GWYNN HERE TO TALK POLITICS

"I came over to tell you all that I am a candidate for congress on the Republican ticket," remarked James Gwynn of Pendleton, who spent yesterday afternoon in the city.

A few days ago he announced himself as an opponent to Congressman N. J. Sinnott and issued the following platform:

A protective tariff to safeguard the interests of Oregon.

Securing Oregon's just share of the Reclamation fund for Oregon's reclamation and irrigation projects.

Government assistance in the development of Oregon's hydro-electric power.

The fostering and maintaining of an economical and common-sense basis of the free public schools.

The reduction of taxes by economical administration of public affairs.

Federal aid road money for use on economic market roads; not for tourist roads only.

Vigorous efforts by Federal Government to stamp out narcotic evil; genuine enforcement of all laws.

Just compensation to our service men who served and defended us.

His slogan is: "Keep faith with our service men, rigid economy, enforcement of all laws."

Mr. Gwynn lived in La Grande several years ago before locating in Pendleton.

aries of the country. An official of the Bureau of Entomology advised the Bureau of Standards today that he had invented a device which will operate on the principles of the turntable and that it will register the arrival home and departure of every bee that enters the hive on honey-making errands. The apparatus consists, it was explained, of a gate to be placed at the entrance to a beehive with a series of telephone message registers attached in such a way as to register each time a bee hops, skips or bumps on or over the contrivance which was said to be operated electrically by alternating current.

The inventor explained that about three hundred thousand bees go out during the day, on honey gathering expeditions, and that while considerable electrical energy was needed to operate the recording gate on the average hive, the amount of energy expended by the device each time a bee passed was infinitesimal.

BARTHELMUS REGISTERS NOTABLE SCREEN TRIUMPH IN "TOLABLE DAVID"

When Joseph Hergeshimer finally allowed one of his stories to be translated into screen reels he entrusted the task to Richard Barthelmus. The result has justified his judgment for "Tolable David," the first National attraction which opened its run at the Arcade Theatre yesterday, ranks far ahead of the season's offerings.

The production marks Barthelmus' first appearance as a star. His role as David Kineman is one that calls for sympathetic acting and the ease with which he receives from Barthelmus makes the character an outstanding one. The star registers high in the role of the mountain youth whose unwavering ambition is the keynote of his character.

In one day the world is transformed for David. He has his chance to drive the government mail and because he regards it as a sacred trust the opportunity comes to all at once to prove his qualifications for the job, wipe out the stain on the family honor and regain the affections of his girl. The climax comes in a smashing fight that is a real sensation for combined run play and two fasted manhandling.

Glady's Hulette plays the part of Esther Hattorn with charm and simplicity. The others in the cast are Warner Richmond, Edmund Garney, Laurence Eldinger (father of Wallace Edinger), Forrest Robinson, Walter P. Lewis, Ernest Torrence, Ralph Yearsley, Harry Hallam, Marion Abbott and Patterson Dial. Henry King directed the picture which was produced by Inspiration Pictures, Inc.

THE REAL THING.

One of the big moments in "God's Crucible," the pictureization of Ralph Connor's novel "The Foreigner," a Rodkinson release which will be offered Saturday and Sunday to the patrons of the Star Theatre, takes place in a court room, where the young hero is on trial for his life. When Ralph Connor wrote the novel he described this court room at very great length, and because it played so important a part in the unfolding of the story, in finest detail. He was enabled to do this because he did not call upon his imagination, but rather described an actual court room which existed in the city of Winnipeg.

So that when theatre patrons see the court room scene in "God's Crucible" they will be seeing not a makeshift but the real thing. Not only that but the Court Crier and the clerks and many of the attendants are men who have officiated in their respective offices for a great number of years, therefore their technique is quite perfect. Even the newspaper reporters are not "extras" but actual reporters connected with the Canadian Free Press, which seems to insure the last word in realism.

AT SHERRY'S LAST DAY OF "A POOR RELATION."

"A Poor Relation," the latest Goldwyn feature comedy, starring Will Rogers, is showing for the last time today at the Sherry Theatre. The picture is the film version of the stage play of the same name that has been successfully performed for the past thirty-one years. It brought fame to its author, Edward E. Kilder, as well as to the late Sol Smith-Russell, who created the title role and acted it for many years.

Will Rogers is an ideal "poor relation." As a quaint and shabby philosopher who fathers and mothers two orphans, though he himself has nothing, the cowboy star will bring laughter and tears to all who see him. The part of Noah Vale might have been born with him.

The story is simple and vertice triumphs over scheming villainy, but only after many trials that are both amusing and pathetic.

Every resource of the producer has been utilized to make "A Poor Relation" Mr. Rogers' Goldwyn masterpiece. Also showing a comedy.

The City Commission reserves the right to reject all bids. The total estimated cost of the proposed work is the sum of $2,413.04 and no bid will be accepted which is greater in amount than the estimated cost. All bids must be filed with the Recorder on or before the time mentioned. J. E. STEARNS, Recorder of the City of La Grande, Dly Apr. 8-101.
