TRACK MEN ARE WORKING OUT

Fifty Men in Squad and Some Good Material Is Being Developed At High School.

For three days now the high school track squad has been turning out about fifty strong and have been trotting over the surrounding country and getting into shape in general for the coming track season. With the inter-class track meet coming up on April 8, if weather permits, only three weeks remain to get into shape. Coach Laddell is pleased with the enthusiasm and spirit that has been shown by the track men and, although weak in the mile, expects to have a

BASKETBALL SEASON ENDS

Last Games of Season Scheduled for Tonight; Two Games Are Scheduled.

The closing event on the 1921-22 basketball program will take place in the Y. M. C. A. tonight when the Stoddard Brothers meet the Cougars and the Baker Hi-Y five will try conclusions with the La Grande Hi-Y quintette.

The first game, between the two teams, will commence at 8:15 p. m. and promises to be a ripping exhibition of basketball from whistle to whistle. The local boys are out for revenge, inasmuch as the Bakerites won from them in a closely contested game at Baker, 23 to 19, the local being beaten only by converted fouls, having shot more field baskets than did their opponents. Kennison, center; Hill and Robertson, forwards; and Whitaker and Trebbe, guards, make up the Baker team.

The Cougars and Stoddards are meeting in a final exhibition game to determine who is the best team. The Stoddards won from the Cougars earlier in the year as a result of a remarkable spurt in the final half, overcoming a large lead, and the Cougars are anxious to win at this time and are confident of leading the Stoddards' goat into their camp this evening.

Both games will be refereed by C. C. Snow and a small admission will be charged.
