AT SHERRYS TODAY, LAST TIME!

One of the most thrilling incidents ever screened is that showing a man wealth driving his motor car over an embankment fifty feet high, resulting not only in his own death, but also that of the man accompanying him. This is only one scene of many almost as striking which make up the Cosmopolitan production of "The Wild Goose," released by Paramount.

The story deals with the love triangle treated from a new and novel standpoint. Diana Manners is the wife of an architect and she becomes infatuated with another man. When Hastings, who is Manners' friend learns that his own wife secretly loves Manners, and that the latter's wife has eloped with the other man, he follows them in his motor car and after forcing the man into his automobile, he deliberately drives over the cliff, thereby serving a double purpose—to give his wife freedom from him and to save the honor of his friend.

Mary McLaren plays the part of the romantic minded Diana, while Holmes E. Herbert is seen as the husband, Joseph Smiley has the role of Hastings, who brings peace to all concerned by slaying himself and the ronder who has been the cause of trouble. Dorothy Bernard has a delightful role and Norman Kerry, a popular player, is seen as the heavy. The picture is based on Gouverneur Morris' story of "The Wild Goose," the sale of which in novel form, was enormous. Comedy showing, "He got it."

"BITS OF LIFE," A NEW TYPE OF PICTURE.

Marshall Neilan's latest feature production, "Bits of Life," which is heralded as a genuine novelty in motion picture entertainment, comes to the Arcade Theatre tomorrow for an engagement of three days.

The new Neilan photoplay, which is released through Associated First National, offers four episodes in a manner which, it is claimed, has never before been attempted on the screen, three of the four scenarios being adaptations of short magazine stories by well known magazine writers.

The initial episode is taken from "The Bad Samaritan," a short dramatic story which appeared in "The Popular Magazine" and written by Thomas McMorrow. The second story is a picturization of Walter Trumbull's tale entitled "The Man Who Heard Everything," which appeared in "Smart Set." The third episode is an adaptation of Hugh Wiley's popular story, "Hop," which originally appeared in the "Saturday Evening Post." For the final episode Mr. Neilan presents his own story, "The Strange Adventure," written especially for this picture.

The four stories are so combined that a continuous theme of great dramatic construction is displayed leading up to a final punch. Although the magazine or short story idea in photoplays has been done before, it is pointed out that the manner in which Mr. Neilan handles the presentation of this idea discloses something entirely novel in the way of entertainment.

The largest cast of prominent players ever assembled in a Neilan production is offered in this picture, including Wesley Barry, Lon Chaney, Noah Beery, Harriet Hammond, Rockcliffe Fellowe, James Bradbury, Fred Burton, Teddy Sampson, Anna May Wong, John Bowers and others of equal popularity.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in La Grande. No La Grande resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary his can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, 1524 Monroe St., La Grande, says: "I conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know from personal experience they are a good reliable remedy for kidney diseases and general physical depression. Whenever I notice any symptoms of kidney trouble coming on a few of Doan's overcome the trouble and act as a tonic to my whole system." (Statement given May 25, 1916). On May 6, 1920, Mrs. Campbell said: "I will always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as I have never found anything to equal them for occasional attacks of kidney complaints. Price one at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Campbell had. Foster-Milburn Co., 219 N. Buffalo, N. Y. Ten pounds of last $1.50 at People's Market. Phone Main 747.

IF— We Lost Your Good Will

If our service station burned down we'd get the insurance.

If burglars stole our cash, we could borrow some.

But if we lost that part of our business called GOOD WILL, we could get it back again only through months, or possibly years, of the hardest kind of work.

That's why we say GOOD WILL is the most valuable thing we own.

Our promptness and thoroughness will show you, if you come in, how much we value your GOOD WILL.

After You Buy— what then?

THE Suit looks good to you in the mirror, the cloth feels all right, it fits well, and the price is fair. So you buy. Then comes the test by which all clothes should be judged. How does it wear? How does your Suit retain its smart lines and trim drape? Because the answer to these questions can be pre-determined, we have made it our policy to feature Collegian Clothes.
