GOLDWYN PRODUCES NEW LEROY SCOTT MELODRAMA

When the cast for the new Goldwyn production of Leroy Scott's new melodrama of the underworld, "The Night Rose," was assembled, a group of leading men and women were given the principal parts. All of them have been featured alone in former pictures; and now they may be seen together in the photoplay today only at the Sherry Theatre.

Lon Chaney has been regarded as the most powerful character actor of the screen to-day; and in "The Night Rose," he impersonates a king of the underworld in commanding fashion. Leatrice Joy and Cullen Landis are the victims of the villain's machinations, while John Powers is the honest district attorney who tried to clean up the town. Besides these sterling players, Betty Schade, Elythe Chapman, Maurice B. Evans, Mary Warren and Richard Tucker have important roles.

The photoplay was directed by Wallace Worley, who also directed Mr. Chaney's masterly conceived character of Billhard in "The Penalty." The author of "The Night Rose," Leroy Scott, was formerly a newspaper man and then a social worker. He has come into personal contact with numerous underworld characters and knows the psychology of the man who has lost all fear of the law in carrying out of his crimes.

One of the most magnificent ball room scenes ever staged was screened for "The Night Rose." It is not only picturesque, but also the background for the climax of the story. The last episode of "Fighting Fate" is also being shown.

CECIL R. DEMILLE'S "FOOL'S PARADISE" IS DELIGHTFUL

Delightful in every respect, Cecil R. Demille's latest Paramount picture production, "Fool's Paradise," was presented with unqualified success at the Arcade Theatre yesterday. Filmed with careful attention to detail, this is unquestionably one of the best productions ever made by Mr. Demille and it is no less pretentious than "The Affairs of Anatol," "Forbidden Fruit" or any of its recent predecessors. Mr. Demille's thorough artistry as producer is seen in every "shot" of this captivating screen romance. The story suggested by Leonora Merwick's "The Laurels and the Lady," was adapted with taste and skill by Beulah Marie Dix and Sada Cowan. The theme is one of intense heart appeal and the various scenes, which take one from France to Mexico and thence to Siam, with their kaleidoscopic views, are beautiful in the extreme. The leading roles are excellently portrayed by Dorothy Dalton, Mildred Harris, Conrad Nagel, Theodore Kosloff, John Davidson and Julia Faye. The picture is one that will please every lover of the beautiful, lofty and artistic in the silent drama, and it leaves little to be desired by the most blasé picture fan.

"Fool's Paradise" will continue as the attraction at the Arcade Theatre today and Saturday.

NELL SHIPMAN IN BIG OUTDOOR THRILLER WILL OPEN SATURDAY AT STAR

The biggest outdoor picture of the year, Nell Shipman in "The Girl from God's Country" will show at the Star Theatre Saturday and Sunday.

Nell Shipman is star, author and director of this picture, and her work in two entirely different roles affords the dramatic treat of the decade in motion pictures. Thrilling scenes galore have been provided in this picture, and the sensational battle in airplanes 6,000 feet in the air will offer something new in the melodramatic type of picture. Many of the scenes were taken in the Canadian North Woods, where beautiful snow effects provide unusual backgrounds.

The excellent cast, headed by Nell Shipman includes Boyd Irwin, Edward Burns, Al W. Filson, George Berrell, Walt Whitman, C. K. Van Acker, Lilian Leighton, L. M. Wells, Mills Davent and others.

Millionaire Office Boy Is Fired; Job Goes to Worthy Lad

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Mar. 17.—Jimmy Sanford, son of the millionaire turpentine, William Sanford, has lost his $14 a week office boy job with a local typewriter manufacturing company.

"I'm fired because they wanted to give the job to somebody that needed the money," Jimmy explained Tuesday. Once more Jimmy is on the hunt for a job and in the meantime is forced to fall back on his $2000 allowance to pay his bills at an expensive hotel, where he continues to live. By the terms of his father's will, he must work two years before he can come into his $250,000 inheritance.

Advice that Col. Advice is like snow; the softer it falls, the longer it dwells upon and the deeper it stalks into the mind—Coleridge.

NEW STYLES IN TOMBSTONES

CHICAGO, Mar. 17.—Styles in tombstones change as well as gayer fashions, and even the short history of America has witnessed profound changes in what dealers in monuments like to call memorial art. The slate slabs, surmounted by round, chiseled faces or grimly grinning skulls, crudely carved, which still mark the graves of the Pilgrim elders in Granary Burying Ground at Boston, the cemetery at Plymouth, and in other old New England graveyards, are in austere contrast to the lofty obelisks and huge sarcophagi of the last century which are seen in more pretentious cemeteries. Tombstones of today are of neither type, according to H. C. Whitaker of the Monumental News, Madison, Wis.

Tombstones erected between 1800 and 1875, Mr. Whitaker says, were imposing in size, but whatever dignity they had was often marred by the ridiculous verses inscribed on them. Such verses are no longer in vogue, remarks Mr. Whitaker, who added that the taste developed in recent years demands pretentious stones in favor of small tombstones of exact proportions and plain lettering.

No Compromised Freedom

—Ireland could have had a compromised freedom 700 years ago, but halfway freedom would not do. The same is true of clothes. Half-way value won't do. It is expensive. Cheap clothes are costly because they do not wear.

—Adler Collegian clothes are made to the standard you demand. When their long-wearing value is considered they are far less expensive than clothes whose first cost is perhaps a few dollars less.

—Our new line is ready, including the latest styles, weaves and colors.

—It will pay you to wear them.
