

IN THE OLD HOME TOWN

NEWLY FINISHED HITCHING UP IN HIS NEWLY PAINTED BUGGY WHEN THE OLD MARE STARTED KICKING.

Local News In Brief

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

Here from Cove

J. R. Price, principal-elect of the Cove schools for the coming year, was in La Grande Saturday attending to some business affairs.

Here from Boise

Howard Gravelly, who hails from Boise, is located in La Grande at present in the employ of W. A. Benham, as an electrician. He will be here for some time.

Goes to Imbler

W. M. Birehfield, of Imbler, spent the week-end in La Grande attending to some shopping. He returned to his home this morning on the branch line train.

Terminates visit

Mrs. Ollie Chapon, who makes her home in Huntington, returned this morning on No. 17 at the close of a week's visit in La Grande with friends and relatives.

Carload Oldsmobiles Arrive

W. H. Bohanekamp company are busy unloading a carload of the new 1922 Oldsmobiles today. One of the new model 4-passenger sports cars is included in the shipment.

Parkdale Club

The Parkdale club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Stein, Fruitdale, Wednesday afternoon. It being the election of officers, all members are asked to be present.

Reverend Austin Here

Rev. J. C. Austin, of Portland, arrived in La Grande this morning on No. 24 and is a guest at the home of Rev. & R. Sifton today.

JAZZ

Dance

Saturday Night Starex Orchestra

Rev. Austin is here in the interests of the campaign for the erection of a new Baptist parsonage and will return to his home tomorrow.

Russell's Condition Serious

Reports are that the condition of J. A. Russell, who is now at Hot Lake, suffering from infection in his leg as a result of an accident at the old Brewery last week, is serious.

Correction

The date of the Elk's dance is on Wednesday evening at the Elk's lodge room instead of Tuesday as was announced Saturday.

Go Through to Union

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rollins, of Portland, passed through La Grande yesterday on route to Eaton, where they will visit with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rollins, for a week.

Bible Examinations

Bible examinations will be held Friday morning at the high school by Supt. A. C. Hampton. The classes in Bible study here have been held in the various churches under the direction of the state superintendent of schools.

Visits in Elgin

Mrs. J. T. Galloway came in from La Grande Monday morning where she has been spending most of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Langimo. She will remain here for an indefinite period with her son, J. F. Galloway.—Elgin Recorder.

Fish in Dry Creek

Dr. Lee Bouvy and W. H. Letsman, proprietor of the L. and L. Drug Store, both of La Grande, came in Sunday morning and with Dr. Butler spent the day fishing up Dry creek. The party caught five between them.—Elgin Recorder.

Visits With Husband

Mrs. E. T. Rooney and her little grandson, John Rooney, returned to Portland this morning on No. 17. They have been visiting in La Grande with Mrs. Rooney's husband who is employed on the O.W. as a special agent. They were here over the week-end.

Returns to Elgin

Mrs. Frank Seward and Mrs. Mary Abbott, both residents of Elgin, returned to their home this morning on the branch line train in company with Mrs. S. S. Thompson, of La Grande, with whom they have been visiting for a week's time during their visit in La Grande.

they went to Hot Lake for a day. Mrs. Thompson will be their guest at Elgin for a few days before returning to her home.

Enterprise Attorney Here

J. W. Barleigh, prominent attorney of Enterprise, is in La Grande today on court business. He will leave this evening for Pendleton where he will attend the session of the state supreme court.

Goes Over the Hill

L. A. Stoop left this morning on No. 17 for Umatilla county parts, where he will attend to some real estate matters. He will visit in Pendleton, Hermiston, Stanfield and other points.

Has Started Building

William Rogers, formerly of Hermiston, Oregon, has purchased two lots on U street from the C. G. Black Real Estate Agency and has begun work on the erection of a modern 5 room house.

Buys Berry Home

Charles Wales has purchased the property owned by Hanson and Buckholz on Washington avenue and has taken possession. The sale was made by the C. G. Black company and the consideration amounted to $4500.

Buys Berry Home

Mrs. Willis Perry, formerly of Blackfoot, Idaho, has purchased the property on North Greenwood street from William Berry and will locate here. The transaction was made by the C. G. Black company.

Former Policeman Buys

J. J. Broughton, former night policeman, has bought the property on O street formerly owned by Frank Jackson. The sale was made by the C. G. Black company.

Foley Guest

George Miller, a resident of Wallowa, is spending a short time in La Grande on business. He arrived last evening on the branch line train and is registered at the Foley.

Wallowa Man Comes Here

Cal Leigh, who has been connected with the Oregon Hardware and Implement company, left Thursday to take a position with the Frank L. Lilly company of La Grande as assistant manager. Mr. Leigh leaves many friends here, but promises to come up and fish as often as possible.—Wallowa Sun.

Golfers on Links

Nearly 100 men and women were on the La Grande golf course yesterday. The playing started early and continued until dark, the very delightful weather making it pleasant. Excepting form lumpy places on two fairways the course in fine shape. It has recently been rolled and is in much better condition than last fall.

Fight Fans See a Good Bout

When Muff Bronson and Allie Nelson met Wednesday night at the Star theatre fight fans believe they will see a fine show. Bronson is on the ground and working out regularly. Those who have seen him say he is a fighting machine and is very fast. When Jack Kearn, manager of Jack Dempsey, was in Portland some time ago he saw Bronson work, according to Jimmie Lewis, Bronson's manager. Kearn said Muff is the fastest lightweight in the country.

Lawyers Depart

Senator Colon R. Eberhard, R. J. Kitchen, Judge T. H. Crawford, F. S. Ivanhoe, R. J. Green, city attorney, A. W. Schaupp, district attorney of Wallowa county and J. W. Barleigh, city attorney of Enterprise, left this morning on No. 17 for Pendleton, where they will attend the supreme court. Senator Eberhard stated, "As D. W. Sheehan, of Enterprise, once remarked, 'We go over and give the supreme court a lot of advice. Sometimes they don't take it but we give it to them anyhow.'"

Last Chance Tonight

Anyone who has not yet obtained their tickets for the joint brotherhood banquet tomorrow night should make arrangements this evening with the pastor of his respective church because no further reservation will be made after tonight. These reservations so made will be conveyed to the general chairman by the pastors early tomorrow morning.

Imblerite Returns

Don Conkili, one of Imbler's business men, spent yesterday in La Grande and returned to his home this morning on the branch line train. He was a guest of the Savoy.

Minam Contractor Here

E. O. Archibald, who makes his home at Minam, is in La Grande at present in connection with his work as a contractor. During his stay he is stopping at the Foley.

Enterprise Couple

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cook arrived in La Grande last evening from Enterprise, where they make their home and are spending a few days here on a business and visiting with friends. They are guests of the Foley.

Will Speak Tonight

Mrs. F. E. Dodds, of Spokane, field worker of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church, will speak tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Methodist church. All women are urged to be present.

Hilgard Man at Summer

Owen Scott, of Hilgard, arrived in La Grande yesterday and spent the day here. He returned to his home this morning and was a guest of the Summer last evening.

Back this Morning

Ralph Williams, a resident of Enterprise, returned to his home this morning after spending the week-end in La Grande. He was a guest of the Savoy.

McCullough in Town

N. M. McCullough, a prominent rancher of Elgin, arrived in La Grande last evening and is registered at the Savoy. He is here on business.

La Grande Scouts Lose

In a game played with the Imbler youngsters Saturday afternoon at Imbler the La Grande Scouts baseball team was defeated by the score of 24 to 3.

To Play Picked Team

The Imbler boys baseball team will play a picked nine in La Grande Saturday afternoon. The team will be picked from the Central, Riveria, Greenwood, St. Mary's Academy and the Scout's team and is expected to give the visitors a hard tussle.

Changes Position

P. E. Wyrick, for the past year manager of the Gray News Stand in La Grande, resigned his position and has accepted a position as manager of the La Grande News company which will have its headquarters in the Foley Hotel building. The La Grande News company will be in operation in about a week's time. B. F. Hummelt, formerly of Missidoka, Idaho, is Mr. Wyrick's successor as manager of the Gray News Stand.

Baker People in City

Mr. and Mrs. James Cavin, of Baker, are in La Grande today visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Phy.

Home from Portland

Morton W. Kiddle, who had been in Portland for a few days on business, has returned home.

Arrives from Portland

Mrs. George Noble, of Portland, arrived in La Grande this morning on No. 24 to visit with her husband who was injured in an auto accident early Saturday morning.

Over from Pendleton

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McNeos, of Pendleton, are in the city visiting his parents, George McNeos and wife of 2114 Adams avenue. Mr. McNeos is foreman of the Pendleton Tribune. He formerly lived in Wallowa county.

Dog Became Unmanageable

Policemen yesterday killed a big Collie dog belonging to Roy Clapp in South La Grande. The dog suddenly went "hay wire" as the high school boys would say and began biting at everyone. A little twelve year old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Brown at 1106 I avenue was one of the victims and immediately the police were called and dispatched the dog to that unknown sphere.

A 23-inch Trout

It is not in the way books, neither is it a title of having caught it in the Yellowstone park or some other far off place, for the fish is at The Torgery to show for itself and the man who caught it is Charles Gawald. The act occurred down on Willow creek near Summerville yesterday, and according to Al Andrews and John Waldon, both of whom are truthful fishermen, it is the finest specimen of the Rainbow they have ever seen.

Leaving for Portland

Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCormack will leave La Grande for Portland, where they will reside in the future. Mrs. McCormack is in North Powder visiting relatives today and tomorrow will be joined at train No. 17 by Mr. McCormack on the Portland trip. They have lived here many years and are spon-

Hosiery of Distinction. In all the newest patterns and colors in glove Silk In the Best Grades Prices Range From $2.75 to $3.50 FRENCH & GREENE Ladies' Ready-to-Wear and Shoes

Old Tyme Dance EVERY THURSDAY NIGHT AT ZUBER HALL The Lucky Lady draws the Dress on Thursday night at Zuber Hall. P. J. Powers

A.R.C.A.D.E TONIGHT ONLY 2 Shows in 1 VAUDEVILLE 4-Acts-4 Sterling Rose Trio Unique Novelty Gymnasts. Alan Grey & Co. Comedy Illusion Act. Edna Reming Character Comedienne. Castle & Belmont Singing and Dancing De Lux. Also Feature Picture ANNE OF LITTLE SMOKY A stirring, red-blooded drama of mountain folk who resent the coming of the law. TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY-Mary Miles Minter

You Are Invited to a CHICKEN DINNER Served by the ladies of Island City at the Island City Odd Fellows Hall tomorrow noon for the UNION COUNTY AD CLUB Business and speechmaking will be cut short and after the meal a visit will be made to the La Grande Concrete Pipe Factory and to the Pioneer Flouring Mill. S. D. CLINTON, Chairman (This space paid for by the La Grande Concrete Pipe Co.)

"Economy" Keeps Some Men Hard Up! You've heard of men so extravagant that they never have a dollar. Well, there are also men so economical that they never have a nickel. It just keeps them broke replacing the cheap things they buy. There are CLOTHES that are lower priced than COLLEGIAN CLOTHES in the beginning, but they are all higher in the end. ASH BROS. "The Store That Keeps Faith With the People"

SHOE SALE At Clint's For Men, Boys and Children Every pair of shoes in the store goes on sale at 20% reduction. All standard brands—shoes of quality. Includes — Nettleton, Strafford, Roberts, Johnson & Rand, Edmond's Foot-fitters, Master-Made, Chipewa Shoes. Also All Oxfords on Sale. Men's Suit Sale still on—your choice of any suit in the store, $33.00. Clint's Clothiery The Store With a Conscience

TONIGHT! TAYLOR BROS. COMEDIANS In the 4-Act-Comedy Drama "Saints and Sinners" —With— Classy Vaudeville Between Acts Doors at 7:30, Curtain 8:15 Children 25c Adults 50c Big Tent Theatre Next to Foley Building LADIES FREE

GARDEN SEED CUBE SUGAR BROWN SUGAR CANNED D. M. BEETS CRACKED WHEAT BREAD among the other many Macpherson Bakery products. A VERY FINE LINE OF FRESH VEGETABLES Klean Kut Kash Grocery Phone Main 35 Free Delivery H. H. HUG, of Elgin, Prop.