietor on the job every minute looking after his trade.

In speaking of the Blue Mountain Garage as it exists today, Mr. Harrison said: "I am confident there is need for a garage in this end of the city and confident of an excellent business when once we get squared away to take care of it. The large number of home cars that need attention already is filling our shops and the tourists, when they start this summer, will greatly increase the business. I look for a splendid business for all garages the coming season."
