LAST DAY

"BOOMERANG BILL"

With LIONEL BARRYMORE

He had won his name in a hundred fights, because he always came back for more. But there came a day when he quit dead cold—and that was the biggest, bravest fight of his life!

A soul-stirring story of under-world thrills and a "bad man's" love that was finer than any king's.

COMEDY—"Fuss and Folly" ess served a delicious luncheon. All reported a delightful time.

SCHOOL HOLDS
CLEAN-UP DAY

(Special to The Observer) COMING MAY 25—just ending was "clean-up" day for the school. The pupils and teachers went at it with a will and the grounds certainly present a fine appearance. Roses and shrubbery were planted to further enhance the school premises.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion held their regular semi-monthly meeting at the Guild Hall.
It is a busy time of year and only eight members were present.

A special farm bureau meeting was held for Friday, April 21. The speaker of the day was C. L. Long, from the Agricultural college. His talk was to be along the lines of "Sprays and Spraying" but the horticulturists were too busy spraying their orchards to attend and but a few came out.

The pupils will give an exhibition of their Domestic Art at the high school on Thursday afternoon. Sewing has been taught in all the grades this year. Miss Helen Moreland, the Domestic Science teacher has had the high school and eighth grade classes, while Miss Erna Brown, third grade teacher, has instructed a class made up from the other grades.
