HUCK JONES IN MOUNTED POLICE STORY AND VAUDEVILLE AT ARCADE

This, we believe, is one of the best pictures starring Huck Jones that the Fox forces have turned out in some time. Jones has been placed in a variety of roles. He has been in addition to the conventional Western hero, a minister and a country boob, but here he comes back to a picture which is essentially one of action and which at the same time takes him away from ranches and cowpunching. There is value also in the scenic background which becomes an important factor in the latter part of the picture. A blizzard sequence is realistic and the snow scenes are high class.

The story opens in Scotland where the star is cast as a hard-tolling miner. He is of the "boob" type, and is in love with a girl who does not return his affection, but action, not romance, is the keynote, and the early reels contain acid suspense and excellent photography which a cave-in far below ground is shown. Jones, working amidst mud and rain and heaps of debris, saves himself and his rival in love from death.

Then the action skips to Canada and the story becomes a typical Northwest Mounted Police yarn. Jones is sent on his first assignment which happens to be the apprehension of his old Scottish rival. Another girl becomes involved to supply some more romance, and from then on there is the pursuer and the pursued supplying healthy, vigorous action, not the most vigorous ever seen on the screen, but sufficient for entertainment. The climax takes the form of a flight through a blizzard, which, as stated above, is well-made and convincing.

This feature picture and four acts of vaudeville is the program at the Arcade Theatre today only.

AT SHEPHERD'S—LAST DAY

Thomas Melghan in "White and Unmarried"

Blonde and brunette! That's the title of an old love story of bygone days, but it fits "White and Unmarried," in which Thomas Melghan stars and which will be shown at the Sherry theatre, last times today. Two beautiful women—Jacqueline Logan and Grace Darmond—appear in the leading feminine roles. Miss Logan, a former beauty of the Follies, is dark. Miss Darmond, who has been leading woman for numberless stars, is blonde.

They are so diametrically opposite in type, complexion and stature that they make remarkable contrasts in the picture story.

Mr. Melghan has a role that fits him to perfection. He is a crook who inherits a fortune and then fraternizes with the lawless class he once preyed upon. In the end, of course, he comes out right and the love story winds up satisfactorily.

Tom Forman was the director.

SLIDE BLOCKS STARKEY ROAD

(Special to The Observer)

HILGARD, Mar. 27.—Mrs. and Mrs. Grant Swalberg, newly-weds of La Grande, arrived in Hilgard Saturday afternoon following their marriage. They were entertained at the home of Mrs. Scott Wheatley. After a seven o'clock dinner in Hilgard they took No. 25 for Bend. A number of their new acquaintances saw them off and they were showered liberally with rice thereby receiving a small portion of the demonstration they had escaped in their home town.

Alan Porter arrived on No. 23 Sunday for a day's visit with his aunt, Mrs. Jennie Helverson. Mr. Porter was formerly of La Grande and has returned for the spring and summer months.

Miss Flora Cruikshank of La Grande spent the week-end visiting friends in Hilgard. She arrived Friday evening and returned Sunday evening.

Bob Ross came down from Kamela Tuesday, making the trip on skis. He followed along the county road most of the way, though it is impossible for travel otherwise. Two and a half feet of snow on the level is reported at what is known as the "Smith place."

The Starkey stage was compelled to turn back Tuesday, the regular mail day. A giant slide on what is known as the "Russell grade" obstructed travel and could not be crossed even by saddle horses. Fred Hagley, the mail carrier, made his trip to Hilgard the next day with a pack outfit as sufficient of the slide was removed by that time to let saddle horses through.

J. S. Rose of Starkey arrived in Hilgard about 4 o'clock Tuesday. Though his driver took the train back on account of the slide, Mr. Rose completed his journey on foot and reported the road in no condition for enjoyable hiking as nine miles was some stroll.

Hilgard people enjoyed a very pleasant impromptu dance on Wednesday evening. Though planned on very short notice nearly everyone in the neighborhood attended. Excellent violin music was furnished by J. S. Rose of Starkey and Engineer Martin of Kamela.

The snow has almost entirely disappeared from the south slopes in this vicinity and some horses have been turned out on the range. However grazing will be very poor for at least two weeks as the new grass has not started to grow.

Mrs. Hugh Hulse spent the past week visiting at her old home in Hilgard. She returned to La Grande Thursday morning.

All of the members of the Frank Sanford family have been ill the past week with the flu and it was found necessary to call in a physician on Saturday last, as Mrs. Sanford's condition was quite serious. All are now reported as being much better.

Mrs. Joe Hunter was a La Grande visitor on Monday.

Mrs. Scott Wheatley spent the week-end in La Grande.

Mrs. Joe Young visited La Grande friends on Thursday.

Arthur Cantrell spent Saturday and Sunday in La Grande.

C. E. Bagley, foreman for the Hysalt Bridge Construction company was in Hilgard Tuesday. Mr. Bagley is located at Clilver and expects to open up bridge work at that place in two or three weeks.

Nothing So Good for Cough or Cold, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"Everyone who has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy speaks well of it," writes Edward P. Miller, Abbottstown, Pa. People who once use this preparation are seldom satisfied with any other. It is excellent to allay a cough or break up a cold.—adv.

MRS. ELVA CAULKINS

"I have gained thirty pounds since taking Tanlac and never felt better in my life than I do now. Mother says she hasn't seen me looking so well since I was a girl," said Mrs. Elva Caulkins, 303 Blandina St., Tulsa, N. Y.

"For eighteen long years I suffered from stomach trouble and sluggish liver, and during all that time I hardly knew what a well day was. As I almost starved myself trying to avoid indigestion, I fell off until I was hardly more than a shadow, and was so weak I was barely able to drag myself around the house. As a result of my long suffering I became almost a nervous wreck."

"This was the condition I was in when I started taking Tanlac, but today I am strong and well, feeling and looking like a different person from what I did a short time ago. It is no wonder to me that so many people praise Tanlac to the skies."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Family Drug store and all leading druggists.—Adv.

Mary Forgot Her Tiny Dog; Sends for It

(By Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 25.—Mary Miles Minter's "Sleeve" dog, so-called because it is claimed it can be carried in a woman's sleeve, was shipped to her in Honolulu Wednesday on the liner Matsushita. Mary values her dog at $2200, she says.

The movie star recently sailed from this port to the Hawaiian Islands for a vacation. In her rush to get away last week the actress forgot her dog, and sent a wireless message back to have it sent to her.
