

TRAINING TO EAT PROPERLY

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Mar. 27.—Training the Russian in the proper methods of consuming American corn, has now been undertaken by the American Relief Administration.

The distribution of corn to approximately 5,000,000 adults in the Volga valley has begun, the first 8 trainloads of the American gift having reached the famine areas according to address of February 24. One Russian bushel per day, or roughly 14 ounces, is the feeding allowance for adults.

So that they may get to know the possibilities of this new food not only from a nourishing but a palatable point of view, cards containing recipes are being sent to all American Relief Administration inspectors, village relief committees and distribution centers.

The recipes include such typical American dishes as corn mush, corn bread, corn biscuits, corn soup and corn gruel. A warning against eating the corn in the raw state and directions for its treatment in case of spoilage are also being issued.

This is the first time the American Relief Administration has distributed food directly to the individual for consumption in his own home. Child-feeding is always conducted en masse, about 2,000,000 Russian children now being fed one balanced meal a day in some 6,000 old kitchens.

FATIMA LOST IN HER SUIT

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Mar. 27.—Another mishap was jotted down in the diary of Princess Fatima, who came to America, bejeweled, last summer and who is now in seclusion, with hardly a cent to her name.

The latest mishap was a judgment for $2000 awarded M. S. Dave, a jeweler, by Supreme Court Justice Finch. The judgment was to cover a promissory note given the jeweler last August.

Meanwhile Stephen Weinberg, formerly secretary to the princess, was having his troubles over purchase of a naval officer's cloak, which he was alleged to have paid for. He went on trial before federal jury. He is also held for removal to Washington on a charge of falsely posing as a naval officer when he introduced the princess to President Harding last September.

Counsel for Weinberg sought to prove that the uniform he wore at various times in the last four years lean people, he said.

was that of a commissioned officer in the United States naval reserve, an organization not connected in any way with the United States navy.

Morris Jacobs, employed by the uniform company, testified, however, that Weinberg had represented himself as a lieutenant-commander in the medical corps of the United States navy.

FORMER SENATOR CAN'T REMARRY

CONCORD, N. H., Mar. 27.—Mrs. Grace H. Hollis authorized through counsel here today in a statement that she had not been divorced from Henry J. Hollis, ex-United States senator, in any proceedings of which she had knowledge or notice. The statement was made after receipt of announcement that the ex-senator was married this week in Italy.

"In December, 1915," the statement said, "Mrs. Hollis obtained a decree of separation which does not give to either party the right to remarry, from the supreme court in Concord, which then had unquestioned jurisdiction.

"The decree was obtained upon the ground of abandonment. In June, 1920, Mr. Hollis filed a bill for divorce in the French courts in Paris and of this proceeding Mrs. Hollis was duly notified. She appeared by counsel and pleaded her rights as an American citizen, and especially those growing out of the decree of New Hampshire, and denied the right of courts in France to grant a divorce.

"By a decree of July 12, 1921, the French courts sustained Mrs. Hollis' position and dismissed the petition. Time for appeal expired March 10, 1922, and no divorce has been granted by the French courts."

Mrs. Hollis also is in ignorance of any steps which Mr. Hollis may have taken in any other European country, and is confident that as an American citizen she is still the wife of the ex-senator. Her lawyers say that no divorce granted by a court of any other country of which Mr. Hollis is not a resident or in proceedings to which she was not a party can have validity in the United States or in any other country recognizing the general principles of international law.

GAMBLING TO BE CENSORED

ATLANTIC CITY, Mar. 27.—The gambling censor probably will be the next feature of Atlantic City beaches.

The bathing inspectors of the past few weeks have gone so far toward clearing up what visitors here have called nuisances that the city fathers believe the newest censor will succeed in ending complaints of gambling which have been reaching the city commission.

Games of chance will be checked in their infancy by the proposed protector of public morals, whose appointment is provided in a city ordinance now pending. He will have authority to test all games, and if he finds any fault or suspicion of fraud he can order them off the beach.

POLITICAL POT BEGINS BOILING

ENTERPRISE, Mar. 27.—The political pot has begun to simmer gently in Wallawa county. It cannot boil very vigorously this year, as there are not enough local offices to fill, and interest in state and national candidates is of secondary nature.

The simmering has come with the announcement of George E. Richards and A. E. Clawson that they will be candidates for the republican nomination for district attorney. Mr. Richards declared himself Tuesday and Mr. Clawson shield his hat into the ring yesterday. It is thought Max Wilson may seek the democratic nomination.

A. W. Schoupp, who was appointed to serve temporarily, expects to remain in office through the May term of the Circuit court, for which there is a heavy docket of state cases. This will carry him well past the primary election and then he probably will resign.

sign. He is not a candidate for the office. W. S. Burleigh, present district attorney, has resigned effective April 1, to retire to his private practice of law.

No candidates have come out yet for the other two offices which the county is to fill this year, county commissioner and member of the state legislature.
