TAYLOR BROTHERS' COMEDIANS ARE COMING

La Grande is in store for some real classy entertainment all next week, starting Monday, May 1, as Taylor Brothers' Comedians, a road show carrying 14 people, have included our city in their route. Taylor Brothers are well known throughout the country as theatrical men who always offer the very best in plays, vaudeville specialties and performers of the highest rank and the company they are bringing to this city is possibly the best aggregation of its kind on the road. Taylor Brothers carry a mammoth water-proof tent theatre in which their shows are presented and the big top will be located on the vacant lot next to the Foley building. Such plays as "Lena Rivers," "St. Elmo," "Saints and Sinners," "Call of the Woods," "In Wyoming," "Girl of the Hills," and "The Girl of the Flying X" are included in their repertoire and being firm believers in the "something doing all the time" motto, there are no waits between acts, but classy vaudeville specialties take the time that is necessary for the changes of scenery. Taylor Brothers carry a carload of scenery and electrical effects and the shows are presented as they would be in the largest cities.

AT SHERRY'S NEW MAX LINDER COMEDY TODAY AND TOMORROW. "Be My Wife," the new Max Linder feature comedy has several unusual situations. The comedian essays many disguises which are no disguises at all, but serve to present Mr. Linder's remarkable ability as the man "who talks with his face." In this picture, one of the most novel sets ever contrived is used. It is a modiste's shop which is turned into an elaborate cafe of former days through the manipulation of various mechanical devices. The hero believes he has entered the former and suddenly discovers that he has been magically transported elsewhere. Mr. Linder's face tells the story. The plot concerns itself with a young man's attempt to win the hand of his lady. Nothing novel in that, but add a strong-minded aunt, a fat

NOTED PRODUCER ANSWERS PUBLIC WITH BIG PICTURE

By Thomas H. Ince. "Hail the Woman," my greatest emotional drama, is a new departure, a revolution, in a sense, because it is the solution of the problem which the public's ever-increasing appetite for "better and bigger pictures" has created. From the outset of my career as a producer, I have realized that it would be folly on the part of the motion picture industry to ignore any of the demands of an all-powerful public. The public is getting educated rapidly as to what is a "good picture" and what is not. The industry must keep pace with such development of the public mind—it cannot stand still, for stagnation means ruin. What the public demands now is motion picture drama dealing with

PASTURE LANDS FOR SALE—John F. Dobbins of Union, Oregon, offers for sale his tract of pasture lands of 1800 acres east of Telocaset, Oregon. Five hundred acres enclosed. the actualities of life which are in themselves a hundred times stronger than the figments of dreams! And so "Hail the Woman" has come into being—a resounding drama of American life, in which men and women of "flesh and blood" are the actors, and in which situations arise that will instantly be recognized and therefore understood by the audience. "Hail the Woman" is a human play "rubbing shoulders" with humanity's problems. That is what guarantees its tremendous and far-reaching success with an American public! "Hail the Woman" will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

The Railroad Man

Who Is He?
Shopman, Switchman, dispatcher, engineer, conductor, or "chuff"—all are alike in certain respects; they are all careful, watchful, strong men and most of them are thrifty. They are all working for the same purpose—the saving of time and money, the smooth and efficient operation of our nation's traffic. You can depend on the railroad man. At home and at work he has regular habits, a clear mind and a SAVINGS Account. This bank serves a railroad city and many of her railroad men. We find them as steady and dependable with their savings as they are with other work.
