WOMEN RUNNING FOR CONGRESS

A Number of Eastern Matrons Aspire to Congressional Seats This Year.

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Ill., Mar. 29.—The following women are among those running for congress this year: Mrs. Ellen Dunne Davis, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Winnifred Mason Huck, of Chicago; Mrs. Mary Belle Spencer, of Hilltop, Cook County, Ill.; Mrs. Irene Cleveland Buell, of Ashland, Neb.; and Mrs. A. K. Gault, mayor of St. Peter, Minn. The latter two are sisters. The Philadelphia candidate seeking the democratic nomination is a great-granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin, who as a boy exchanged argumentative letters with a friend defending the propriety of educating women and their fitness for education. He explained in his autobiography, however, that he took this advanced stand "perhaps a little for dispute's sake."

Though times have changed the present candidates encounter a surprise sometime, judging from remarks of Mrs. Buell and Mrs. Huck. "It makes me weary to have people expect me to be a freak because I am interested in politics," says Mrs. Buell of Nebraska, who adds, "I'm not always and I was the most domestic of her four daughters." Mrs. Huck, who is the daughter of the late Congressman William E. Mason, in a statement to the Women's Press, replies to a young woman's remark, "The nerve of her going into such a big campaign," with the comment that "to be a good congressman, as she means to be, 'will require even more than nerve.'"

Mrs. Buell, the "most domestic" of her mother's four daughters, has been city prosecutor of Ashland since 1918, though one mayor tried vainly to discharge her when she persisted in prosecuting his brother.

Mrs. Gault, the Minnesota candidate, is Mrs. Buell's sister. The two have filed papers in accordance with an agreement of long standing between the sisters that if one ran for congress the other should do likewise. Mrs. Buell says. Mrs. Buell set the example. The Nebraska woman, who classes herself as a progressive democrat, adds that their father was the first mayor of the municipality of which Mrs. Gault is now mayor, and that politics runs in the family.

Similarly, Mrs. Huck, republican, says that common interests with her father and determination to continue his work led her to file for congressman at large to fill the vacancy created by his death. She says the fact that she is happily married and the mother of four healthy children influenced party leaders to desire her candidacy. Mrs. Huck's supporters say more than 900 down state republican committees have endorsed her.

Mrs. Spencer, who has also filed for congressman at large from Illinois, is a soldier's wife and the mother of two baby girls. She was appointed public guardian of Cook county by Governor Lowden in 1918, and has continued in office to date. She practices law and has had cases in New York, California, Indiana and Kansas. She favors a soldiers' bonus, economy in administration, and "personal liberty in its broader sense."

She says she would vote on the liquor question as the majority of her constituents would, but omits to mention which side she would take.

Mrs. Spencer holds that crime has its source in the development of the child, and therefore she favors higher educational standards with reference to character training.

REFORMS TO BE INSTITUTED

(By Associated Press) MEXICO CITY, Mar. 29.—Reforms in the Mexican constitution designed to eliminate all obstacles to recognition of the Mexican government by foreign powers are proposed in the platform of the Great Liberal Party which has just been revived after years of inactivity.

One of the paragraphs of the constitution which the party would reform is Article 27, which provides for the nationalization of petroleum deposits and which the Mexican Supreme Court pronounced non-retroactive in a decision rendered in September last. Other reforms proposed in the constitution refer to labor, religious freedom and education.

"These fundamental changes will remove automatically all possible obstacles to an immediate recognition of the Mexican government by all foreign powers and will eliminate all pretenses for further revolution," asserted Antonio G. Canalis, for many years a financial agent of the Mexican government in the United States and Europe who has taken active interest in reviving the old party once influential in Mexico. "With these modifications the Mexican constitution will be superior in every respect to the constitution of 1857," Senor Canalis added.

A national convention of the party has been called for next May. Associated with Senator Fernando Iglesias Calderon, head of the party, are former President Eulalia Gutierrez and Alfonso Madero, brother of the late President Madero, besides Senor Canalis. Senator Calderon the party leader, was formerly Mexican financial agent in Washington and London and for many years prominent in politics.

—The other day a friend said to me: "Why should you advertise? You get all the electric business there is."

—We are glad he asked this question. Perhaps you, too, would like to know why. Here is our answer:

—It is not sufficient that we merely give good service, be courteous and make friends.

We want to dispel prejudice and misunderstanding from the minds of the public by continually stating the facts about our business.

—We believe it our duty to let the public know the real nature of our business and the aims and ideals of the men engaged in that business. There is no mystery about it, nothing that we would wish to cover up. Then why not advertise it?

—Like the man on the witness stand we can say: "It's the truth where there is truth and there is nothing but the truth to tell."

PROSPERITY

A state, community or city can never grow faster than her utilities, or extend further than they reach. The prosperity of a city or town, its alertness, its up-to-date methods, its progressiveness, in fact, its very character are reflected directly to the extent that they exist in its utilities. Likewise, show me a city with broken down, unhealthy and restricted utilities and I shall show you a city living in the backwoods of civilization, with no parks, improved streets or alleys; with unkept homes and unimproved public buildings; without civic pride and self-respect, and with a shipshod, shiftless, dozing, indifferent population—a mighty poor and unattractive place to live and do business.
