STAR CAST, STORY OF "SHAM" OF HIGH STANDARD.

That Paramount pictures are living up to their slogan "clever stars in good stories with perfect supporting casts," is proved by "Sham," an Ethel Clayton stellar vehicle which opens at the Sherry theatre for two days beginning today.

"It has been some time," said Manager Trull of the playhouse in discussing the forthcoming feature today, "since I have been able to afford my patrons such a remarkable entertainment combination as 'Sham.' To say that the play written by Elmer Harris and Geraldine Bonner is a good starter as both are famous and successful playwrights. And the star, Ethel Clayton, is again a queen of comedienne as a 'gentle grafter' who 'forgets' to pay her bills and gets in no end of trouble as a consequence.

Rounding out this excellent film is a really remarkable cast. Walter Hiers is comical as usual as a fat-waddy—and disappointed lover. Theodore Roberts is a bluff and hearty old millionaire while Sylvia Ashton and Helen Dunbar who have appeared in countless 'mother roles' are splendid as the selfish aunts of the debt-ridden Katherine. Other players of equal merit include Carrie Clark Ward, Arthur Cayre, Clyde Filmore and Earnest Burnham. From start to finish 'Sham' is well-rounded and complete to the most inconspicuous 'extra.' It is an entertainment of exceptional merit."

A very clever comedy entitled "Why Get Married?" is also being shown.

"FOOL'S PARADISE" TO BE SHOWN.

The forthcoming presentation at the Arcade Theatre starting Thursday at Cecil B. DeMille's superb Paramount production of "Fool's Paradise," is awaited with interest by all admirers of Mr. DeMille. It is said he has outdone all his previous productions in this stirring story of human love, tragedy and thrill. Dorothy Dalton, Mildred Harris, Conrad Nagel, Theodore Kosloff, John Davidson and Julia

"MIDSUMMER MADNESS" PARAMOUNT SPECIAL AT ARCADE THEATRE.

William DeMille has handled a delicate theme in a skillful and delightful manner, in his latest production for Paramount, "Midsummer Madness."

ness," at the Arcade Theatre today and Wednesday.

Although the story is of a type entirely different from the producer's two most recent pictures, "The Prince Chap" and "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," it bears the same artistic quality which has characterized all pictures produced under Mr. de Mille's direction.

The story, which is based on Cosmo Hamilton's late novel, "His Friend and His Wife," introduces two young married couples who have been lifelong friends. In one family the wife not receiving the little attentions for which every young wife yearns, is hungry for romance, and in the other, the husband is surfeited by his wife's attentions, and begins to long for new conquests. The inevitable romance between the romantic wife and the over-loyal husband develops when the other husband and wife both happen to be out of town at the same time, and affairs reach a critical point. The miscreants awaken to a full sense of the wrong they are doing to innocent people. After a highly emotional climax all ends happily.

The cast is rich in screen talent and includes Jack Holt, Conrad Nagel, Lois Wilson, Lila Lee, Betty Francisco and Claire McDowell.
