First Methodist Episcopal Church.—There will be a Union meeting Sunday evening in this church attended by all the churches and participated in by all the ministers of the city. Rev. O. W. Jones of the Christian church will be the preacher of the evening. Rousing music by the combined choirs and the congregation will be one of the interesting features. This meeting will be part of the general campaign conducted under the auspices of the Ministerial Association looking to increased interest in church attendance during the closing weeks of the Lenten period. Sunday forenoon service as usual. Sermon theme, "A Soul-Satisfying Revelation of God." Special music by the chorus choir, "Send Out Thy Light." Gounod. Bible school at 9:45 sharp. President Meldrum is a brother of John ("Scotty") Meldrum of this city. You will appreciate the opportunity of hearing this prominent educator of the northwest. The Easter campaign is coming on in fine shape. "Whole Family Day" was a success with the largest attendance of the present minister's meetings. Tomorrow is "Neighbor's Day." We are expecting you to bring your neighbor with you. Bible school at 9:45. I missed my guess for last Sunday on attendance. We had only 190, but there will be as many, or more, for tomorrow. "Let's Go." We join in the evening service at the Methodist Church.—D. W. Jones, Minister.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church.—Corner Fourth street and O avenue. March 26th is the Fourth Sunday in Lent. We have the following services: Holy Communion, 8 a. m.; church school, 9:45; morning prayer and sermon, 11:00; Confirmation lecture, 3 p. m.; and in the evening we join in the Union service at the Methodist church. The object of this union service will be to initiate a movement in town for better church attendance among all religious bodies. We hope that all church people will take the matter up and boost for larger church attendance between now and Easter. Other features of this will be noted in the press and by window cards and bulletins from time to time. The Rev. Dr. Geo. B. Van Waters, Archdeacon of Eastern Oregon, will be speaking in La Grande on Monday of next week, and he will speak at the church at 7:30 Monday evening. Our special topic for the sermon Sunday morning will be "Where the Lines are Drawn." All are invited.—Jos. W. Gunn, Rector.

Starmer, Pastor.

First Baptist Church.—Sunday school at 10 a. m. We are nearing the 100 mark. The morning sermon will be preached by a Salvation Army officer from Portland. The large choir directed by Mrs. Frank S. Jester will furnish the music. Our Young People's Society will visit the young people of the Christian church at 6:30 and hear reports from state convention of Christian Endeavors. At 7:30 there will be baptismal service. At 8:00 p. m. Rev. J. C. Austin of Portland will preach and finish the conference started by Dr. Hinson. He will sing "Come, See Where They Have Laid my Lord." This plan could not be changed for the union meeting, but we will unite in peacemaker services.—A. R. Sifton, Minister.
