CONSTANCE BINNEY IS CHARMING FACTORY GIRL

"First Love," now showing at the Arcade Theatre, is a gripping story of life and romance among the poor. Typical of those thousands of working young people in every city to whom amusement parks, street car rides and love-making interrupted by vigilant "cops" offer their sole chance for romance.

Miss Binney plays Kathleen O'Donnell, a little factory worker who breaks with her parents because of her lover, one of those much-beper-fumed and mustached parasites with which most cities are infested.

Before she learns of his unworthiness there is started a train of dramatic events that make a simple yet gripping story, a poignant sketch of real human life.

A company of capable people is seen in support of the star. Included are Warner Baxter, George Webb, Betty Schaefer, George Hernandez, Fannie Midgely, Agnes Adams and Maxine Elliott Hicks.

"First Love" and a two-reel comedy is the attraction at the Arcade theatre for today and Wednesday.

SALONIKI IS SHELTER PLACE

(By Associated Press)
SALONIKI, Mar. 27.—Saloniki with its 100,000 population and its 99 minarets gives shelter to more refugees than any other city in the world. Crowded within its narrow and shuttered walls are 40,000 Greek and Macedonian refugees, 20,000 exiles from Russia, and an uncounted number of fugitives from Armenia, the Caucasus and other oppressed countries.

Most of them have a pitiful existence. A crust of black bread and a cup of watery soup daily is all that keeps them from the grave.

The Greek government has not the means to care properly for this great host of indigents. All its money is eaten up by the army in Asia Minor. The charity of America plays a large part in the care of the children, of whom there are many thousands. The American Red Cross is trying to ameliorate the wretched plight of the little ones.

The heart of Saloniki was destroyed by fire in 1917 and most of the city still is a mass of crumbling walls and rubbish heaps. The water and sewage systems were almost wholly destroyed. There are no hotels left. Only the well-to-do have homes. The rest of the population live in huts, tents and in the streets.

Nearly a dozen mosques have been turned into shelters for the homeless. In front of the altars where incense was wont to send its pungent odor heavenward, the boiling soup-pot and homely brazier now hold sway. Two thousand persons eat, sleep and have their being in a single mosque.

Saloniki is no place for a work-liner. The city's streets are packed with pedestrians, merchants, bankers, peddlers, commercial travelers, soldiers, sailors, beggars and money lenders, who make up a perfect melange. This is the busiest mart in the East. It is also the richest. Nowhere in Europe is wealth at once so opulent nor poverty so utterly wretched. The visitor has to fight almost for a place on the street. He battles for a foothold on the only street car line, he storms the restaurant for food, and he has to appeal to the governor-general for a room.

AT SHERRY'S TODAY.

Ruby deRemer, who has the leading feminine role in "The Passionate Pilgrim," the superb Cosmopolitan picture released by Paramount, has been proclaimed the queen of American beauties by Paul Hellen, the celebrated French artist.

Mr. Hellen states that Miss de Remer "is perfection in beauty of feature, coloring and grace." The artist is an authority in this regard and his judgment is regarded as the final word so that when he asserts Miss de Remer to be the most perfect type of American femininity, there is none to dispute the dictum.

Miss de Remer has the role of an invalid heiress in "The Passionate Pilgrim" and during most of the action of the story, she is seated in a wheel chair. But love finally cures her and she finds happiness in the love of a man she has befriended—the role portrayed by Matt Moore. This cast is large and exceptionally brilliant.

Also showing a comedy.

34 vs. 66

Swift's Premium Ham and Swift's Premium Bacon are produced from only the best hogs. Many of the animals we buy do not furnish meat of Premium quality.

Since these are the choice cuts from the best hogs, cured and smoked in the best way, with scientific care and precision, they are naturally in great demand; but these cuts, with the loin from which pork chops come, represent only about 34 per cent of the live animal.

The remaining 66 per cent consists of the cheaper cuts, such as spare ribs, shoulders, trimmings, pigs' feet, lard, etc., and skrinkage in dressing and curing. Shrinkage is equal to one pound in each five, and has no value whatever.

That is why the prices of "Premium" Ham and Bacon and pork loins are higher than the price of the live animal.

Everybody wants them—and yet they are only about one-third of the entire weight. "Premium" Bacon alone is only about 8 per cent.

The great demand for the choicer cuts, and the smaller demand for the cheaper cuts, constitute the reason for the comparatively higher price of the one-third, and the lower price of the other two-thirds. (Some of the lower priced cuts sell at less than the per-pound price of the live animal.)

It is only by utilizing all possible by-products and exercising the utmost skill and efficiency that we are able to average a profit of a fraction of a cent a pound on all our business.

N. B. Some very delicious dishes can be prepared from the cheaper cuts.
