All Masons and Stars are eagerly looking forward to the arrival of Easter Monday when the past matrons and past patrons of Hope Chapter No. 15, O. E. S., will give an informal dance that evening in Rex Hall. All Masons and Stars and their families will unite that evening in observing an enjoyable social evening.

This dance will be the first of a number to be given. Plans indicate that an annual dance will be held each year with this coming evening the first of the series. Those in charge are doing their utmost to prepare everything just right for the opening dance and they promise their guests a very delightful time.

Monday evening of this week Mrs. R. P. Landis, Miss Leibe, Miss Wandis and Miss Johnson entertained the members of the Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary. They were assisted by Miss Zorn. The evening proved to be quite unique and instructive, the topic of study being "Health."

For the convenience in carrying out their program, the hostesses entertained in the office rooms of Dr. Landis and these were tastefully decorated for the evening.

Following is the program that was presented and those taking part: Evening officers: General Debility, Major Operation, Captain Anaesthetic, Lieutenant Ethyl Chloride, Corporal Punishment, Private Consultation, "Laughter Makes Health," a radio message from Mrs. Vocal solo, (a) "Moon of the Cherry Garden," Novello; (b) "The Yellow Hammer," Lehmann, by Mrs. Ray Fuller with Miss Ruth Quigley accompanying on the violin. Skit, "Lend 'Em Aid," Miss Zorn and Miss Johnson. "Beauty and Youth Preservers," Miss Mabel Oesterling. Reading, "My Philosophy," Miss Esther Mohr. Vocal solo, "Sing, Smile, Slumber," Gounod. Mrs. Ray Fuller accompanied by Miss Ruth Quigley. "Emergency Operation," Dr. Speed and Killum Quick, assistant.

Dainty refreshments in keeping with the health program were served in a delightful manner.

The Pythian Sisters Club is meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Cleavenger, 502 Third street, this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cochran, of Portland, spent the week-end as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran.

Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp entertained the Clio Bridge Club at the Country Club Saturday afternoon. The guests reported a delightful afternoon and were voluble in praising their capable hostess.

The majority of the afternoon was spent in playing bridge, three tables being in action. Mrs. Harry Bouvy won the guest's prize and Dr. Margaret Ingles received high honors among the members.

At the close of the social hour the hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon, after which the guests took their departure. The Clio Club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp, 1704 First street, tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. E. R. Ringo entertained the Eastern Star Social Club at her home yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was spent at cards, Mrs. E. C. Tucker winning high honors for the day. At the close of the card playing a social hour was observed, followed by the serving of a very dainty luncheon by the hostess. Everyone reported a delightful time.

The next meeting of the Eastern Star Social Club will be held two weeks from yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Reynolds.

An enthusiastic meeting of the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church living on the north side of the city was held at the home of Mrs. G. E. Trill, 1804 U avenue. A good number were in attendance and division No. 4 was organized by the election of the following officers: president, Mrs. Vera F. Helvey; vice-president, Mrs. C. B. Walker; secretary, Mrs. E. G. Phillips; treasurer, Mrs. O. T. Utley. This election promises to be one of the most interesting and aggressive of the four organized.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson is still convalescent but her condition is becoming more and more as of old. Her friends expect her to be in the best of health in a short time and she is nearly herself at present.

The Thursday Five Hundred Club will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Elmer Gage, 216 First street.

Are Your Days A Pleasure?
Health Will Make Them So

East Bakersfield, Calif.—"For several years past Dr. Pierce's medicines have been the means of keeping me in good health. I was suffering with genuine weakness, inflammation and a catarrhal condition, also my back ached. I became weak and so nervous I could not sleep. I was feeling so miserable that I was scarcely able to get around. I saw Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription advertised and decided to take it, and it so completely cured me of my weakness, and built me up into such splendid health and strength that I have depended on it to keep me well ever since that time. Whenever I feel the least bit run down I take a bottle of the Favorite Prescription, and it builds me right up in health. It is just what to give me a new lease on life. I can also recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a Spring tonic and blood purifier and find it equal in as good as the Favorite Prescription."—Mrs. Mary Wagner, 1901 Sumner St.

All druggists, Tablets or liquid. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. or write for free medical advice.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT NOW

Baseball is back in its own in La Grande. Practice was held at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon and a good turnout was on hand. A large delegation of spectators lined the sidelines sizing up this year's possibilities.

The afternoon was spent in limbering up baseball muscles that have lain dormant during the winter and hard practice was not possible last Sunday without taking the chance of landing some of the players on the bench with charley horses and sore arms. Infield practice, fielding and general work was in order.

In addition to the regulars who are rapidly getting into shape a number of youngsters have been working out and out of the bunch four are showing up in such a manner as to warrant them a berth on the regular squad. If these budding artists keep up the good work La Grande will not lack capable material for this year's team. From present indications on April 30, when the ambitious Covites journey over to cross bats with the locals in the opener, the last year's champs will find some mighty hard nuts to crack. Cove got a classy wallop in the final exhibition game last year and McFalls and his war-horses are getting all fixed for another victory. Whether or not this happens largely depends upon the support the town furnishes them. La Grande people are anxious to see a real team and the boys are hustling to produce a No. 1 goods, and if nothing happens when the umpire yells play ball, they'll be there with a lineup that stands a pretty fair chance of stamping on the invaders.

The first practice game of the season will take place next Sunday, barring rain, between the regulars and rangers. This game will give the men some real practice and will also give the manager a chance to pick the strength of his men. From then on the entire squad will get down to some hard practice and unless the weather forbids, they should have themselves in good shape on the opening day.

STARKEY HAS A FAIR DAY

(Special to The Observer)
STARKEY, Apr. 12.—One fair day was all that fell to the lot of this section last week, but it was welcome. There has been much rain and snow during the last few weeks. There are still many drifts left and probably will be for some time.

Some of the ranchers have turned their stock out on the brakes to rustle for their living.

Hay is rather scarce and everyone who is not out of hay is very nearly so now.

R. L. Williams returned to the mountains to take in his line of traps. Tom Rose went in with him to pack out his bed and furs. While in the hills he will try to get a bear as they are coming out of their winter sleep.

Mr. Williams expects to buy land in Starkey and later establish a martin and mink fur farm. He is a fine hand in Starkey and later establish a martin and mink fur farm. He is a fine hand to tan and he makes up his furs into wraps and other pieces.

A. B. Burnett went to town Wednesday.

Glenn Barron and Edward Robertson came in from Carson, Idaho, last week and are stopping with their brother-in-law, Jack Starkey. They expect to go back to the Pendleton country soon.

Mr. Brown may locate in the Starkey country.

Henry Penfer left Starkey to take a job with Hugh Correns sheep ranch at Pilot Rock as herder.

The roads still apparently are bottomless and the mail carrier is carrying mail by pack horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingham and little son, Bob, and daughter, Dorothy, visited at the Ralph Sullivan home Sunday, as well as with the A. B. Burnett family.

Alvin Thornburg, Sam Nixon and Mr. Penfer visited Tom Rose Sunday.

R. L. Sullivan is preparing to go to the country around Pendleton for pasture horses. He takes in 200 to 300 head every year.

A. J. Sullivan is coming to the mountains soon with his band of horses.

GIVES SUPPORT TO WILLIAMS

Bruce Dennis, newspaper publisher of La Grande, who was once an opponent of Ralph E. Williams, for republican national committeeman for Oregon, is now advocating the reelection of his one-time rival for this place. Mr. Dennis, who was in the city on business, said that the fact that Williams is now vice-chairman of the national committee should give him the support of the republican voters of Oregon.

"It is not the personality of Mr. Williams, nor his record in Oregon that are to be considered now," said Mr. Dennis, "but it is the fact that this state has the vice-chairmanship of the republican national committee, which is the highest place in party activity that can be attained, excepting the chairmanship, and in case of a vacancy in the chairmanship Mr. Williams will go to the head of the national committee."
