

SHOES

Men's Shoes and Oxfords

for dress wear, in Kangaroo, calf and kid. A large selection constructed on the new shape last.

$3.75 to $7.50

Work Shoes

for real service and wear built solid throughout. Army shoes in all widths.

$1.95 to $6.50

"We guarantee every pair of shoes to give absolute satisfaction."

Westenhaver & Gilbert

1309 Adams Avenue, La Grande

Before Preparing for Your Fishing Trip

Come in and let us show you our complete line of

FISHING TACKLE

At Right Prices

Newlin Book & Stationery Co.

S·H·E·R·R·Y·S

TODAY ONLY

Can two Wrongs Make one Right —

an age old question, that has confronted millions, answered in one of the most gripping, most dramatic photo dramas ever filmed. A tremendous play that will make you glad and sad.

"Whispering Devils"

Starring the Idol of the Screen—
CONWAY TEARLE
—Sensational Story and Brilliant Cast

Also

"MOVIE CHATS" — "MUTT & JEFF"

Society

Music furnished by Bekeler's orchestra. The greater part of the evening was spent in dancing. Misses Veria Rao Smith, Donaline Oxner and Dorothy Caldwell served punch. The refreshments were completed with sandwiches and cookies.

The hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Voelz, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Hough, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Oxner, Mr. and Mrs. Harley D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spaeth, Mr. and Mrs. Julius P. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson.

Miss Florence Sosloff and Helma Anderson were hostesses to the members of the Westminister Circle at the home of the former on 1610 Second street on Thursday evening. Miss Marian Howell furnished a delightful vocal solo and Miss Copien, of Portland, furnished a piano solo. At the close of the program light refreshments were served. A large attendance was on hand and all reported a very enjoyable evening.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Frank E. Oxner, Mrs. Lloyd B. Pierce and Mrs. Robert Pratt for bridge at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 25, at Honan Hall.

Mrs. Alvira Stilwell and daughter, Mrs. Carrie Eaton, entertained the Parkside Club ladies at Mrs. Stilwell's home in north La Grande Wednesday afternoon.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the close of which the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Stein, Wednesday, May 3.

Greenwood Parent-Teacher Association will hold their regular meeting at 2:00 o'clock on Friday afternoon, April 28th. In addition to the business meeting an interesting program has been arranged and refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

Art work of the pupils will be on display from 1:00 o'clock throughout the afternoon.

There will be no evening program, as previously stated. A large attendance is expected.

On Thursday evening the members of the First Theological Class of the L. D. S. Sunday school assembled at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Geo. Lyman, to spend a farewell evening with one of their number, Reynold Bartness, who is leaving La Grande for Nampa, Idaho, where he will make his home. A delightful evening was spent in playing games and visiting.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served. Reynold was presented with an elegant Ever-sharp pencil by his teacher and classmates, who earnestly regret his leaving La Grande.

Those present were: Marion Stoddard, Lucile Black, Irma Lyman, Lou Lyman, Lila Bean, Ruth Bramwell, Valetta Harer, Lucine Salisbury, Fonda Hanks, Zelma Lant, Rita Parsons, George Garrick, Zena Thompson, Eugene Metcalf, Reynold Bartness, and the hostess and family.

The River Parent-Teacher Association met yesterday afternoon at the River school in company with the Greenwood association, who visited at the meeting.

A very charming program was presented by the various grades. Dialogues, skits, and dances formed the program. Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe, county school superintendent, gave a very interesting and instructive address at the close of the program.

A very delicious luncheon was served to those present at the close of the program. Eighty-five pieces were laid.

Mrs. William Ash is entertaining the Lucky Thirteen at her home this afternoon. The meeting was to have been held Thursday but was postponed until today on account of conflicting social affairs.

The Girls' Friendly society presented a pageant in Honan Hall last evening showing the work done by them in the past. The performance was very good and a large number were present. At the close of the program an hour of informal dancing was indulged in.

Miss Flavia Ritter entertained a number of friends at her home last evening. The greater part of the evening was spent in dancing and at the close of this a delicious luncheon was served. All reported a delightful evening.

The meeting of the Kaffee Klatch which was to have been held at the home of Miss Margaret Anson on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews as assisting host and hostess, has been postponed until Sunday evening.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew met Wednesday evening at Honan Hall. The subject for the evening was the "Soldier's Bonus or Compensation," but owing to several matters the regular discussion was not held. An informal discussion among the members made up the evening's entertainment.

The next meeting of the brotherhood will be held at Honan Hall on May 1. This will be a business meeting and will, in all likelihood, end the meetings for the season.

Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson was hostess to the Greenwood Mother's League on Wednesday afternoon. About twenty members were present and the afternoon was spent socially and attending to the usual business. At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Giles Harnden, Mrs. Callinwood, Mrs. Effie Struck and Mrs. J. D. Smith, served the members ice cream and cake.

Twenty teachers were entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. B. A. Wilkerson Wednesday evening. Mrs. Giles Harnden, Mrs. Effie Struck, Mrs. J. D. Smith and Mrs. Callinwood, assisting her in the duties as hostess. The dinner was very delicious and at the close of the dinner the ladies who lived in the Fruitdale district arrived, and entertained the Greenwood teachers the remainder of the evening.

The greater part of the evening was spent in music and dancing and at the close of the gaieties the hostesses served their guests delicious refreshments. Those present were unanimous in acclaiming the evening a huge success.

Mrs. J. E. Reynolds will entertain the Eastern Star Social Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on 1508 Second street.

The engagement of Miss Mary Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, to Melvin J. Larson was announced at a party given by her mother at the family home, 1031 Sixth street, Tuesday evening.

Dainty corsage bouquets of sweet peas and violets, with little cards announcing the engagement were presented to the guests. The wedding will take place in May.

The evening was spent at five hundred and at the close of the contest Miss Irene O'Connell received the first prize, while the consolation went to Miss Myrna Ash. At the close of the social hour delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Edith Bagg, Minna Ash, Dorothy Meyers, Peggy Wolf, Hazel Mohr, Dorothy Casey, Louise O'Connell, Irene O'Connell, Helen Sims, Deloris Pearson, Winifred Kennedy, Wilma Osterling, Vic Crawford, Lillian Hanks, Mary Fitzgerald, Mesdames, Paul Massee, Albert Curry, Clyde Bunting, Hill Templeton, Walter Palmer and Clyde Meyers.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was assisted in serving by Mesdames Dan McLellan, Chas. Bondingfield and Del Koenig.

A joint meeting of the Pendleton and La Grande Altar Societies of the Catholic church was held at Pendleton Thursday. The meeting was held for the purpose of comparing ideas and to increase co-operation and friendliness between the two sister organizations.

Eighteen members of the La Grande society were present, leaving on No. 17 in the morning. Upon their arrival in Pendleton their hostesses entertained them at dinner. A six-course dinner was enjoyed and at the close of half an hour's intermission, the ladies held their joint meeting, presided over by Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, president of the La Grande society. Mrs. Fred Meyers, treasurer, and Mrs. J. E. O'Connell, secretary, also took their places at the meeting. About thirty Pendleton ladies were present, making about fifty all told.

During the meeting several of the La Grande ladies responded to addresses by their hostesses. Mrs. E. L. Meyers talked on "Spiritual Advantages of the Altar Society." Mrs. J. E. O'Connell's subject was the "Financial End of the Altar Society." Mrs. J. C. Murphy gave a very interesting program, and was handled by Mrs. George Palmer in her usual charming manner. In a comprehensive paper she sketched the developments of the opera in Italy, France and Germany. From the Baroli Circle in 1630 down to the opera of the present time, emphasizing the distinctive features introduced by each of these nationalities.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. R. Buell at her home on Spring street. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent with music and fancy work. At the usual hour a two-course lunch was served by the hostess. The house was tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

The following ladies were present: Lillie Ahlstedt, Rebecca Asquiere, Laura Carney and Betty Jean, Ada Clark, Lou Richards, Eva Dagggett, Sarah Stacey, Callie Howell, Ruth Yapp, Margaret Parker, Isabel Murray, Anna Green, Carrie Gibbs, Bee Halford, Louise Hilary, Cora Fields, Laura Bunett, Elizabeth Hough, Mabel Thompson, Agnes Bachman, Frances Osborn, Stella Cyr, Mrs. Geo. McNeen, Josephine Stoop, Mrs. Sheffield, Maud Crozier, Mrs. Happersett, Miss Wyness, Mrs. Chenuit, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Harry Myers, Mrs. Carroll.

The visiting ladies present were: Mildred Osborne, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. Abe Johnson, Mrs. C. I. Johnson, Miss Hagey, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Luther Young.

CHICKEN DINNER. There will be a Special Chicken Dinner served at the opening of the City Restaurant. Price 45c. 4-22-11

Harry La Marr, clever character impersonator, is on the vaudeville program at the Arcade Monday. 4-22-11 number of friends at her home last evening. The greater part of the evening was spent in dancing and at the close of this a delicious luncheon was served. All reported a delightful evening.

A Good Bad Habit. If you truly have a fault be generous to a fault.

The meeting of the Kaffee Klatch which was to have been held at the home of Miss Margaret Anson on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews as assisting host and hostess, has been postponed until Sunday evening.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew met Wednesday evening at Honan Hall. The subject for the evening was the "Soldier's Bonus or Compensation," but owing to several matters the regular discussion was not held. An informal discussion among the members made up the evening's entertainment.

The next meeting of the brotherhood will be held at Honan Hall on May 1. This will be a business meeting and will, in all likelihood, end the meetings for the season.

Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson was hostess to the Greenwood Mother's League on Wednesday afternoon. About twenty members were present and the afternoon was spent socially and attending to the usual business. At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Giles Harnden, Mrs. Callinwood, Mrs. Effie Struck and Mrs. J. D. Smith, served the members ice cream and cake.

Twenty teachers were entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. B. A. Wilkerson Wednesday evening. Mrs. Giles Harnden, Mrs. Effie Struck, Mrs. J. D. Smith and Mrs. Callinwood, assisting her in the duties as hostess. The dinner was very delicious and at the close of the dinner the ladies who lived in the Fruitdale district arrived, and entertained the Greenwood teachers the remainder of the evening.

The greater part of the evening was spent in music and dancing and at the close of the gaieties the hostesses served their guests delicious refreshments. Those present were unanimous in acclaiming the evening a huge success.

Mrs. J. E. Reynolds will entertain the Eastern Star Social Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on 1508 Second street.

The engagement of Miss Mary Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, to Melvin J. Larson was announced at a party given by her mother at the family home, 1031 Sixth street, Tuesday evening.

Dainty corsage bouquets of sweet peas and violets, with little cards announcing the engagement were presented to the guests. The wedding will take place in May.

The evening was spent at five hundred and at the close of the contest Miss Irene O'Connell received the first prize, while the consolation went to Miss Myrna Ash. At the close of the social hour delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Edith Bagg, Minna Ash, Dorothy Meyers, Peggy Wolf, Hazel Mohr, Dorothy Casey, Louise O'Connell, Irene O'Connell, Helen Sims, Deloris Pearson, Winifred Kennedy, Wilma Osterling, Vic Crawford, Lillian Hanks, Mary Fitzgerald, Mesdames, Paul Massee, Albert Curry, Clyde Bunting, Hill Templeton, Walter Palmer and Clyde Meyers.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was assisted in serving by Mesdames Dan McLellan, Chas. Bondingfield and Del Koenig.

A joint meeting of the Pendleton and La Grande Altar Societies of the Catholic church was held at Pendleton Thursday. The meeting was held for the purpose of comparing ideas and to increase co-operation and friendliness between the two sister organizations.

Eighteen members of the La Grande society were present, leaving on No. 17 in the morning. Upon their arrival in Pendleton their hostesses entertained them at dinner. A six-course dinner was enjoyed and at the close of half an hour's intermission, the ladies held their joint meeting, presided over by Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, president of the La Grande society. Mrs. Fred Meyers, treasurer, and Mrs. J. E. O'Connell, secretary, also took their places at the meeting. About thirty Pendleton ladies were present, making about fifty all told.

During the meeting several of the La Grande ladies responded to addresses by their hostesses. Mrs. E. L. Meyers talked on "Spiritual Advantages of the Altar Society." Mrs. J. E. O'Connell's subject was the "Financial End of the Altar Society." Mrs. J. C. Murphy gave a very interesting program, and was handled by Mrs. George Palmer in her usual charming manner. In a comprehensive paper she sketched the developments of the opera in Italy, France and Germany. From the Baroli Circle in 1630 down to the opera of the present time, emphasizing the distinctive features introduced by each of these nationalities.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. R. Buell at her home on Spring street. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent with music and fancy work. At the usual hour a two-course lunch was served by the hostess. The house was tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

The following ladies were present: Lillie Ahlstedt, Rebecca Asquiere, Laura Carney and Betty Jean, Ada Clark, Lou Richards, Eva Dagggett, Sarah Stacey, Callie Howell, Ruth Yapp, Margaret Parker, Isabel Murray, Anna Green, Carrie Gibbs, Bee Halford, Louise Hilary, Cora Fields, Laura Bunett, Elizabeth Hough, Mabel Thompson, Agnes Bachman, Frances Osborn, Stella Cyr, Mrs. Geo. McNeen, Josephine Stoop, Mrs. Sheffield, Maud Crozier, Mrs. Happersett, Miss Wyness, Mrs. Chenuit, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Harry Myers, Mrs. Carroll.

The visiting ladies present were: Mildred Osborne, Mrs. Melvin, Mrs. Abe Johnson, Mrs. C. I. Johnson, Miss Hagey, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Luther Young.

CHICKEN DINNER. There will be a Special Chicken Dinner served at the opening of the City Restaurant. Price 45c. 4-22-11

Harry La Marr, clever character impersonator, is on the vaudeville program at the Arcade Monday. 4-22-11

A Good Bad Habit. If you truly have a fault be generous to a fault.

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION

J.C. Penney Co.

Incorporated

312 DEPARTMENT STORES

Suits for Boys

High in Quality—Low in Price

High grade, two pant knicker suits for the boy of 6 to 14 years of age. Made of fancy casimere cloths in the season's most attractive patterns.

—Same fine quality, well-made, stylish suits we have been selling all this season, which have given such splendid satisfaction to thousands of parents in 312 communities served by the J. C. Penney Co.

—There are just twelve suits at each price among the new arrivals.

$6.90 - $7.50

—Other big values in boys' two-pants suits now selling at $8.50 to $16.50.

NOVELTY BORDER Towels

Terry cloth towels in fancy all-over designs and borders in blue, pink and gold, with wash cloths to match. The sizes are generous and the patterns most attractive.

There are varied selections at 25c, 49c, 75c and 98c.

SEE OUR WINDOW SHOWING

Bath Mats

We are including in this showing Terry Cloth, bath mats in light and dark colors. Priced at $1.19, $1.98 and $2.45.

THE LARGEST CHAIN DEPARTMENT STORE ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD

Business is Better

The Hooverized volume of business increased 25 per cent during the month of March over any other month this year.

GREATER HOOVERIZED VALUES DID IT

HOOVERIZED

Where The Thrifty Throng