MUSIC, NOVELTY AND COMEDY

Are the Feature on the Vaudeville Bill at the Arcade Theatre on Sunday.

The headline offering is The Rathburn Four, a novelty musical act—"Say It With Music"—three talented men and an accomplished female in choice selections of instrumental numbers from popular to jazz. They are all expert musicians and the lovers of music can expect a musical treat.

Model Thompson, "The Black Ace" is a comedian of the black-face variety, who has a good line of wholesome comedy material which he puts over in an able manner.

Kinkade & Kinkade, a laughable offering which will prove amusing to both young and old.

Leonard & Germaine, a nifty pair of dancing wonders will open the show to good advantage and give it a lively start.

An interesting feature picture will be added to this varied program.

offer the greatest picture of the year in Nell Shipman in "The Girl from God's Country."

Miss Shipman is also author and director of "The Girl from God's Country," and critics who have already reviewed this picture have been warm in their praise of her work in this production.

An all-star cast supports Miss Shipman. Such screen celebrities as Boyd Lewis, Edwanda Burns, Al W. Filson, George Berrell, Walt Whitman, C. K. Van Auker, Lillian Leighton, L. M. Wells and Milla Davenport are seen in roles suitable to their talents.

"The Girl from God's Country" will be shown at the Star Theatre today and Sunday only.

SHERRY'S TODAY ONLY.

Old settlers and those interested in the romance and drama of the prairie schooner era will find a feast of entertainment at the Sherry theatre today only. "The Hellhound of the West," a Peoria Production starring "Fearless Dick" Hatton, is one of the swiftest-moving melodramas seen here in a long time.

Catherine Craig puts up a fight against two men who are trying to rob her, and such a fight the screen has seldom seen.

Among the other principals is Willie Mae Carson, the bewitching blonde known throughout the world as "the golden-haired girl with the supine smile." Miss Carson will be remembered as The Lady with the Handkerchief in the Douglas Fairbanks master production "The Three Musketeers." She is now being starred in a series of Northwest stories.

A new "Mutt & Jeff" will also be shown.

AT SHERRY'S SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

Inasmuch as much of the story of "The Woman God Changed" has to do with a tropical island, the company playing the various roles in this splendid Paramount-Cosmopolitan picture which will be displayed at the Sherry theatre for two days beginning tomorrow, was carried to the Bahama Islands, off the coast of Florida, on a specially chartered steamer where for two weeks, Seena Owen and E. K. Lincoln, who are seen as castaways on an island, were kept busy by Director Robert G. Vignola, his cameramen and assistants. The burning and sinking of a steamship following an explosion of ammunition, was faithfully pictured in the casualty (in the picture only) prove quite exciting. Other scenes, notably a remarkable cloud effect, were "shot" with excellent results. "The Woman God Changed" is a beautiful photoplay and fully up to the high standard set by Paramount.

Also showing "Their Dizzy Finish," two-reel Hallroom Boy comedy.

Filled with stirring action, Dorothy Dalton's latest Paramount picture, "Behind Masks," which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Sunday only is one of the strongest photoplays in which she has been seen thus far this season.

This is an entirely different type of picture from most of Miss Dalton's recent vehicles and is featured with dramatic incidents. Miss Dalton has the role of Jeanne Meaurio, a wealthy heiress who seeks someone who will love her for herself alone, and meets with the opposition of her guardian, an unscrupulous adventurer. The plot takes a dramatic turn when Jeanne suddenly finds herself involved in the efforts of two persons to conceal the body of a supposedly murdered man. Captured and taken to a smuggler's cove she throws herself into the sea to escape. Fredrik Voged is the leading man.

A comedy will also be shown.
