"A POOR RELATION" AT SHERREYS TODAY

Those who have seen or have heard of Edward E. Kidder's famous comedy, "A Poor Relation," will be delighted to know that this successful play has been made into a photoplay by Goldwyn, with Will Rogers in the role made famous by the late Sol Russell. The part of the poor relation, Noah Vale, a town character, who is both philosopher and inventor, fits the acting methods and the temperament of Will Rogers perfectly. It is one of the best roles that an actor of Mr. Rogers' type can hope for. Whoever has seen Will Rogers' Goldwyn pictures, will know that his Noah Vale in "A Poor Relation" is certain to be a masterly characterization. In support of the star are such well known players as Sylvia Breamer, Molly Malone, Wallace Macdonald, Eydney Ainsworth, Little Robert De Vilbiss, George Williams and Jeanette Trebbel. Clarence Badger directed the picture. Also showing a comedy.

SCREEN'S GREATEST FIGHT IN "TOL'ABLE DAVID"

The story of David and Goliath is given a modern counterpart in the First National Attraction "Tol'able David," by Richard Barthelmess, who in one of the most thrilling fight scenes ever depicted for the films, as a mere stripling of a youth, attacks and kills a veritable giant of the mountains, in the performance of his duty. "Tol'able David" is being shown at the Arcade Theatre today and during the remainder of the week. Barthelmess' big fight scene comes at the culmination of two encounters with villains, father and son, who are seeking to retain the government mail sack which is entrusted to his charge. David kills them both, but before the one dies he hurls a chair at the boy he has wounded and has his revenge in seeing the gun drop from the boy's grasp.

RALPH CONNOR'S "THE FOREIGNER" NOW ON SCREEN

What has been declared to be one of the most extraordinary pictures ever made opens Saturday at the Star Theatre. "God's Crucible," it is called—the screen version of Ralph Connor's novel "The Foreigner," directed by Henry Alexander MacRae and released by Hodkinson. The story tells of a young political refugee who flees to Winnipeg to escape his enemies, and there, amid the snow-capped grandeur of the Canadian Rockies, wins fame and happiness. Those who have read the novel know that the action moves along at a swift pace from start to finish, and it is said that the picture is vastly more engrossing than the book. A really marvelous cast will be Glass, of "Humoresque" fame, Wilton Lackaye, Gladys Coburn, Bradley Barker, Biuglow Cooper, Julia Cowles, Ann Sutherland, and many others—an all-star cast if there ever was one.

MARRIAGE A BIG SURPRISE

(Special to The Observer) GRANGE HALL, Apr. 13.—Last Friday was cleanup day at the school house. Mrs. Roy Gekeler, who was recovering from an attack of the flu, suffered a relapse and was taken to the Grande Ronde hospital Sunday. Mrs. Gekeler is improving rapidly now and will be able to be taken home in a few days. Mrs. Gekeler and her pupils have arranged a delightful program which they will put on at the school house Friday afternoon. The program begins at 2 o'clock and those who attend will enjoy every bit of it. The marriage of Dexter Eaton, a former resident of the Grange Hall district, and Leona Kemp of Puyallup, Wash., came as a surprise to Mr. Eaton's many friends. The marriage took place a few days ago in Vancouver, Wash. Kenneth Gekeler came home Tuesday after staying in town for the past week on account of the roads being in such bad condition for him to pass over daily with his car. Victor Ragain and family have moved from the Roy Gekeler place to North Willow street in La Grande. Wm. Gekeler has been on the sick list but is improved at the present.

NON-QUIBLER DRAWS FINE
