DE MILLE FILM HAS A BRILLIANT CAST

A breath-taking story and a brilliant cast are the combination promised in William De Mille's latest picture, "Midsommer Madness," coming to the Arcade Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday.

The story was adapted from Cosmo Hamilton's novel, "His Friend and His Wife." Mr. Hamilton is well known as the author of "Scandal," "The Blindness of Virtue," and many other successful plays and stories.

The plot centers around two young married couples who are close friends. One of the wives is so lavish with the outward expression of her love for her husband that he becomes a bit tired of her. Now that she is so completely won, he longs for new fields to conquer. His friend's wife, on the other hand, is blessed with a husband who is more interested in business than in her; she craves romance. So the over-loved husband and his friend's under-loved wife are attracted to each other. In a moment of folly, they commit an indiscretion that nearly ruins four lives.

The cast of "Midsommer Madness" includes such sterling screen players as Lois Wilson, Jack Holt, Lila Lee and Conrad Nagel. The picture has been magnificently produced and abounds in moments of unusual dramatic strength.

AT SHERIDAN'S—LAST DAY

Lois Wilson, leading woman in the three notable William DeMille productions, "Midsommer Madness," "What Every Woman Knows," and "The Lost Romance," plays the leading woman's role opposite Wallace Reid in his latest Paramount picture, "The Hell Diggers."

This is not Miss Whelan's first appearance with the popular "Walby." She will be recalled as Virginia MacMurrin, daughter of the motor truck manufacturer in "What's Your Hurr?" The remainder of the cast is composed of several players noted for their screen achievements. The role of John Wade is interpreted by Alexander Brown, famous both on stage and screen. Other important character roles are portrayed by Frank Leigh, Lucien Littlefield, Clarence Geldart and Buddy Post. The last named is one of the biggest men on the screen, measuring six feet, and he provides the comedy relief in the new production. Both the original story and the scenario were written by Byron Morgan, the author of the series of automobile stories in which Mr. Reid has starred and the last of which was "Too Much Speed." The story centers around the big dredges which are employed to dig gold ore in Northern California and which, because of their colossal size, are known as "Hell Diggers." Frank Whelan, who has handled the major plans for Mr. Reid in his last two productions, directed. Also showing a comedy.
