The Kaffee Klatch was entertained at the home of Mrs. M. B. Donohue, 1703 First street on Friday afternoon, Mrs. P. S. Robinson assisting as hostess. The attendance was very good, four tables being at play, and the rooms were tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. George T. Cochran had high score for the day, winning first prize. At the close of the card session a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses. Everyone reported a delightful afternoon.

The next meeting of the Kaffee Klatch will be held on April 21 at the home of Miss Margaret Anson, assisted by Mrs. A. V. Andrews. The meeting will be held in the evening instead of the afternoon, as is customary.

The L. O. O. M. Minstrels are putting the finishing touches on their minstrel preparatory for the coming Moose Minstrel show to be given in the Arcade Theatre on Tuesday evening. With some of the finest talent in Eastern Oregon to work with, the managers are more than pleased with the prospects for a home talent show of super excellence. The minstrel will be clean, wholesome, mirthful and guaranteed to satisfy the most critical.

The first act will include twenty numbers of short jokes, songs and other high class entertainment. The second act will consist of vaudeville, monologue, pianologue, harjo duets and an original fifteen-minute comedy entitled "Dusty in a Harem." Scotch impersonations and sidewalk conversations will precede the finale, which will be a mirth-producing levee scene.

The fifteen members of the minstrel, eight black and six white and the interlocutor, have received their new costumes and will present a typical southern scene.

Lindsay's orchestra will furnish the music and the management announces that extra seats will be installed in the theatre and accommodations for 700 are assured.

Mrs. A. J. Stange will entertain the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nowland entertained the Thursday "500" club at their home on 1202 N. avenue, Thursday evening. Four tables were in action and Mrs. Elmer Guye won ladies high honors and among the gentlemen Charles Bingner had high score.

At the close of the "500" session the charming hostess served some dainty refreshments. The house was beautifully decorated in spring flowers and presented a very delightful aspect.

The guests, after spending an enjoyable social hour, departed for their homes unanimously acclaiming the evening well spent.

The club will meet two weeks from Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elmer R. Guye, 2116 First street.

The Epworth League will give a basket social in the basement of the Methodist church this evening at 8:00 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited and a good time is expected by all.

The Presbyterian Aid Society will meet with Mrs. W. P. Mohr, 905 Third street Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The past matrons and patrons of Hope Chapter No. 13, O. E. S., will give their first annual dance at the Rex Hall on Eastern Monday, April 17. All Masons and Stars and their families are invited. The dance will be an informal affair and is being eagerly looked forward to.

J. L. Cramer, who is leaving tomorrow evening, will teach his Sunday school class at the M. E. church tomorrow. All members and former members are invited to be present at this session to bid him farewell.

The Guard Team of the W. B. A. pleasantly surprised Mrs. W. D. McDonald at her home Monday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday.

The guests had prepared a dainty three-course luncheon and when all were seated to partake of the dainties, Mrs. M. D. Galagher, commander of the W. B. A., in a few well chosen words presented Mrs. McDonald with a beautiful silver pie knife with the regards of the Guard Team.

After a social hour the guests departed, declaring that the occasion would long be remembered as a very enjoyable afternoon.

The Friday Afternoon "500" Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Claude Leach on 1504 Oak street next Friday afternoon.

The Greenwood Parent-Teachers' Association met Friday, March 31, at the Greenwood school building. Mrs. Green's music pupils furnished a short musical program, after which the regular business meeting was held.

It is planned to give an entertainment at the school house on the evening of April 22. A vote of thanks was given to the city superintendent and to the board of education for giving the North Side schools separate music supervision next year. Mrs. Clegg Green has been chosen to take charge of the music of the Greenwood and Riviera schools.

Mrs. Andrew Hokland was given a great surprise Wednesday by her daughter, Jessie and Hilda, in honor of her birthday, when several of her friends walked in on her.

BUYING FOR OUR 312 STORES ASSURES LOWEST PRICES

Ask your friend if you dare what she thinks of the quality at the J. C. Penney Co. store

A bad bargain—an unsatisfactory purchase—goes home and stays there. It is then the woman asks: "Why did I buy what I bought?"

A well-known magazine writer says: "Often, when shopping, we hesitate in our choice, uncertain as to the quality, and then suddenly make our purchase because the clerk is waiting."

It is evident that our writer-friend has never patronized a J. C. Penney Company store for such an experience could never happen here.

A clerk in our store never "waits"—he keeps busy endeavoring to help the customer to make a selection that not only fits her purse but nicely harmonizes with her own ideas of her actual needs. A customer is never "hurried."

Quality at a price always excels here.

Ask your friend. She knows. She will tell you that quality at our store invariably is the best that you can get for your money anywhere. This has been her experience; it would be yours.

ent were: Messdames Anson, Wade, Bosquet, Perry, Smith, Glenn, McDowell, Kiddie, Zurbick, Halley, Shafer, Hokland, Vandermullen, Spier; the Misses Josie and Hilda Hokland.

The hours were spent in needlework and at an appropriate hour a delicious cafe luncheon was served. With the close of a pleasant afternoon all left for home wishing Mrs. Hokland many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Minnie Grandon arrived from Portland March 21st to visit her sister, Mrs. Willis Moss, near Island City.

The L. O. O. M. Lodge held a special initiation at their regular meeting on Thursday evening. Ten men rode the goat, much to the amusement of the members, who attended en masse. At the close of the initiation a program was rendered that was received with much applause.

An installation of officers was also held. From present indications the members are expecting to put on the minstrel two nights, instead of one, as was formerly planned.

Monday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. H. E. Dixon a most entertaining and instructive evening was spent by members and friends of the Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary.

After the regular business session, Mrs. Dixon, as chairman for the evening, took charge of the program. "Shakespeare" was the study topic and proved one of the best topics for the year's work. Mrs. Hogan first laid the year's work. Mrs. Hogan first formed the centerpiece and gave a peano's life, Mrs. Guy Spencer followed with a paper written by Mrs. Clyde Peterson, reviewing Shakespeare's best plays. Next Miss Nell Lars.

Mahaffey read a synopsis of "Romeo and Juliet," leading up to the balcony scene and this was presented most notably for the pleasure of the members. Mrs. F. A. Eppinger as Juliet and Miss Bertha Walsinger as Romeo. Mayville, C. DeKeyser, J. L. Kline, added to the success of this scene.

Following this Mrs. Dixon gave a splendid synopsis of "As You Like It," which was followed by a tableaux picturing Roslin and Celia with Touchstone resting in the forest of Arden. Mrs. Hogan represented Roslin, Mrs. C. Peterson, Celia, and Nell Mahaffey, Touchstone. Another tableau was given from a scene in "Midsummer Night's Dream," Mrs. G. Spencer representing Queen Titania, Miss Effie Snider representing "Bottom," and little Miss Margaret Dixon as "Puck." Miss Mahaffey read a synopsis of "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Some very clever artistry on pastry, prepared by Mr. Macpherson of Macpherson's bakery was displayed when refreshments were served. Two huge cakes with designs from the "Twelfth Night," one representing a court jester and the other a crown, were displayed before being cut and were much admired. The hostesses who were responsible for the evening's entertainment were Mrs. Dixon, chairman, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. G. Spencer, Mrs. C. Peterson and Miss Nell Mahaffey. Little Miss Margaret Dixon and Howard were very daintily costumed for the evening.

Mrs. D. Charbonneau entertained the members of the Moosehead Legion Thursday afternoon. Games and needlework were enjoyed by the guests during the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. A. N. Mayville won first prize and Donna Smith and Mrs. D. Brannon won second prize. At four o'clock a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Covers were laid for twenty-six. A pot of narcissus formed the centerpiece and gave a peano's life, Mrs. Guy Spencer followed with a paper written by Mrs. Clyde Peterson, reviewing Shakespeare's best plays. Next Miss Nell Lars.

Charming in all its appointments was the luncheon given by Mrs. J. Donald Meyers Tuesday at 12 o'clock, honoring the members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority, who were here with the University of Oregon Symphony orchestra. Seated at the attractive table, which was centered with gay daffodils were: Miss Helen Cupies, accompanist and pianist; Miss Alberta Potter, violin soloist, and a sister of Miss Aurora Potter, who recently appeared in concert in New York; Miss Laura Teschner, a cellist of ability who appeared here in concert with the Thurlow Lewis Little Symphony at Chautauqua last summer; Miss Margaret Phelps, violinist; Miss Anna Landsbury Beck, Professor of Public School Methods in Music and a sister of Dr. John Landsbury, Dean of the University of Oregon School of Music; Miss Jessie Ferris, formerly an instructor in music at the University, now teaching in the high school here, and the hostess, Mrs. J. Donald Meyers.

Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, chairperson of the University of Oregon Symphony orchestra, was the house guest of her sorority sister, Mrs. J. Donald Meyers, during the recent visit of the orchestra. Both are members of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority.

Better When Cut Up. In California the farms originally were the old Spanish land grants, usually of enormous extent. In fashion these great holdings, taken by the American government who remained as ranches. Today the people are learning that both for taxation and production, small farms are better.
