The program of the meeting of the Neighborhood Club Tuesday afternoon was on the subject of "Italian Literature." Mrs. John S. Hodgins having charge of the afternoon with Miss Leta Kiddle and Mrs. J. D. Smith assisting.

The members declared that the afternoon's entertainment was one of the best and most instructive that have been arranged in recent months.

The Italian note was carried out in the musical numbers as well as in the papers read. Mrs. Ira Aldrich rendered a vocal selection, "Ernani," by Verdi, with Miss Ruth Quigley accompanying her. Mrs. Lee Reynolds rendered several numbers on the piano. Those chosen as fitting in with the day's program were: "Sonata, Second and Third Movement," by Baldassare Galuppi, and "Shepherd's Song," from "Wm. Tell," by Rossini.

Choosing as her subject "Italian Literature," Mrs. Hodgins gave her audience in an interesting manner a general review of Italian literature. Her paper covered a broad scope and showed much study of the subject she had chosen for her part of the program.

Miss Kiddle discussed Virgil's "Aeneid," one of the first masterpieces of literature produced in sunny Italy. "I Promessi Sposi," by Alessandro Manzoni, was chosen for a detailed book review by Mrs. J. D. Smith.

The Westminster Guild met at the home of Mrs. John Schroeder Monday evening in Island City. The evening's hostesses were Mrs. Paul Cook and Mrs. Schroeder. Twenty-one members drove to the Schroeder home for the meeting.

At the business meeting it was reported that the cooked food sale held recently netted the Guild over $65 and that this was more than enough to make the society's quota of $200 for mission work this year.

Miss Ruth Penchin led the devotional, following the business session. The program rendered was in charge of Miss Gertrude East and Mrs. Alvah Durvae.

The hostesses served elaborate refreshments before the happy evening came to a close.

Percy C. Culbertson and Miss Lilla Crowe were married at the Methodist parsonage at noon Tuesday by Rev. G. H. Quigley. Mr. Culbertson has been a resident of La Grande only a few weeks and Miss Crowe has been employed in the telephone office.

Mrs. E. Jacobson, 108 Greenwood, entertained Monday evening at her home, March 5 being her birthday anniversary. Five hundred was played. Mrs. B. W. Hughes taking the first prize and Mrs. G. R. Kerr winning second. After a social hour a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. Claude Mackey, Mrs. Chas. Biddingsfield, Mrs. W. D. McDonald, Mrs. B. W. Hughes, Mrs. Ross Eaton, Mrs. Nellie Spencer, Mrs. G. R. Kerr and Mrs. Jacobson.

The Kaffee Klatch will meet at the home of Mrs. John Theisen Friday afternoon. Mrs. Howard K. O'Brien will be joint hostess with Mrs. Theisen.

The meeting of the Central School Parent-Teachers' Association will be held on Friday, March 24, instead of March 12, as was formerly planned.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kitchen will entertain the Loyal Men and Women's class at their home Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The Knights of Pythias lodge put fourteen men through the first initiation Monday evening, the fourteen now being pages. Two more initiations will be undergone before they will receive the title of knight.

The initiation was in connection with the regular business meeting. A large number was in attendance, everyone, even those who rode the goat, being highly satisfied with the evening.

With expression of deep regret over conditions that arise to part friends and neighbors, about thirty ladies gathered at the home of W. D. Long and wife on Fourth street yesterday afternoon to enjoy the last meeting of the kind under the hospitable roof of that household. Mr. and Mrs. Long will remove to Portland the last of the week, where they have purchased a home in Rose City Park and will reside there in the future. They have resided in La Grande for many years and enjoy the confidence and friendship of the community. Mr. Long has been connected with the O.-W. railroad at this division.

The afternoon was spent most pleasantly by all present, the guests having prepared the luncheon, thus making the occasion a complete and happy surprise to Mrs. Long.

Mrs. George T. Cochran will entertain the Thursday Bridge Club tomorrow afternoon at her home at 1022 Second street.

The Greenwood Parent-Teachers' Association met in the Greenwood school Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting was well attended and the majority of the afternoon was spent in the regular routine business. Then a short program by the children was presented and the members partook of a delightful hot lunch prepared by the high school cafeteria.

"TWO DAYS' JUNE"

The next meeting will be held on the last Friday in March.

The meeting of the Lucky Thirteen Club has been postponed until the evening of March 23. Mrs. W. G. Sawyer will entertain the club at this time at her home on Main street.

The Christian Endeavor of the Christian and Presbyterian churches held a joint rally at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Miss Edith Pickett was in charge of the evening's program.

The first part of the evening was spent in singing convention songs and then Miss Bertha Nelson and Miss Florence Nelson gave interesting talks concerning the business methods of the Christian Endeavor as taken up at the Echo Convention Rally, held at Salem, February 16 to 19.

Miss Hilda Anderson told something of the inspiration derived from the convention.

The Greenwood Mothers League met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Kochensperger, at 1512 T avenue. Relief work for several families was discussed and assistance readily extended in the form of work, food and clothing to families in unfortunate circumstances. The ladies are now engaged in making a couch cover for the rest room at the Greenwood school. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. O. Cullen.

The Greenwood district are cordially invited to attend.

A delightful surprise party was given March 3 at the home of Lloyd Yeek in honor of his twelfth birthday. Games were played and an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served. Those who gathered to wish the young host many happy returns of the day included Messrs. Vance Day, Claude Rayburn, Ernest Rayburn, Max Stark, Sterling Stark and Leslie Huff.

Mrs. Paul Blair entertained at "500" at her home Monday evening in honor of Mrs. E. R. Ringo's birthday. A number of guests were present and the hostess presented Mrs. Ringo with a beautiful bouquet composed of sweet peas and baby wreath.

Mrs. Oscar Berger won high honors in the "500" session and Mrs. Ward Fowler won consolation prize.

The remainder of the evening was spent in observing a social hour and a short musical program was delightfully rendered. The hostess served a delicious luncheon to the guests who then departed for their homes. A very pleasant evening was reported by all.
