St. Peter's Episcopal Church.—Corner Fourth street and O Avenue. March 19th is the 3rd Sunday in Lent. Only three more Sundays remain until Easter. Keep in mind that we are in training so that the church shall bear worthy witness to the Resurrection. We should neglect no service which we can, by self-denial and effort, attend. There will be the usual regular services next Sunday. Our special feature to be noted by Brotherhood men is that their corporate communion is at the early service at 8 a. m. For those anticipating confirmation there will be instructions at 4 p. m. Sunday and 4:15 p. m. Thursday. The sermon topic Sunday morning will be "Our Birthright in the Commonwealth of God." On Monday evening at 8:00 in Hall the regular Brotherhood fellowship meeting will be held. Mr. Walter MacPherson, the traveling secretary, will be with the men at this meeting. All are invited.—John W. Gunn, Rector.

The First Methodist Episcopal Church.—Rev. R. C. Edgington of Helena, Montana, will be the preacher in the forenoon service. He will deliver a sermon worth hearing. The pastor will preach in the Gospel service at the evening hour on "The River of Life." Special music by the chorus under the direction of Mrs. Williams. It is an extra fine piece of music. You are invited to any and all of the services.—G. H. Quigley, Minister.

Christian Church.—Our Pre-Easter Campaign is on. Last Sunday was "Every Member Present Day," and there was a splendid response on the part of the membership. Tomorrow will be "Whole Family Day," and from all promises, it is going to be a great day. We are asking that every member of the congregation have the whole family to which the member belongs at the morning service. You will remember that we said last week that we wanted 200 present at the Bible school. Well, we had 190 of them there, but we are going to have 225 tomorrow. That class that said they were going to grow to 150 is certainly moving along. Bible school opens at 9:45, preaching service at 11:00 and 7:30. All Christian Envoys at 6:30. "Let's Go."—O. W. Jones, Minister.

First Baptist Church.—Sunday school at 10 a. m., G. B. Hogan, superintendent. We want a full attendance of the Sunday school to hear plans for Easter. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. Subject, "Individual Work for Individuals." Mrs. Frank S. Jester, director of music, has arranged a good program by the large choir for both morning and evening. Rev. R. C. Edgington of Helena, Mont., Superintendent of Christian Hospitals for the Northwest, will preach at the evening hour. His will be a gospel sermon. He will mention what the protestant churches are doing in hospitals for the sick. W. B. Hinson, D. D., of Portland, will preach at the Baptist church next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and at 7:30 p. m. Dr. Hinson is vice-president of the American Baptist Home Missionary Society of New York. He is one of the greatest preachers in the Baptist denomination and is said to be one of the most popular speakers on the Pacific Coast.

He will be here at a time when all can hear him.—A. R. Sitton, Minister.

First Presbyterian Church.—Sunday school at 9:45. Regular services at 11:00 and 7:30. Rev. Wm. Baird of Baker will speak both morning and evening. Young People's meeting at 6:30.

Just Thirty Years Ago in the Grande Ronde Valley

A birthday dinner was given in honor of Robert H. Palmers' eightieth birthday Friday at the residence of one of his daughters, Mrs. B. W. Grandy. There were present on that occasion nine persons whose age aggregated 710 years, or nearly an average of 79 years each, and it may be doubted if a merrier lot of elderly people were ever assembled together. The names and ages of those people were: Hon. John H. Stevens, 86; John Graham, 82; B. P. Patterson, 81; Robert H. Palmer, 80; Mrs. Thos. Williamson, 78; Mrs. Robert Palmer, 78; Mrs. B. P. Patterson, 76; Mrs. J. H. Stevens, 75 and Green Arnold, 74.

The other guests present were W. J. Snodgrass, Jasper H. Stevens, Mrs. Hannah Rogers, Mrs. J. M. Berry, Mrs. J. C. Clark, Mrs. Frank Graham, Mrs. W. D. Grandy and children, Mrs. Fred Newton, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harding.

The furniture firm of Murphy, Stuckell and Co., has received three carloads of carpets and furniture for the Foley hotel.

The newly elected city officials were serenaded by the opera house band Monday evening, and acknowledged the same with appropriate speeches.

The Grande Ronde Lumber company are busy with their annual log drive of 10,000,000 feet of logs, and will wind up the job about Monday.

The La Grande rod and gun club received this week six pairs of Mountain pheasants from the Williamson valley. The cost was $15 per pair and the birds were turned loose in the valley.

A big slide occurred four miles this side of Elgin Saturday, covering the track with a large mass of snow and earth. A force of men have been employed during the week to clear the obstruction. In the meantime a transfer of mail and passengers has been made by the use of handcars at the Elgin end.

The west bound passenger train struck a slide above Pleasant valley which threw the engine and all the coaches from the track. No one was injured in the loss.

At the time of going to press arrangements were nearly completed for the construction of a row of five brick buildings from the Ralston building west, with a total frontage of one hundred and fifty feet.

A plan to raise a subsidy fund of $100,000 for the purpose of inducing the location and establishment of manufacturing enterprises in La Grande has been prepared by a committee appointed by the chamber of commerce.

Last Tuesday John Anthony, of the bakery and confectionery establishment purchased from H. Wilbey the thirty foot lot just west of the Ralston building and will erect thereon a two-story brick building of thirty feet frontage and two stories depth.

There was considerable interest manifested in the city election Monday, but still there was hardly the same amount of hustling for votes that has been witnessed in former municipal elections. That there was not a full vote-out is evidenced by the total number of votes cast, 640, which is one vote less than was cast in last year's election. S. R. Reeves, candidate for mayor, "ran like a scared wolf," and received a majority far in excess of the most sanguine expectations. The following men were elected to the council: David Bay, S. R. Haworth, and J. D. McKernan.
